The Whist Club.

Tuesday night the Whist club members, with a few invited guests, met at Woodman hall. This was expected to be the last of the series, except as a final ending for the season a social gathering would be held. During the inter the ladies have upon each session furnished the refreshment which have been modestly partaken by the gentlemen. An idea occurred to the ladies Tuesday night, that it would be a good plan to have one more night of whist and let the male contingent entertain one before the close. Upon vote being taken it was so decided. Nearly thirty were in attendance.

Miss Effie Stewart and Miss Daisy Thomas entertained. The table was decorated with wild flowers, ferns and beautiful roses. Ice cream with splendid cake, also coffee were partaken of.

A Good Selection.

Frank B. Phillips of this city, has been appointed by President Campbell of the Commercial Club, a member of the committee to handle the funds appropriated by the county for exhibition purposes at the Lewis and Clark Fair. No better selection could have been made as Mr. Phillips is well informed as to the resources of the county besides he always attends to the public duties to which he is assigned. The other members of the committee are: Dr. L. L. Whitson, F. L. Chambers, F. W. Osburn and P. E. Snodgrass Eugene.

High School Reception.

Thursday night a reception was given at Woodman hall by the students of the schools, relatives and friends, to Menzo Finnerty, Georgetta Berg, Etna Holterman and Daniel Thomas, the four graduates from the High School of Cottage Grove. The hall was well filled, principally with the young people, but there were a number of parents and friends who had been invited to share in the evening's enjoyment. The Cottage Grove band was there and played a number of very fine selections.

Professor Dunn presided and for nearly two hours kept some form of entertainment constantly in evidence.

Those giving recitations were: Mrs. Alta King, Miss Nettie Morse, Harry Brehaut, J. L. Jones and Prof. Strange. Miss Lillian Hart and Mr. Isham sang a duet and Mr. Isham later favored with a solo.

Those responding to requests to say something concerning the schools and to the graduates were: Oliver Veatch, Chas. VanDenburg, W. B. Root, J. W. Barrett, Thos. A. Wrey and Rev. Billington.

A chorus of eight high school girls was a pleasant feature, Miss Daisy Gilbert of Eugene who is a visitor in the city, obliged the audience with a solo which was highly appreciated.

Prof. Dunn on behalf of the students thanked the band for its assistance, the parents and friends for their presence and Messrs. Jones and Phillips for the free use of the hall.

Following an adjournment the young people held a genuine social.

Dance.

At Opera house tonight. Tickets 50c; spectators 10c. All cordially invited to attend.

Wagonmaking, blacksmithing and general repair work at J. H. Baker's shop. Every guarantee of good workmanship given.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Never before has the Opera house been more handsomely decorated than it was last night.

The front of the stage was literally banked with roses, snowballs and other flowers; the sides and wings were covered with evergreens, while many potted plants were placed about the stage.

At eight o'clock every seat was occupied and the rear of the hall was crowded with those who preferred to stand rather than miss the exercises.

On the stage sat Supt. Dunn Assistant Supt. Strange, Prof. Mulkey, president of the Ashland Normal school, Rev. Stuart, directors Wooley, Veatch and Chas. VanDenburg and Clerk Awbrey.

The four graduates, two young men and two young ladies also occupied seats upon the stage.

The program which is given in full below was carried out entire with the exception of the oration of Miss Georgetta Berg, who owing to a recent sickness was forbidden by her physician to deliver it.

Supt. Dunn while explaining the reason for her not appearing, stated that he could say that in his experience as an instructor Miss Georgetta had accomplished something he had never witnessed before, she had during the past year, stood at 100 in every marking, not a single flaw had been found in her work by the teachers. All of the program was well rendered and must have been highly satisfactory to the teachers, family and friends of those who took part.

Prof. Mulkey paid the graduates a high compliment, when he said their work was the best he had heard this year. At this time, said he there is usually a spirit of commercialism running through almost everything, but in the orations of the evening, there was a higher moral tone than usual. He also noticed there were a larger number of men present than usual upon such occasions. He complimented the school board for the interest taken in school affairs.

Following the presentation of the diplomas by Supt. Dunn, the juniors numbering fourteen, who now become the seniors, stepped upon the stage and congratulated their school mates in having successfully earned and received their diplomas.

Piano Solo, Clarence Mors. Invocation, Rev. Grant Stewart. Treble Trio, High School Girls. Oration—Advancement of the Age, Menzo Finnerty. Piano Solo, Frances Howard. Oration—Power of Music, Georgetta Berg.

Chorus, Junior Class Girls. Oration—The Making of the Oregon Constitution, Etna Holterman. Piano Solo, Lindley Welch. Oration—Mind and Its Influence Upon Material Objects—Valedictory, Daniel Thomas.

Farewell Chorus, Junior Class Girls. Address, Congratulatory, Prof. C. L. Strange.

Address to Class, Prof. B. F. Mulkey. Presentation of diplomas, Supt. G. H. Dunn. Greeting to Junior Seniors.

Band Concert.

The audience which assembled in the Opera house last Tuesday evening to hear the Cottage Grove band concert was surprised and delighted beyond measure. The repertoire rendered showed much ability in the leader, Mr. Chas. Cochran as most of the boys in the band are amateurs. Mr. Cochran insists upon their studying a high grade of music and it is certainly marvelous the way they have comprehended and rendered the different numbers in their repertoire. The delight which the audience manifested in the selections destroyed forever the argument that a programme to be successful must consist of ragtime and dance music.

Some of the most able critics in our community were heard to express their grateful appreciation of the fact that we have a leader who is not only teaching our boys to play, but is helping them to study music and while we have always appreciated the Cottage Grove band in a way, the concert Tuesday night has given it a place in the heart of every worthy citizen in the town and we should prove that fact by helping in every way we can in the future. The last number on the programme was one of the many compositions of Mr. Cochran. It speaks for itself and the leaders ability could not be more thoroughly demonstrated. Miss Daisy Gilbert's singing was much appreciated, her charming unaffected manner set off a really sweet and musical voice which showed careful training. Miss Gilbert has had most of her training in the musical department of the U. of O. and last year won a scholarship for good work during the year.

We hope Miss Daisy will sing again for the many friends she made while in Cottage Grove.

This concert discovered to us two comedians of rare ability, Roy Baker and Winters Wallace in their really funny negro specialties.

Aside from the fact that "We have a feelin' for them" their songs were really good and they enlivened the programme for us. Those who had heard baby Potts sing that afternoon at the rehearsal were mystified at her manner in the evening, it was discovered afterwards that she was all the time in mortal terror of the "black man" whose comic songs she did not appreciate.

Little Myrtle has a wonderful preception of melody and rhythm, showing the utmost accuracy in tone and pulse. She will make a fine musician with proper training. Too much cannot be said of the two choruses rendered by the young ladies. The numbers were happily chosen and their rendition was really fine. We should have more of such work amongst our musicians here. Mrs. Roy Welch presided at the piano as accompanist. Mrs. Welch has had a class of some 20 pupils all the past year and her work amongst our young folks is being seen and felt. She, like Mr. Cochran has spent two years under masters of note and the work of her pupils shows their influence.

The duet of Chas. Cochran and brother Horace, assisted by Miss Neva Perkins another one of our musicians whom our little town is beginning to appreciate, deserves special mention. The number besides being an especially good one, was beautifully rendered.

Taking it all in all, the concert was a treat and many would like to have it repeated.

Mr. Petric of Lorane visited at Mr. L. H. Slagle's Sunday. LeRoy Barrett took dinner with D. A. Estes and family Sunday. Chas. Miller took dinner at the home of W. W. Wheeler Saturday. Miss Ruth Harrison, of Lynx Hollow, visited Mrs. Prindle recently. Miss Amy Owens was the guest of her cousin, Alice Wheeler, one day last week. Mr. Stephen Harris and wife visited at E. A. Wheeler's the first of the week. Dr. Katherine Schleaf of Cottage Grove and Miss Glass of Corvallis attended church here Sunday. Mrs. I. N. Dresser and children of Lynx Hollow visited friends in this place from Friday till Sunday. Prescott and Frank Wheeler visited at the home of M. F. Babcock the last of the week as did also Almon Owens.

TO THE CITIZENS OF LANE COUNTY

The annual meeting of the Lane County Good Roads Association will be held at the courthouse Saturday, May 13th, at 1:30 p. m. The county court, the Hon. mayor and members of the city council, the university faculty and all who are interested in the betterment of roads are most cordially invited to attend. Prominent speakers from other counties have been secured and the best road meeting ever held in Lane county will be had. Come to this meeting and do not miss this opportunity.

Death of Mrs. Martin.

A telegram from Santa Cruz California, from Willard Martin to N. H. Martin was received this morning announcing the death of Mrs. Willard Martin and that he will arrive here Monday morning with the body at 2 o'clock. No funeral arrangements yet made.

MARRIED.

PAPE—HUDDLESTON—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Willson on Wednesday at 4 p. m., Mr. Joseph Pape and Mrs. Jessie Huddleston, both of this city.

John Peterson is down from the Bohemia district.

Proud of His Typesetter.

The Alturas New Era has installed a Simplex typesetter, which is a "dandy" and devotes 3 1/2 columns to telling about its typesetter. The Era's typesetter only sets type and requires an operator and electric motor to make it do that. The Record has a typesetter that moves of its own volition, chews and smokes tobacco, lies about the paper's circulation, handles profanity with artistic skill, rustle, grub, saws wood, pumps water, sweeps out the office, can almost dance the two step and has actually threatened to wash the front windows of the office—and we've never said a blessed word about our typesetter.—Cedarville Record.

LONDON ITEMS.

Mr. Fred Gray of Oakland, Oregon, was also a guest at the hotel. Miss Emma Newell of Eugene, was visiting friends at the O. M. S. hotel Sunday.

Rev. William Bartle and his son Dr. P. J. Bartle and their families are expected to arrive at London the last of the week; also at a later date Dr. Ira C. Bartle and family expects to visit London.

The O. M. S. hotel is refitted in good shape, everything in first class order and best of all is Mrs. J. P. Hart in charge of the kitchen and dining room department, which means that the guests will have great satisfaction in gusto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webber were among the number at the O. M. S. hotel at 7:30 p. m. where in conjunction with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Neal rendered some vocal and instrumental pieces that were simply fine and worthy of the distinction of the London Amateur Glee Club.

Mr. William B. Neal is employed by the association of the Springs as ground manager, bookkeeper etc., who will make the general public feel at home by caring for their personal wants and making them feel at home. Come up and see how this is done.

The largest audience in the history of Liberty Church assembled on last Sunday to hear Rev. Mr. Woodley of the Eugene Divinity School, discourse on the gospel. Among the audience were representatives from Cottage Grove, Eld. D. C. Baughman and wife and many others too numerous to mention.

The farmer's telephone line is progressing nicely, the poles are mostly dug and the poles will be set this week and by June the 1st our neighbors can sit at the fire side and talk matters of interest. This word telephone may be compared to the Greek word, Thde, (tele) far off and own, a sound (voice) hence far off voice. Isn't this wonderful indeed, but it goes just the same. (some later.)

Silk Creek Items

Mr. Petric of Lorane visited at Mr. L. H. Slagle's Sunday.

LeRoy Barrett took dinner with D. A. Estes and family Sunday.

Chas. Miller took dinner at the home of W. W. Wheeler Saturday.

Miss Ruth Harrison, of Lynx Hollow, visited Mrs. Prindle recently.

Miss Amy Owens was the guest of her cousin, Alice Wheeler, one day last week.

Mr. Stephen Harris and wife visited at E. A. Wheeler's the first of the week.

Dr. Katherine Schleaf of Cottage Grove and Miss Glass of Corvallis attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. I. N. Dresser and children of Lynx Hollow visited friends in this place from Friday till Sunday.

Prescott and Frank Wheeler visited at the home of M. F. Babcock the last of the week as did also Almon Owens.

A CREAMERY ALMOST ASSURED

Gathering of Representative Business Men Who Believe a Creamery Should be Established.

The called meeting for Wednesday night at the Commercial Club rooms resulted in the gathering of quite a number of citizens who believe the time has arrived when Cottage Grove should have a creamery of its own where the considerable amount of butter that is used in this locality can be manufactured here instead of sending to other places for it.

The meeting was called to order by T. K. Campbell, president of the Club and at his suggestion, that as this was a meeting of the citizens it would be well to elect a chairman and secretary from the assembly. Thomas Pierce was elected chairman and H. O. Thompson secretary.

Mr. M. B. Stone of Lorane, representing the creamery company at that place was present for the purpose of making a proposition to sell the creamery that the Lorane people had built some two years ago, but found the supply of cream too limited to continue operations.

He explained at some length the equipments of the plant and made a proposition as to the price that was asked for it. He believed a creamery would be a paying investment in Cottage Grove and stated as one of the stockholders he would be willing to retain stock if moved here. And that during the summer months a large amount of cream would be brought from Lorane. A general discussion was had relative to the plan of creamery cost, etc.

The members of the committee from the Commercial Club, who have been investigating the matter for some time reported they were sure enough cows would be purchased by the farmers to supply the cream, as soon as they were assured there would be a sale for it. A committee consisting of Chas. Burkholder, Oliver Veatch and D. D. Knox was appointed to take up the matter in detail and prepare to make a report at the next meeting, the committee of the Commercial Club to co-operate with them.

The meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman, which will be as soon as the committee has prepared its report.

Made it $1500

The Commercial Clubs of Eugene and Cottage Grove, together with numerous others who are not members recently petitioned the county court to appropriate $2000, for use in displaying the products of Lane county at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

On Wednesday the court took the matter under advisement and decided that $1500 was about the right amount, which was set aside for that purpose.

The money must be used for a general exhibit of Lane counties resources and nothing of individual advertising will be allowed.
