SATURDAY.....APRIL 7, 1906

E. V. Carter, the Ashland banker who is out for State Treasurer is one of the most capable men in the state, and one that should have the support of the entire voting strength of the Willamette valley, as Mr. Carter will look out for the interests of this section of the state, as well as the rest of the state. Eastern Oregon is trying to cover the whole political pie, but Southern Oregon should have as much share as any part of the state, and Mr. Carter is an able man, and an honest one. He has many strong supporters in this section and should gain new ones daily.

Something should be done to put railroad street into a better repair. At a number of places it is so low, that in wet weather it is almost impassable and works a hard ship upon anyone that must pass through it. Only last week the fire cart was almost stalled in trying to get through in front of Game-warden Baker's residence. Now that the city will get the advantage of the road tax collected in town for the repair and improvement of the roads within the corporate limits, considerable extra work ought to be done in that direction. The west end of Wall street is to be graded and gravelled so as to make a first class road all the winter through, and as long as that is to be done the county should see that before another winter, the graveling of the county road is completed from the cemetery in to the end of the county road where it joins on to the west end of the city portion of west Wall street.

Singing School.

Cedar Creek, March 19, '06.
Editor Leader,
Your article in the Leader of March 16, (while unintentioned on your part) is misleading. One would infer from the article, that we rated ourselves above the ordinary from a musical point of view, that we were it; such is not the case. We have no class in London do not care to spare time from our work at home if it were possible to organize one there. We are farmers now and as such are willing to go way back and assume a recumbent attitude. In any event, if we were capable, we would not expect to do business in the Grove as there is ability there sufficient for anything that may come up. We will gladly contribute our mite (not might, please notice) whenever we can do so, but it will be because we enjoy it, not because we can do it so much better than others and will ask the same kindly charity in criticism you give others.

Now we are familiar with a jesh, in fact have had frequent introductions and enjoy one under all circumstances, we recognize and appreciate your intentions to the limit, but our command of language is inadequate, when you imagine that we are "coming in to give Cottage Grove pointers." We will do what we can to assist others and along that line please command us.

Yours Truly
H. S. WEBBER.

When the article above referred to, was written we understood that the singing class being conducted at London was under Mr. Webber's care and with that idea made the statement we did. Everybody in Cottage Grove recognizes Mr. Webber's ability as a musician and a teacher of music and would be only too glad to have the opportunity to profit by his skill, when he could spare time to visit the city. Where we come from, the Country Singing classes often come to town and give concerts in conjunction with or in competition to the city choirs, and in such often defeat the town folks. Now it is our idea that if London, or any other community could or would get up a singing

WM. J. CLARKE,
Candidate from Marion County.

Cake Opposed to Trusts.

Every combination of capital known as a trust should be placed under the ban of the law, not only should trust corporations themselves be barred from doing business, but the individuals responsible for the combinations should be punished as provided by law, says H. M. Cake, candidate for United States Senator.

There is probably no man in the State of Oregon more pronounced in his opinions upon this subject than Mr. Cake, as evidenced by his actions and past utterances.

He is not the attorney for, is not interested in, nor does represent, directly or indirectly, any trust.

He believes in the absolute freedom of competition in all lines of business—the preservation of the equal rights of the entire citizenry of the country, free from interference by combinations of capital.

Mr. Cake is a firm believer in the right of the American working man to protect himself by means of labor organizations against the oppressions of organized capital.

The great common people of the country can depend upon it that Mr. Cake is friendly to their interests, for he is one of the common people.

He is friendly to every section of the state, and if elected to the senate, will do everything he can for the development and prosperity of all Oregon!

Will Carry Coos County.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise has this to say.

"The Enterprise said last week that Hawley will carry this community almost solidly." G. N. Farrin of Marshfield, writing to the Coast Mail, says his statement is entirely erroneous. Mr. Farrin must have misunderstood us, for what does he know about the strength of the various candidates in his precinct? Anyhow we are going to give him credit for thinking that we had reference to the county, when we referred simply to this end of it. But if Mr. Farrin thinks Hawley won't carry this precinct solidly he will have his eyes opened April 20. We haven't heard of a single Toose supporter in this precinct and are informed by those who know that Hawley will get a big vote at Coquille and Bandon and not a few at Marshfield. He will carry the county."

at 2 p. m. by Elder Cole after which the people repaired to the Falls on Mr. Hienrich farm where the baptism took place. Although it had been very stormy, up to this time the sun came out beautiful and bright just as the candidates were ready for baptism. It was a most impressive scene, the green banks, the sparkling water, the people in the background, the minister of God burying one by one with Christ in baptism those dear souls the sunshine, like God's smile of approval over all.

Those who were baptized were Mrs. Wm. McCoy, Albert Wheeler, the Misses Winnie Dresser, Amy Owens, Alice Wheeler and Hazel Gray and Roscoe Owens.
