Never before was such an offer given to the public, and it safe to say never will be made again. The only reason we are making it to the people of this vicinity is because we find we have not as many subscribers as we desire in this particular locality. But only a limited number will be sold at this price, therefore we advise everyone to accept this offer without delay. When we have received a certain number, we shall withdraw the offer.

True Peace.

It's blessed to sing of redemption,
 It's blessed to share in good will;
 Still better it is to find pardon
 And peace the world cannot kill.
 It's peace that will lighten our labor,
 And we all have something to do;
 Our mission in helping each other
 Is peaceful and happy and true.
 Oh! it's peace that purifies nature,
 It's peace we always should own,
 It's peace that will save us forever;
 It's peace our Saviour hath sown.

Real sorrows and trials are plenty,
 No one is exempt from a share;
 And worldly amusements are faulty
 When peace can enter not here.
 All beauty surrounding our nature,
 Will cheer us and brighten each day;
 And the peace and joy of our Savior
 Will inspire His people some way.

True peace is uplifting for glory,
 Tho' Satan obstructs the good way
 Yet God in His infinite mercy
 Sends peace renewing each day;
 The peace of our Lord is abiding,
 In love it will carry you through,
 In working and singing and praying
 There is peace now in store for you.

University of Oregon Musical Organizations

Eugene, Or., Nov. 29.—It is claimed there never was a larger audience in the Eugene Theater than that which greeted the University of Oregon Glee and Mandolin Clubs at their concert last night. The event was most unique, not only from the character of the performance itself, but also from the decorations of the stage, which were arranged after the style of a college clubroom.

Banners and emblems representing the chief colleges of the nation were mingled with the emblems and designs of the various college clubs and fraternities all grouped around the colors of Oregon itself. A bright fire in the fireplace added a realistic effect to the scene.

Applause was enthusiastic and frequent. The double number at the opening, "The Toast to Oregon" and "O, Oregon" were twice encored. Professor Glen's contribution, "The Humorous Ghost," with the Glee Club, was accompanied by weird and light effects. R. Rountree was granted an ovation in the "Italian Salad," and the audience was very demonstrative in its approval throughout the entire evening.

Father of Ashland Dead at Ninety-Three.

Ashland, Or., Nov. 29.—Bennett Millon, born in 1812, a veteran of the Blackhawk war and the oldest man in Ashland, died last evening at his home here. He took a donation claim in 1854. Part of it is the present site of Ashland. He held 143 acres of it to the time of his death. He leaves 12 children. His own death is the first in the family.

Salton Basin Has Become Permanent Inland Sea.

Yuma, Ariz., Nov. 30.—The terrific storm of the last few days has undone the work of months, sweeping away restraining dams and it is feared has converted Salton basin into a permanent inland sea.

The Colorado river is on a wild rampage, higher than it has been since 1891, and the gauge measures 32 feet. The only damage done the city is the flooding of the electric light plant.

Everything is lost at Imperial heading. All the irrigation works have been destroyed and machinery and camp supplies swept away. The water is cutting the channel deeper and wider very rapidly, and all hope is gone of changing the course of the river back to its old channel.

Bad Shotgun Accident.

Eugene Guard, Nov. 29.—Phillip Bell, aged about 30 years met with a serious shotgun accident Monday afternoon while he and his father-in-law, Robert Vaughn, were killing hogs at Cedar Flat. Young Bell had the double-barreled gun with which they were killing the hogs and was leaning on it with the butt of the piece resting on a log. It slipped off the round surface of the log, the hammers striking and discharging both barrels. The charge of bird shot entered at the left armpit, badly lacerating the muscles of the shoulder. Dr. L. W. Brown was called and he had the injured man removed to the Eugene hospital. He arrived late yesterday afternoon. The injury is a terrible one, but the doctor thinks he can save the arm.

MUTINEERS ARE KILLED

Losses of Mutinous Russian Troops at Least 5000, and Pantoleimon, Formerly Kniat Potemkin Sunk.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 30.—According to reports the casualties of both sides during the Sevastopol fight number thousands, and that the leaders of the mutiny will be executed. The leader of the mutineers, Lieutenant Schmidt was killed, while on board the revolutionary cruiser Otechakoff. A garrison close to Warsaw mutinied and a number of them were killed.

The government has not been able to break the strike of the telegraphers, even by the ordering of the signal corps to take their places as the soldiers have refused to work.

Entries Four in For Poultry Show.

Corvallis, Or., Nov. 29.—Entries are rapidly coming in for the first of the season poultry show to be held here Thursday to Saturday of this week. Everything indicates a larger number of birds than were on hand here last season, when the 40 mark was passed. fanciers from Portland, Seattle and Tacoma and Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., have already sent in their lists, and entries from nearby towns are pouring in with every mail. Judge Birds of California, telegraphed last week that unforeseen business engagements would prevent his attending here, and Judge Dixon of Oregon City, was selected in his place. Mr. Dixon was the principal judge at the Lewis and Clark exhibit. The show will be held in the Opera house.

Germany Gusts Equitable.

New York, Nov. 30.—Advice from Berlin state that the Equitable Life Assurance Society has been informed it must suspend business in Germany, unless certain changes are made. Much alarm is felt among insurance companies as the same rules will undoubtedly apply to other companies and may force them all from the foreign fields.

Three Wagons of Food From the Eugene Schools.

Eugene, Or., Nov. 29.—The pupils of the Eugene public schools today sent a large quantity of provisions and clothing to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society at Portland as a Thanksgiving day remembrance. The donations were gathered up yesterday and taken to the City Hall, where they were prepared for shipment. The tables consisted of all kinds of vegetables, hams, flour, and other provisions and filled three wagons.

Will Irrigate Sugar-Beet Land.

Elgin, Or., Nov. 29.—The Grand Ronde Electric Company is contemplating the installation of a $16,000 pumping plant on the Grand Ronde river near Imbler, which will place about 7000 acres under irrigation. The contemplated plant will consist of a 200-horse power electric motor and pump, which will force a uniform flow of 200 inches of water during the irrigation season.

The subirrigation and rainfall in this part of the valley are not of sufficient force to make the sugar beet industry a decided success; but with the richness of the soil, the abundance of water which this plant will furnish would make this part of the Grand Ronde valley the star of all sugar-beet sections.

Gardner Arrested.

J. W. Gardner, against whom a complaint is on file in the Municipal Court, charging him jointly with W. H. McCrossen, with larceny, was arrested today. Gardner appeared at the Police station with Lou Tarpley, his attorney, and gave bonds for release in the sum of $1000 with J. W. Taggart and W. B. Reynolds, real estate men, as sureties.

Gardner says he is as innocent of crime as a babe of yesterday. "If I am guilty of this, there are 50 real estate men in town just as guilty as I am," said Mr. Gardner, shortly after his arrest. "All I ever did was to get me... we can't locate. We real... always tell what kind... are dealing with. There... men in this town doing... thing that I did.

"Am I goin' to fight? Well, I should rather think so. Am I goin' to keep on in business? Well, I should rather hope so. I've got a deal on now that means about 40,000 acres up in Washington."

"Do you know where McCrossen is?" was asked.

"Well, if I know where McCrossen was, I think I'd be after him," said Gardner with a tone of pretended vengeance in his voice.

Chief of Police Gritzmacher today said that no news had been received of McCrossen, who is supposed to be in San Francisco. A full description was telegraphed to the Chief of Police of the Bay City yesterday.—Telegram.

Governor's Son Wedded.

Natchez, Miss., Nov. 29.—Dr. Charles Chamberlain, son of Governor Chamberlain of Oregon, and Miss Deborah Boatner, daughter of Judge S. Boatner of Vidalia, La., were married at the Presbyterian Church here tonight.

McCurdy Resigns His Office.

President Richard A. McCurdy has resigned his place as President of the Mutual Life Insurance Company and Frederick Cronwell, treasurer of the company has been named as his temporary successor by the board of trustees. He gave as the reason for his retirement his poor health. The insurance investigation goes merrily on, and more and more rottenness is brought out every day.

COLUMBIA RIVER CRISIS is Unfinished and in Danger of Partial Destruction.

It is reported that a portion of the Jetty will without doubt be destroyed by the winter storms unless further work on it is done, and that unless it is continued further out, the channel will become blocked for commerce. The completion of the Cello canal will also be held back unless further appropriations are made. It is understood that the President and Theodore Burton are in favor of a special arrangement for the further improvements of the jetty and the canal.

President and Family go to Virginia Farm.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt and children left this morning to spend Thanksgiving on the farm in Albemarle county, Virginia, recently purchased by Mrs. Roosevelt. They return Friday afternoon. It had been arranged to stay at the White House and the change was made at the last minute.

Mrs. Wire, wife of the Presiding Elder of the Eugene District of the Methodist Church will fill the pulpit both morning and evening next Sunday, and will interest a large company, as she is an able speaker.

Rev. Meminger is much better and soon hopes to be up and around but it will be some weeks before he will be able to fill his pulpit again.
