COTTAGE GROVE LEADER

With this number, the name under which this paper has so long been known and published has been dropped and that of Cottage Grove Leader has been substituted.

It has been thought by the management that the name of Lane County Leader did not sufficiently localize the paper as the county is of great size; larger in area than some states.

Cottage Grove has taken the position of being the second city in the county and as the paper is published here it seemed advisable to give it the name.

It will be the aim of the Cottage Grove Leader to assist in the advancement and upbuilding of the city and surrounding country. While all are proud of Lane county, Cottage Grove is that portion of it which is of immediate interest to the majority of the readers of the Leader and for its patrons the paper will strive to be of benefit.

THREE TICKETS IN FIELD

Some cities can afford only on municipal ticket; some two, bu Cottage Grove never behind in any matter, has the distinction of having three tickets from which to select its servants for the ensuing year. According to the statements of those who placed them in nomination "all good and true men," so that in any event the city is safe.

NOT SO VERY BAD.

Cottage Grove seems to be getting its full share of noterity recently and some people have the impression that it is a rather tough town.

With a little reflection however it will be seen that nothing has occurred here for a long time, at least that is out of the ordinary, or that does not happen in other cities of its size.

It is true the saloon question has been freely discussed and possibly the reports concerning these and other matters have been, owing to the energy of the correspondents and news gatherers given more importance than the circumstances would really call for.

A short time since a woman of the town was either killed or else she committed suicide, all the testimony so far adduced points to the latter. If she took her life it is only what is likely to happen at any time among her class of people. Not long since John Fletcher either attempted to take his life or an attempt by another party was made to murder him. So far the evidence points very strongly at John Branton as the would be assasin and he is under arrest and will if proven guilty, be legally punished for his crime.

These two affairs are the only things of a serious nature that have occurred in the city for a long time and are not of sufficient importance to justify the statement made by some that Cottage Grove is the worst city in the valley.

That it could be better goes without saying but the same can be said of other places all along the line.

There is a determination on the part of a large majority in the city to have the laws more thoroughly enforced than they have been in the past.

Such things as people committing suicide cannot be prevented, but there are already enacted, laws which if enforced are sufficient to properly govern and control the affairs of the city. In the coming election for city officers it is for the voters to say whether men shall be elected who will enforce these laws or not.

Recent dispatches from Colorado show that Governor Adams has been ousted and Jim Peabody made Governor for a day. The Coloradians in these parts who have kept watch of the proceedings of the state legislature regard the action as an outrage.

If Peabody could not establish a better rights to the governorship, then Adams should have remained.

The columns of the Leader are open to the platform or statements of the candidates. Tell the people where you stand on the general issues.

The complaint that woman is encroaching upon man's rightful field of work seems to be justified. The Boston Globe finds there are in the United States 550 female carpenters, 130 wood choppers, 200 blacksmiths, 170 brick and stone masons, 3,500 iron and steel workers, 40,000 boot and shoe makers, 180 engineers and 600 machinists. No wonder the number of male cooks are increasing and that our big city streets are lined with the signs of men forced into the polite vocation of ladies tailoring.

Just to Make You Think.

The coustaut plodder wins out in time.

One of the best growing crops is a bank account. Try it and watch the growth.

Some women do more harm by gossiping than the preacher can offset by preaching.

Did you ever count the number of persons in your town that have gone to jail through drink and gambling?

We call it innocence when our boy does it. If it is our neighbor's child we call it downright cussedness.

Suppose the world should, for at little time, cease exploiting material results and look to motives of action and effects upon character.

Some people put it off till tomorrow, while a drop of oil put on the door hinge would stop that creaking that you have been kicking about for a month.

Somehow it is so easy to help a lady to pass through a heavy swinging door, to alight from a street car

How to Get Rich in an Egg Shell.

Do you oft long to be a fine millionaire when You're poor, but too haughty to beg?
Well, go to a neighbor and borrow a hen,
And ask for the use of an egg.

Now next place the hen and the egg on a nest,
Where the pullet will work out the trick;
For like she's the talent her manners attest
She'll shortly hatch out a small chick.

Then take the hen back to her owners next day
As fast as your trotters will peg;
And when your own chick is beginning to lay
You can honestly take back the egg.

Thus set up in business, the rest is a snap,
For your chick will have chicks of her own;
And the chicks of these chicks will hatch other chick's chicks,
If you let them severely alone.

And when all the chicks of these chicks have hatched chicks,
And these chicks have hatched chickens in turn,
You can sell out your farm, like a thousand of bricks,
And revel in money to burn.

Then you'll blow into Newport, and purchase a yatch,
And ask all the neighbors aboard;
And before you are used to it, likely as not,
Your daughter will marry a lord.
—Wallace Irwin in Country Journal.

Over 300 business men of Eugene have seen the error of their ways and have made a desire of leading Christian lives in the future. Five churches are holding revivals at the M. E. Church and the building is not large enough to hold the people. Evangelist Beiderwolf is assisted by Harry Maxwell, tenor soloist.

A reception was tendered Miss Call of the Training Department, in honor of her (?) birthday—a very pleasant time marked the evening.

Mrs. White of Cottage Grove returned home Tuesday after a weeks visit with her daughter, who is teaching in the Training Department.

Bishop Moore of the M. E. church lectured on the Jap-Russian war. The Bishop was an eye witness to the battle of Chemulpo and very graphically described the destruction of the Russian battle ships. All enjoyed the lecture very much.

The enrollment continues to increase, a good healthful tone pervades the school, and many inquiries are coming from the east regarding the school and surrounding country. The attack on the schools of the state is already bearing unwholesome fruit as the Commercial Club is receiving inquires as to what the state means by the attack.

LONDON ITEMS.

about orders for mineral water, he is away behind with orders.

The timber cruiser, Mr. Peter Orpus, was in London looking after the timber interests of the railroad company. We learn the railroadland is on the market again; this will give land and homeseekers a chance to locate.

W. A. Stearns and A. E. Smith of Oakland, Ore., came over to London to buy up a lot of draft horses and looked at a pair belonging to John Small which just suited them, but they just suited Mr. Small so he kept them himself. If we had a few horses to sell mouey would be plenty. The man fartherest from market is the one who has nothing to sell.

The citizens of London and vicinity met at London house and organized a telephone company, to build a telephone line from George Sutherland's place to Cottage Grove, to be known as the farmer's line. It is estimated it will cost about three hundred and fifty dollars without 'phones. S S Shortridge is circulating a subscription paper and is progressing nicely; this is a move in the right direction and will relieve a long felt want in this community.

VERITAS.
