To Portland by train.

Ed Morris and Wm. Foy, prominent residents of this city, have been here in town for a few days in connection with the business of the firm.

They returned to the city.

They are both practical business men and in every way making the best of a start and they have not broken a step in the fast track.

We are happy to announce that the next Tuesday evening, we will be holding the next regular weekly meeting of the Junior Women's Club of the city, being managed by the Williamsville Junior League.
