Bishop Scowling Sets the New Program

The Renowned Bishop Scowling, Bishop of Oregon, is bringing an unusual holiday program to the city. It is in the nature of a television program, and the Reverend Mr. Smith, the Bishop's secretary, has been busy preparing the program for the show. The show will be broadcast over the local radio station tonight.

The show will begin with a presentation of the Christmas story, followed by a musical concert. The choir will sing carols, and the orchestra will play Christmas music. The show will end with a special guest performance by the local symphony orchestra.

The Bishop has asked all parishioners to come and enjoy this special program. The show is free, and everyone is welcome.
