Mrs. LeRoy Welch gives a pupils' recital on Saturday night. Don't miss it.

Springfield will have a branch office of the Postal Telegraph Co. in a short time.

The sprinkling wagon started its summer work last week, but laid off to give Jupiter Pulvius a chance to do his share.

The Mitchell trial in Seattle is being held up all around by many technicalities. A jury was secured after many delays.

Constipation makes the cold drag along. Get it out of you. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar cough syrup. Contains no opiates. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

Merle Scoville, Mabel Coffman and Sophie Osberg will attend Drain Normal next year, having received scholarships.

The Graham Hotel is getting a coat of white paint on the outside of the building, in order to be in keeping with the newly papered and painted interior.

Three work trains are in the railroad yards now, attending to work around here, and more will be at work soon on the turn table and spur.

Several families of men who have been working at the tie plant at Latham, and who lived in town, have left within the last few days for the summer camp of the plant in California.

The Willamette Valley Co. has asked for a franchise to enter Springfield, which looks as though it might go around Eugene, in case that city did not grant it an acceptable franchise.

Town Topics is still filing suits for damages against other papers for libel, but it yet has to win a case. Col. Mann and Town Topics have come into the public light in a pretty strong light.

C. M. Jackson's left hand which was badly lamed by a short slab falling on it from the cut off at the Brown mill is preparing to drive the Blackbutte stage which carries the mail to and from Cottage Grove.

Joe Baker says he is enjoying the best blacksmith trade that he has ever had, and that it is of a much better class too. He and his helper, Hamloth, are kept busy every minute and then cannot get out all their work.

Judge Harris dismissed the case of J. D. Matlock against L. Simons for libel without costs to either party, sustaining the demurrer to the complaint on the grounds that judicial proceedings are privileged.

The little God of Love has evidently been making a killing among the maidens and young men of Cottage Grove, from the number of weddings that have been occurring within the last few weeks. The more the merrier.

The sawmill property of the Palmer Lumber Co., at Boswell, has been attached upon an action brought against the firm by C. Ross King & Co., a former banking concern at Yencalla, for $3,500 alleged to be due on a loan.—Roseburg Review.

The Great Northern mine in the Blue River District is sending a quantity of ore to Portland to be tested to see if it cannot be handled better through a cyanide process than by amalgamation. If it should prove to work better a cyanide plant will be put it.

Hon. R. M. Veatch has not been seen around his usual political followers recently and 'tis said he has been discussing politics with the weeds in his garden, at any rate he is willing to bet that not a single weed can now be found in his entire extensive gardens, and so he is once more down town among the boys.

The Coast Fork country is rapidly coming to the front for its fine farming country. Land prices are going up and are being backed up by the results obtained from the land. The farmers are making the work of farming a more careful study, and are getting much better results from their lands. A number of good deals have been made in that section recently, and the farmers all seem to be very prosperous.

Contractor Hart says that although the pipe was promised to be delivered here long ago, it is still delayed, and just as quick as it comes he will rush the work of putting it in the waiting trenches, and connect up the North Creek to the water system. At present there is plenty of water, but with the dry season approaching rapidly, and the greatly increased number of users over last summer, every drop of water will be needed.

BORN—To C. Ross King and wife a fine boy Thursday night.

United States reclamation engineers have been looking over the Willamette Valley during the past week investigating the industrial conditions for the government.

The Eugene teacher, Prof. McKee seems to have a very high standing throughout the West from the number of schools at his command. Good teachers are scarce everywhere.

A number of University of Oregon teachers and instructors received increases in salaries this year. Several students have been elected to positions as assistants in the various departments at small salaries.

By special dispensation of Pope Pius IX Catholics were privileged to eat meat on Friday, which is the Feast of the Saints Peter and St. Paul. It is an unusual event for the feast to fall on Friday and so the special permit was issued accordingly.

Thousands annually bear witness to the efficiency of Early Risers. These pleasant, reliable little pills have long borne a reputation second to none as a laxative and cathartic. They are as simple as breath and millions of homes. Pleasant but effective. Will promptly relieve constipation without griping. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

A New York Phonograph Company has sued 940 phonograph dealers in the state of New York for $10,000 each for buying Edison goods of another company when they have the sole right to sell them in that state. The suit involves $9,400,000.

Three counterfeiters have been arrested in Portland, and it is thought by the government officials that they are the heads of the greatest gang that has been bothering the country for several years past. They are probably now at the end of their rope.

The University of Oregon has an offer from Carnegie of a $30,000 library on the conditions that $5,000 be spent each year on books, etc. The state legislature will have to act upon that. It should be accepted because such a library would be a great help to the school.

Yale in her Commencement exercises, cut out the singing of the grand old Luther hymn "A mighty fortress is our God" and sang "America" instead because of opposition to the old hymn, on a plea of sectarianism. The grand old hymn had been sung at each commencement since 1718 when the college was founded.

The Pendleton East Oregonian states that L. S. Thomas, of Buffalo, N. Y. has been in that field making contracts for alkali, paying 25 to 50 cents per ton for the privilege of operating the beds. A large industry will be worked up in time in that section in the handling of alkali for commercial purposes.

Mrs. Hogate and Mrs. Caldwell are picking the cherries on the McFarland place, and expect to have between 250 and 300 gallons. Pie cherries are in great abundance now and everybody that likes cherry pie is petitioning the women folks to put up cherries, and they seem to be laying away great quantities of them. The Royal Anns will begin to come in next week.

Portland employment agencies report that labor is very difficult to get, as there is work for all over the entire country, but that the Northwest offers the best wages, and men from the Middle West are glad of an opportunity to come to this country, but the high passenger rates keep them away, in spite of the many reductions of the transportation companies.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself and gets well. The stomach, once overworked must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. Kodol for Dyspepsia takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

Automobiles or horseless wagons are not of so recent date as we generally think. In the Bible the prophet Job spoke of a wagon or vehicle, which undoubtedly might be termed an auto. In 1214 there were coaches run by power, and from that time one form and another of horseless vehicle has been invented until the present high point of invention has been reached and still more is yet to come.

It is one of the unvarying principles of the Christian Science Church, which dedicated a temple for the "mother church" in Boston last week, never to dedicate a church until it has been paid for. The cause of religion might be advanced if all churches would adopt the same rule. Never-ending efforts to raise money to pay of church debts do not tend to increase the size of a congregation.—Oregonian.
