The Petaluma Incubator

A pretty shrewd business man of Cottage Grove noticing a Petaluma incubator on our floor yesterday, remarked: "Why don't you stick that out in front and label it the 'mortgage raiser.'"

That's a good suggestion. It is a name the incubator has earned, and the good hens who lay the eggs for it, also.

Our incubator sales are highly satisfactory this year and you make more honest money for the time expended with an incubator than most any other way.

Send for some literature and see how it strikes you, or come and see them on our floor.

Obituary.

In loving memory of Mrs. B. D. Tucker. We loved her, yes we loved her. But Angles loved her more. And they have sweetly called her To grander shining shores.

Mary M. Dowe, wife of R. D. Tucker, was born in Iowa, Michigan, in 1862, and died in Cottage Grove, Ore., Jan. 28, 1906 and was 44 years old. She leaves a husband and seven children all living to mourn the loss of a loving mother.

They are Mrs. Harvey Lawson, Mrs. Robert Hannah, and Clifford, Ida, Jessie, Hattie and Lois at home.

She has been sick for the last year and a great sufferer for the last three months with what was supposed to be cancer and when the final call came she was ready and willing to go.

Funeral services were held at the house by Rev. McConnell of the Christian Church and were very impressive and comforting. The remains were interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery and was largely attended. Floral offerings were beautiful and numerous.

Earth the lonely casket keeps. And the sunbeams love to linger Where our darling mother sleeps.

Epworth Forum

Monday evening was a very interesting evening for the members and friends of the Epworth Forum. Installation of officers was the first of the program after which many made the evening a success by ably taking part.

The main feature was a debate, viz: Resolved that Benjamin Franklin has done more for the people than Alex. Hamilton, Eber Brown and Mr. Anderson being on the affirmative and J. M. Isham and George Berg on the negative.

Very able discussions were presented on both sides, but the judges decided in the favor of the affirmative.

A Jolly Time

The members and friends of the Epworth League spent a most enjoyable evening at home in the reception hall of the Methodist church last Friday evening.

The young folks gathered early and at once made themselves at home by participating in all the many games which had been prepared by the program committee.

Three Junior League graduates were taken into the Epworth League at this time and the ceremony which was used was very appropriate and interesting, it being conducted by the Superintendent of the Junior League and the President of the Epworth League.

All enjoyed themselves very much and it was more delightful upon going to the dining room where the ladies had the best of refreshments for all and after all were satisfied, much was gathered up.

The Epworthians are delighted over the evenings engagement and compliment themselves for having made such a success of it.

Block Club

The Block Club held its regular meeting in Odd Fellows hall last Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was much enjoyed by all present. The new members added to the roll were: Mesdames C. V. London, Winters Wallace, Moore, Karl, F. Warren and Thos. Conger. The next meeting will be held in Jones Hall Thursday afternoon, Feb. 8.

L. O. T. M.'s Install.

The Ladies of the Maccabees gave a public installation and social Jan. 26th, which was a decided success, and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

The following officers were installed by Mrs. Kittie Kime: Commander, Mary Schmutz; past com. May Hart; lt. com. Pet Sanford; sergeant, Kittie Kime; record keeper, Miss Letta Sanford; finance k., Mae Veatch; sentinel, Louisa Harding; picket, Miss Ethel Taylor.

Excellent music was furnished by Messrs. Lawson, Hanson and Al Veatch for the installation marches. Next in order May Hart was conducted to the chair and gave an address of welcome to the Sir Knights and visitors to which response was given by Hamilton Veatch, Com.; instrumental music; recitation, Opal Hart; instrumental music by Charles Culp and Newt Crozen; recitation, Mother's Letter by May Hart; song by Mr. Shearer, and was called for a second time; instrumental music; song, Guss Gross; presentation of chair to Pet Sanford.

To the step of music Mesdames Veatch and Kime marched in with a beautiful chair and placed it at the head of the hall. Lady Sanford was called to her feet and in a few well chosen words May Hart, chair man, presented the chair in the name of Lady Lamberson Hiva for her service in securing the most members within a limited time, and said: "Long may you live to enjoy this chair, may it bring you comfort and ease. You are now its possessor, and may occupy it now." Just as she sat down in the chair four ladies picked up the chair and to the steps of music, and amid great laughter and cheer marched to the foot of the hall and back again, while she looked very becoming in her new carriage. Next in order souvenir bows of ribbon with cards attached were placed in sealed envelopes, and sold to the men at 25 cents each. They having as their partner for supper the lady whose name was on their card. This afforded great fun and an excellent supper was enjoyed.

There being three whole cakes left after supper a cake walk was arranged at 5c a couple and when time was called and music stopped the lucky person holding the banner got the cake.

The social netted the neat sum of $11.65, beside the pleasant memories that linger with us.

Taffy Pull for the Club People.

Mr. LeRoy Welch felt something like the dog that tried to eat a ball of soft maple sugar, on Thursday night when he got a good sized mouthful of taffy. He wanted awfully bad to say something whether good or bad we don't know nevertheless, he refrained, or rather the taffy wouldn't let him.

The ladies of the Commercial Club that got up this weeks social evenings programme made a rollicking time for the members. The hall was beautifully decorated with ivy and Oregon grape, great festoons being hung from chandeliers and ceiling.

A lesson was given in drawing a map of the western half of the United States from the Mississippi over, in which various members of the club signally extinguished themselves by their incorrect knowledge of their country's geography. Mr. Wheeler had all of Minnesota west of the Mississippi, Mr. Chas. Chambers located Dorena and the saw mills as occupying half of Oregon, Jones fish pond covered the whole half of the state, Cottage Grove was located about 500 miles from the Willamette and Iowa was placed next to Idaho.

A lesson in quick and accurate observation of various objects was a stunner to a good many. An onion represented a chicken, a potato a man, a carrot a pig, a prairie a crocodile, etc. Mrs. H. O. Thompson guessed 48 out of 50 and took the prize, a volume of Whittier.

A spelling match was held to arrange partners for the taffy pull.

Mrs. C. J. Miller chasing the gentlemen for her side and Mr. Frank Wheeler chose the ladies. The word was given and everybody spelled "match" which was passed all the way down the ladies, and back to the men who passed it up until Geo. Comer spelled "Spelling Match" and made his choice.

The taffy pull passes description, no body present ever had so much fun in their lives before.

Mr. Potts suffered from a temporary spell of speechlessness from his delight, and rumor has it that some person left a set of false teeth sticking fast in his taffy. If you had seen the multitudinous designs of the aprons, the patterns, and the manner of wearing them you would have thought the ark had come to life, with all its holdings.

The staple drink of the evening was orangeade, which was all that could be desired.
