DASSE CHARGED WITH CRUELTY.

Captain tells Why He Refused More

Paid for Seven-Mule Team.

Investigation of Captain Ledlie McCorkle, who was charged with treating the seven mules in his care more cruelly than necessary, is under way by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The Department of Agriculture was notified of the complaint by the mule owners, who said the mules were malnourished and emaciated.

The mules were taken to the Department of Agriculture for examination, and it was reported that they were in poor condition.
