Chas. V. Galloway, the democratic candidate for congress will speak here Tuesday in the Opera House.

Mrs. Chas. Humphreys is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ostrander and her sister Mrs. Marion Veatch.

J. C. Johnson shipped out two fine Silver Spangled Hamburg Cockerels Thursday to E. & G. Anderson, Silverton.

J. B. Rouse was in from his mill on Friday on business, and reports that everything is going along well, and that the mill is running quite steadily.

Mrs. Inez Adams of California, who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Atkins, and cousin, Mrs. Van Alston, returned to her home Friday.

Game warden Baker reports the arrest and conviction of three fishermen for night fishing in Washington county. W. H. Brown, H. L. Wilcox and F. O. Kyland, each one being fined $20 and costs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Force returned the first of the week from Day Creek and will stay here this summer. Mr. Force says there is no place like Cottage Grove and he is glad to get back.

The marriage ceremony in the new Presbyterian book omits the word "obey," to which so many have objected and also the reference to "worldly goods" with which the man and the woman in some marriage forms "endowed each other."

Fingal Hinds has added to his holdings in Cottage Grove by purchasing a strip of land 90x231 on Fourth street from J. I. Jones. Mr. Hinds has a firm belief in the future of Cottage Grove and believes in doing what he can to help build the town up.

The Guard is pleased with the exhibition of the Civic Improvement Societies in the valley that are giving prizes, etc. and suggest that Eugene might follow suit, and that while everything there is capable, a few cement walks might prove a good addition.

The Standard Oil Co. is getting shown up in a great light through the testimony of former employees. One reports that he bribed railroad employees regularly for information of other companies shipments, also that different grades of oil are furnished from same tank.

A good complexion is possible with the stomach out of order. If rusty, sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces they would have better complexions. Kodol for Dyspepsia will digest what you eat and put your stomach back in right shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Fisher, the parents of the editor reached their Denver home safely, but report having had a very hard trip through the crowded condition of the trains loaded with San Francisco refugees. Mr. Fisher stood the trip fairly well, but does not seem to be improving in health, as was hoped from the change of altitude.

H. O. Thompson returned from the north on Thursday and reports that there is no place for a home like Cottage Grove, that while he found more lively business towns, they were all larger than this and that for pleasant, homelike and comfortable living Cottage Grove stands way in the lead. Mr. Thompson hopes to be able to make some arrangements so as to live in Cottage Grove permanently.

The colored supplements are all right is the general comment, and many have expressed their appreciation of the change. The children get pleasure from the illustrations and the mothers get good suggestions from the inside pages to help them in their daily duties, as well as some short stories. If you like them, call for an extra copy for your neighbor, and maybe get him interested.

Lace curtains of all kinds and values at Veatch & Lawson's.

Eugene sent another car of provisions to San Francisco Thursday.

W. W. Hawley made a short business trip to Eugene Tuesday.

Rev. Mount of Eugene preached in the Presbyterian Church here Wednesday night.

The rain of Friday morning was a great relief after the heat and dust of the last few days.

Eugene Odd Fellows have purchased a fine lot in Eugene and propose to erect a fine building for their order.

Sixteen Eugene firms have asked for space for exhibition of their goods in the Eugene section of the "Made in Oregon" display.

The Willamette Valley Co. is making rapid progress with its plant and expects before long to be able to furnish day current.

E. H. Ingham of Eugene has decided to move his vinegar factory from Eugene to Portland on account of the heavy freight rates.

Cottage Grove is getting to be quite a point for raising fine chickens and is constantly shipping out to other points chickens raised here.

Rev. Green of Creswell preached for Mr. Grace last Sunday evening. His discourse was well received. "Come again Bro. Green" says Mr. Grace.

Miss Jessie Falkenberg, daughter of the late F. A. Falkenberg, the founder and head of the Woodmen of the World, will give a concert in Eugene on the 16th. She is there now with her mother who was taken very sick while visiting some friends there.

John P. Jones, traveling passenger agent of the S. P. was in Eugene on Wednesday, according to the Guard, investigating the wisdom of extending the local to Cottage Grove. We are anxious to see such a change made and believe it would be good for both towns.

Currin & Veatch are now buying wool. The price is down somewhat. The mohair cut was quite a good deal larger than the previous year. Twenty-four and twenty-five cents was paid here this week for wool and many of the farmers are holding back hoping the price will go up a little.

A. J. Stewart is not going to wait for the council to get to the grading of Second street by his property, but is doing a part of the work at his own expense. The work which he is doing will be a great improvement, and when it is completed, Second street will be a very different street.

Hon. R. M. Veatch is a man who has represented Lane County well in the state senate in the past. He possesses the ability and strict integrity necessary to make an ideal representative of the people and his support at the polls will come from the voters of all parties who want that kind of a man to make their laws.—Guard.

The various typewriter companies have had agents in town practically every day for a week or more, and many firms have invested, consequently more Cottage Grove business letters will be written on the typewriter hereafter. Fingal Hinds has invested in a new Smith-Premier Veatch & Lawson in a new Oliver, and several others likewise.

E. R. Mummey, Lane County Republican Central committeeman was a visitor in town this week on business. Mr. Mummey and his brother have recently opened a retail and wholesale lumber yard in Eugene and stated that last week, the first they were in operation, they sold about 100,000 feet of lumber, which is gratifying to them.

The American fleet is anchored at the Young wharf by the Main street bridge. Each boat has been put to the test and after minor alterations have proved all right. Attorney Johnson is said to have had a rather daunting experience in helping to test Billy Edwards' boat, but seems to have gotten dried out all right. Since the boats have been well tested they are kept busy, the boys kindly taking out all the girls. The red, white and blue of the boats make quite a picture on the river.

The Roseburg Review says that it is generally agreed that David Kennedy, who was thought to have been drowned at the Skelley mills, died of heart failure before he fell into the water. One of Mr. Kennedy's friends in Cottage Grove has asked us to try and find out where his relatives live in order that they may be communicated with as no one seemed to know anything about him where he died, nor were they able to get into communication with his people. It seems that he was from Nova Scotia and inquiries are being made there.

A Pleasant Family Reunion.

The 74th birthday of Mr. A. H. Hubbard was celebrated last Monday the 7th at their home. The nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard all being present. They were: Dave Hubbard and wife of Elkton, Allie H. Hubbard of Fossil, Mrs. W. L. Wiscarson and family of Mosby Creek, John, Oscar, Wiley, Stanley, Lenora and Clay, all of this city. Other friends and relatives present were Mrs. Tom Lee and son Frank of Mosby Creek, Mrs. Tom Jenkins and daughter Miss Mable Lee, and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, of this place. A beautiful dinner was served and a family group taken by Mrs. Lee, and a jolly good time had by all. Mr. Hubbard enjoyed himself as well as his children.

Miss Maggie Shinn.

Miss Shinn died in Portland Wednesday from typhoid fever. She has not been in good health for a long time, and when she went to Portland was advised not to do so on account of her health. She was a sister of Mrs. Gus Gross, and is well known to most people in Cottage Grove. For some time before leaving here she was employed at Mrs. W. D. Garman's home, and went with them when they moved to Portland. Her body was shipped here Wednesday night, and will be held for burial until Sunday afternoon, so that her mother from Bandon, Ore., may be present at the funeral service.

Mrs. L. E. Summerlott.

Mrs. Summerlott was born at Hurricane Bridge, West Virginia August 4, 1855, and died after a short illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James W. Sears, at Cottage Grove, Oregon, May 9th, 1906. She leaves an aged mother, two sisters, four brothers, and eight grandchildren.

Her body was shipped to Olympia, Wash., where the funeral will be held under the auspices of Pendo Council No 133.

Guests Arriving.

Levi Geer was a visitor to town Friday. He says the hotel already has ten guests and more are coming constantly. The springs are being made a permanent health resort. Mr. Watkins, a man of some considerable means, recently came there for his wife's health and she has so improved he has bought a lot erected a comfortable home and yesterday occupied it for the first time. Jos. Geer of Pullman, Wash., is another man who is making his home there, and who has been receiving great relief. Mr. Geer is much encouraged over the results obtained, and looks for a great summer resort before many years roll round.

Epworth League.

The monthly business meeting of the Epworth League was held Monday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church at which time the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President Fred Waehlte; first vice-president, Mr. Anderson; second vice-president Georgetta Berg; third vice-president Lizzie Orpud; fourth vice-president Eber Browne, Secretary Sophie Osberg, treasurer Jessie Berg.

The Epworth League has been doing good work in the past year, having increased its membership considerably. The Eugene District Epworth League convention was held in Grants Pass May 4, 5, and 6 at which three delegates represented the local chapter here.

Printer Boyd Goes North.

T. J. Boyd, at one time foreman of the Leader plant and one of those who suffered in the San Francisco earthquake passed through Cottage Grove on his way to Portland on Thursday.

He was met at the train by W. C. Conner and LeRoy Woods to whom he showed a number of photographs of San Francisco and of Santa Rosa where he has been working, showing the terrible destruction wrought. He stated that all the tales that have been told were as nothing to the actual conditions. Mr. Boyd expects to secure a place in Portland.

New Bank Elects Directors.

The Bank of Cottage Grove elected its first officers and directors Thursday: Pres., W. H. Abrams; vice pres., B. Lurch; cashier, C. Ross King; assistant cashier, A. H. Kelso of Yoncalla; directors, W. H. Abrams, B. Lurch, J. H. Chambers, C. Ross King and Phil Beckley.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ills than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. Stir the liver up, and get into shape generally. The best results are derived from the use of DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

Solomon Alsbaugh.

Solomon Alsbaugh, father of Mrs. J. D. Coffman of this city, died at her home Friday morning at ten o'clock from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Alsbaugh was born in Ohio 76 years ago, and lived most of his life at Cowgill, Missouri, but for the past two years and one half has lived here. He has always been a strong rugged man, and was only sick three days when he died. His wife died four years ago in January and was buried at the old home place in Missouri, to which point his body was taken by his eldest son A. P. Alsbaugh to be laid by her. At the last services here were his two sons, Mr. A. P. Alsbaugh of Cowgill, Mo., who came as soon as he heard of his father's sickness, but arrived too late to see him alive, his son H. O. Alsbaugh of Eugene, and Mrs. J. D. Coffman of this city. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Masons, of which order he had long been a member.

The High School

Seniors.

On last Friday the Seniors met at the home of Hugh Currin and promptly at 8 o'clock the Latham Buss (Hayrack) arrived and the party was conveyed to Mr. Chas. Hulls.

Charlie is a farmer you know, and of course we were entertained in the robe by the light of a great bon-fire. We can't begin to tell you of the fun we had, for every one was in a jovial mood and went for a good time. Many old rural games were enjoyed and then the party sat down for lunch. We enjoyed this very much and after it was over we resumed our good behavior? One game especially was quite amusing. The party were divided into two divisions. Each one was to try to make the other side laugh by their queer actions and were to make no noises whatever. The principal smile-maker of course was dear old Hugh. A parody on the Welcome address for commencement, written by one of the class was read, which proved quite amusing.

Those present were the members of the Senior class, excepting Miss Coffman and Miss Osberg, who of necessity could not come. Misses Lea, Daisy Hawkins, White and Monday. Messrs. Strange, Harvey and Supt. Dillard.

All were brought home by the same unique conveyance and every one had a very enjoyable evening. One of the best features of the evening was the ride to and from the place in the silver moonlight.

The lecture by Prof. Mulkey was attended by most of the High School students. All enjoyed it very much, as it is a strong subject and was delivered by an apt orator.

Prof. in Physics—Name the three kinds of equilibrium.

Pupil—Shed, Unshed and Neutral.

Class—ha! ha! ha!

Prof.—No, it is Stable, Unstable, and Neutral.

Pupil—Well I knew it was something pertaining to a barn.

Some of the Seniors attended the Teacher's Institute held here Saturday.

Clay Anlauf.

Clay, a son of Robt. Anlauf of Anlauf Station, ruptured a blood vessel in his brain Sunday morning about ten o'clock which caused his death. He was about twenty years old, but has been in poor health for some time since an attack of measles. The Woodmen Lodge of Cottage Grove of which he was a member conducted the funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, laying him to rest in the Comstock cemetery.

Reduced Round Trip Excursion Rates.

Round trip passenger rates Chicago to Portland and return, via direct line will be $75.00 and from Missouri River points $60.00.

These tickets will be on sale daily commencing June 1st and continuing until Sept. 15th with final return limit of October 31st.

J. M. IRLAN.

There will be services in the Catholic Church Sunday at 10 o'clock.
