Watermelon Feast.

The Modern Woodmen had a great feast on Monday night at which about 75 of the members were present. The entertainment was in the form of a jollification after the initiation of three candidates. Many of the members took their wives and sweethearts and when the business of the evening was concluded, a program of music, singing and other social functions, was carried out and during the evening the happy crowd got away with four dozen watermelons and other refreshments. The order is in a flourishing condition, hardly a meeting but what new candidates are reported as knocking for admission. The curfew bell had no meaning to the merry party, for it was dangerously near midnight before adjournment was taken.

A CROWDED STORE

Lurch's store was a busy place on Monday and it took three clerks on the jump all day long to fill the orders of the school children who flocked by the dozen to obtain their school books. It is safe to estimate the amount that the Cottage Grove parents will have to pay out for books this term will easily reach $1000 cash, and there is no doubt but that on some of them it works a hardship. This changing of text books every few years is a simon pure graft proposition and a Heney devoting some of his time to an investigation of this school book matter, would receive the applause of the majority of the parents in the state.

ARRESTED FOR SELLING LIQUOR

The trial of Harry Parker, who was arrested for selling liquor, occupied the attention of the Recorder's office on Monday. He was given a jury trial, but the jurors failed to agree, and the case was called again Tuesday morning. Attorneys Medley & Johnson appeared for defendant, and Jerome Knox prosecuted the case.

MARRIED.

Wednesday evening, Sept. 11, 1907, the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McKernan in Gowdville suburb, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their daughter Miss Sylvia, was united in marriage to Mr. Hiram Griggs, by Rev. C. H. Wallace. The affair was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the parties being present. After the ceremony an excellent supper was served and many were the congratulations and well wishes for the future happiness and prosperity of the young couple.

Mr. Griggs is one of the prominent young men of the city, being manager of the Willamette Valley Co's electric light and power plant. The bride is one of Cottage Grove's best young ladies with a host of friends.

One Hundred Words on Oregon Fruit.

At the request of the Oregon Development League, Hon. Wilbur K. Newell, president of the State Board of Horticulture, has condensed in the following one hundred words a statement about Oregon fruit that should be printed in every language known to the tongue of man.

"Oregon excels in fruit. Proof: Because her apples are the acknowledged standard of the world, bringing highest prices from the trade of New York, London, Paris and Berlin.

"Her pears, cherries, dried prunes and strawberries have a national reputation, unequalled by the fruit of any other section of the United States.

"Why? Because Nature has given her a soil containing the necessary plant food, a climate without extremes, and moisture and sunshine just right to produce a fruit of beautiful color, firm texture and unrivalled flavor.

"And her people have the intelligence to take advantage of these conditions."
