The good rains sandwiched between pleasant and warm days, are bringing the crops along very rapidly.

A good many people are missing the north bound train which passes here at 11:55 a. m. The time was changed this week.

The grading of 4th street is progressing nicely. This will make a fine driveway to connect with the London Springs road across the river.

The foundation for the new block Main street is all ready for the laying of the brick as soon as they are burned and delivered on the ground.

Reverend L. Green, who has charge of the missionary work of the Presbyterian Church in this part of the country has located in Cottage Grove.

A large coyote was killed on Curtis Veatch's ranch Friday morning. Mr. Veatch states the animal was taken about half of the lambs on his farm.

Parties have been looking over the Long and Bingham mill and timber interests the past week while there is nothing definite arranged, the indications point to the starting of the mill in the near future.

David Gover brought to the leader office on Thursday a branch from a two year old gooseberry bush that was literally loaded with large berries. Mr. Gover is trying several varieties of berries and fruits with success.

The time table on the Southern Pacific was changed Monday and in some instances will prove a benefit to the patrons of the road from this city as they will be able to go to Eugene and return the same day. No. 12 arrives here at 11:53 p. m. instead of 12:15 p. m.; No. 11, 3:05 p. m. instead of 3:00 a. m.; No. 15, 2:24; and No. 16, 2:02.

Mr. Thomas B. Crow, a mining engineer and practical mill man of Colorado, arrived in the city Wednesday and Thursday morning went to Bohemia to take charge of the lamp mill at the Vesuvius mine which will be soon put at work upon the ores broken during the winter. Mr. Crow accompanies her husband and will remain in the mountains at least during the summer.

Mrs. G. W. Orr, who has been in Denver, Colo., at the Denver Homeopathy Hospital for the past few weeks and underwent a surgical operation, was able to be taken to the residence of Dr. Orr in the city on Thursday. The operation was very successfully performed by J. W. Harris M. D. of this city. Mrs. Orr expects to spend the summer with her sister at Colorado Springs.

Mr. George W. Kephart who has been manager of the Leader since last summer has found it necessary to resign the position and return to his home in Salt Lake. To attend to business affairs. During Mr. Kephart's stay in the city he has made many friends who regret his departure. He leaves for Portland today and after visiting the Exposition will proceed on his journey. Mr. J. M. Fisher recently of Denver will assume Mr. Kephart's position on the Leader.

On Wednesday John E. and James Martin of Burns, Oregon, drove into Cottage Grove. They have been traveling about Southern Oregon for some time. In 1856, they came to this country with their parents and were raised on a farm on Silk Creek west of the city. In 1878 they went to Eastern Oregon where, on their ranches, they have done well. They went from here to Portland to see the Exposition and visit their mother and sister. James is a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellow's session soon to be held in Portland. They are coming back to visit the old farm and locality.

County Commissioner Edwards was in the city Friday looking after road matters.

If you need an awning, let the Wynne Hardware Company order it for you. They know what you want.

John Timmons, who formerly worked on the Riverside group in Bohemia, is now mining in Cananea, Sonora, Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lockwood who have been at the Vesuvius mine for a long time are spending the week in the city visiting friends.

J. H. Knight a laborer working with the steam shovel near the Divide some miles south of the city, had his hand caught in the chain on Monday morning. The hand was terribly lacerated. He was taken to the hospital at Portland.

Quite a number went from Cottage Grove to Portland to attend the opening of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Among them were: Ben Lurch, Jacob Lurch, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brund, John Brund, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garman and children, Wm. Perman.

Appreciated the Assistance.

The members of Appomattox Post G. A. R. of Cottage Grove fully appreciate the courtesies extended to them on Memorial day.

To the band for its excellent music, those who participated in the parade, those who addressed them at the cemetery and church, to those who furnished the flowers, the M. E. Church that tendered the use of its building and all others who assisted in any manner upon that occasion, the Post desires to acknowledge its obligations to them and to assure them, that the old soldiers of Cottage Grove will ever remember the kindness extended upon that occasion.

GEO. W. McRRYNOLDS, Commander.
H. C. DUTTON, Adjt.

Was Mrs. Martin's Sister.

Mrs. J. R. Numemaker who was drowned near Heppner May 30, was a sister of Mrs. U. S. Martin of this place. She visited here with her sister two years ago. Also O. J. Cox whose child was drowned is a brother of Mrs. Martin, together were two children of Mrs. Numemaker's drowned. Mr. Cox lived at this place leaving here some three years ago. Mr. Numemaker is among the largest and most prosperous sheep men of the Heppner district. Mrs. Martin was wired the sad news of the drowning but too late for the burial. Full particulars have not been learned as yet.

What it Costs to See the Fair.

Visitors at the Lewis and Clark Exposition will be surprised to find how cheaply the big fair may be seen. The expenses of a trip depend largely, of course, upon the individual who makes the trip. The following is a conservative estimate of the entire cost for a trip to the Exposition and return:

Five day visit $20.95; ten day visit $30.95

Passed Stone and Gravel With Excruciating Pains

A. H. Thurnes, Mgr. Willamette Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE has done me $1,000 worth of good."

No Other Remedy Can Compare With It

Thos. W. Carter, of Ashboro, N. C., had Kidney Trouble and one bottle of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE effected a perfect cure, and he says there is no remedy that will compare with it.
