THEY CHANGED THEIR MINDS

Board of Regents Rescinds Action of July 18.

SCHOOL, Aug. 18.-The Board of Regents of Oregon State University has rescinded the action of July 18, ordering the president of the university to dismiss the faculty for not having approved the new regulations, and instead of proceeding in accordance with said regulations the president was ordered to call a faculty meeting to consider the propriety and advisability of approval of the said regulations.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL SITUATION

There is a Good Deal More Than Poetry, Written by a Prominent Magazine.

An Article That Contains A Good Deal More Than Poetry, Written by a Prominent Magazine.

The normal school situation in the state of Oregon has been the subject of much discussion and debate in recent years. The Oregon State Normal School, located in Corvallis, has faced several challenges and controversies. This article explores the issues surrounding the normal school and its impact on the education system in Oregon.

The Normal School Situation

There is a Good Deal More Than Poetry

Written by a Prominent Magazine.

An Article That Contains A Good Deal More Than Poetry, Written by a Prominent Magazine.

The normal school situation in the state of Oregon has been the subject of much discussion and debate in recent years. The Oregon State Normal School, located in Corvallis, has faced several challenges and controversies. This article explores the issues surrounding the normal school and its impact on the education system in Oregon.