Lumber shipments by water from Portland during May aggregated 11,427,943 feet, of which 7,296,200 feet went domestic and 4,131,743 went off shore. Of the total amount shipped San Francisco took 3,545,000 feet.

It is always well to have a box of salve in the house. Sunburn, cuts, bruises, piles, and boils yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Should keep a box on hand at all times to provide for emergencies. For years the standard, but followed by many imitators. Be sure you get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Benson Pharmacy.

Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco seems to be changing front and is making a firm ally of the business men and merchants, but is also keeping the unions under his banner, while purging the city of grafters. He has risen to the occasion and is working for a better San Francisco.

Bryan is ready to run for president "if" the "reform element" is still in power. When he gets home and finds Tom Taggart in the clutches of the law he will conclude the reform needs reforming, and that he will have all the reforming he can do in the party without tackling the presidency.

We have heard of sidewalks flying up and hitting people in the eyes, but we never heard of a typewriter machine doing it, yet the Umpqua Valley News tells of a man in Roseburg that is laid out as a result of a typewriter key hitting him in the head while inspecting the machine. Will wonders never cease?

Try a little Kodol for dyspepsia after your meals. See the effect it will produce on your general feeling by digesting your food and helping your stomach to get itself into shape. Many stomachs are overworked to the point where they refuse to go further. Kodol digests your food and gives your stomach the rest it needs, while its reconstructive properties get the stomach back into working order. Kodol relieves flatulence, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, belching, etc. Sold by Benson Pharmacy.

Robt. Sutor and family are packing up, and expect to move back to Portland on Monday. When Mr. Sutor first moved here he expected to build a sawmill in this vicinity, but he could not make suitable arrangements, and will now locate in Portland again. His many friends here regret to lose him, and trust that the day may come when he will find it advisable to build a mill here.

The work on the Panama canal should now be pushed with a great deal of vigor, as the question of the type of canal has been settled. The lock canal will take much less time than the sea level type to construct by several years, and the engineers are now able to go right ahead with their work on the lock canal. Before the year is out there should be a great deal to show for the work of the Panama force.

A sweet breath adds to the joys of a kiss. You wouldn't want to kiss your wife, mother or sweetheart with a bad breath. You can't have a healthy stomach without perfect digestion. There is only one remedy that digests what you eat and makes the breath as sweet as a rose—and that remedy is Kodol for dyspepsia. It is a relief for sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, and other ailments arising from disorder of the stomach and digestion. Take a little Kodol after your meals and see what it will do for you. Sold by Benson Pharmacy.

The Inman-Poulsen Company of Portland during May operated its mill 22 hours each day and made the record cut for the month of 13,300,000 feet. During the same period this firm shipped 13,750,000 feet.

Forest Grove has a champion cow that produced during May 993 pounds of milk, worth $18.50. The cow is one of common stock and so her performance is especially good. The S. P. Co. will make an advertisement of her great production.

$217 for a single load of cherries seems a very large sum, but such was the price received for a load of premium Cambert cherries raised by Miss Clara L. Webb of Portland. The load was a large one so that the price was only 8 cents per pound.

The Eugene papers state that Wm. Kyle & Sons, a Florence firm will build a cold storage plant at Florence to handle salmon. The plant will be a large one and will enable the fishermen of the Siuslaw to get a very much better price for their fish.

If it is as hot at Oyster Bay as it is at Cottage Grove President Roosevelt will have to buy a refrigerator in which to spend his summer, or else go to Bohemia or the North Pole and we are not sure but that it might be a little warm up there.

Col. Hoffer, president of the Willamette Valley Development League is a candidate for Collector of Customs to succeed I. L. Patterson, for which position G. A. Westgate of Albany, Republican chairman, P. S. Malcolm of Portland and J. M. Shelley of Eugene are all candidates.

California seems to be having more than its share of floods. Not only is the Salton Sea creating a great and greater loss, but other rivers have been overflowing their banks and doing incalculable damage. California has been a great sufferer this year, but she is very patient through it all, and goes right ahead building up again. Such a spirit would make a success of any place.

John Ashby found in the Coast Fork at the ford last week an old wooden brake shoe that has turned to stone. The shoe had evidently been well worn before it was dropped into the water, and now in the stone shows all the grain of the wood, the different layers and the heavier ones standing out. The shoe is a novelty, and must have turned into stone within a few years.

It seems that the lady school teachers in the majority of the cities of the United States get less wages per year than the average domestic and the country school teachers are still worse off. The average teacher gets $50 per month out of which she must pay board and lodging, laundry, and dress herself, and the position in society which she must of necessity keep, demands the expenditure of a good portion of her wages on dress. Eastern educators are making a plea for the betterment payment of school teachers, so that more competent teachers may be had.

There is an organization which is getting a very strong foothold in Texas, Oklahoma and other southwestern states and territories, which is striking terror to the hearts of the politicians. It is known as the "Farmers' Union," and already it has the politicians guessing, and they are moving heaven and earth to find out what the movement's program is and how to get on the "inside". The success of the new order will be watched with much interest by the other states in the Union, for who knows but what it may fill a "long felt want?"—Umpqua Valley News.

Mr. Alexander, a lumber buyer of San Francisco is in town trying to get some lumber. The markets is so plentiful for any and all classes of lumber that large buyers must search everywhere to keep supplied.

Miss Lydia Kirk of Heppner arrived in this city Tuesday to enjoy a few weeks visit with the family of her aunt, Mrs. Ira Conner. Miss Kirk's mother was one of the victims of that terrible waterspout disaster at Heppner a few years ago.

Brave Admiral Rojostvensky of the Russian navy, tried in a Russian court on the charge of having surrendered to the enemy after the battle of the Sea of Japan, was held unaccountable. The Admiral was considered one of the able men of the navy and only surrendered when there was no more hope.

B. Y. C. Brown has moved to Yoncalla where he has bought out the Yoncalla Independent run by John W. Kelley and will endeavor to make the paper one of the brightest and most successful papers in the country. Mr. Brown has had enough experience to be able to do well and to make things hum down there.

Dean Sanderson, dean of the Eugene Divinity School was a visitor in the Grove over Sunday to hear two of the young ministers attending the school preach, one of whom preached in the Grove and the other at Hebron. The Dean likes to keep posted on how the various students of the school are coming on and how they reach their audiences.

W. A. Hogate, who is teaming to the Vesuvius, came down on Thursday and says it is a little cooler in camp than there. Last Sunday he and his family climbed up to the snow line and indulged in a snow ball fight. It makes some of us poor wilted down mortals feel like migrating to the hills instanter to bear of such coolness.

W. T. Hankins of Star was a visitor in the Grove on Tuesday and Wednesday and stated that the Star Lumber Co. was making a record for itself. On Monday the mill cut 16,000 feet of lumber, which Mr. Hankins is pretty good for a supposedly 10,000 mill. The market is so brisk that all the lumber that can be cut is hauled directly to the cars and is not held at all. Mr. Hankins thinks they got started at just the right time to make things go.

J. T. Hunt of Wildwood has been in Eugene on business and stopped in at this office Monday on his way back home. He mentioned the fact that men are so very scarce, and that they seem to enjoy moving from one place to another, whether they have a good job or not, for they know they can get a job most any place they chance to stop. Such a condition is demoralizing to business and when Oregon has such a great chance as she has at present to be hindered in her development by the scarcity of good help is an unfortunate condition.

Roseburg Wins.

In the shoot of the National Guard at Salem, Roseburg won with the highest score.

Bob Martin and family expect to get away today for a camping trip into the mountains. Bob and his wife expect to enjoy it as much as the children.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Duncan.

Sarah Jane Totten was born Dec. 9th, 1835 in New York state and was married July 4th, 1851 to Cyrus M. Duncan, who died about four years ago in Cottage Grove. Mrs. Duncan has been living in the old home with her granddaughter and her husband for several years, and recently she has become very feeble, gradually failing and on July 10th in the afternoon her spirit passed away.

She had four children, of whom two are still living, Frank DeLoss of Fort Collins, Colo., and Nellie J. Kitzmiller of Stites, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan were among the pioneers of Oregon crossing the plains in the early days in an ox wagon. The funeral services were held from her old home on Wednesday afternoon, the body being laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery.

Land Fraud Cases

Next Monday the land fraud cases will begin once more in Portland. Some of those who would appear for trial may escape by pleading guilty, but the court will have its hands full trying the rest.

Dreyfus at Last Fully Vindicated.

Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, the French officer who was convicted of selling state secrets to the French in 1898, and who has been tried and retried, finally secured a hearing before the Cassation Court, and has been entirely vindicated, and will be restored to his position in the army, and advanced in rank, as will also officers who supported him and were deposed.

Lane County Exhibit at State Fair.

E. H. Warren of Eugene has been appointed to collect an exhibit of farm products for Lane county's display at the State Fair this fall and he desires all farmers to take an interest and to prepare exhibits to be sent to him at 442 Lawrence street Eugene, or at the First National Bank of Eugene. Sheaf and shelled grain, as well as all kinds of fruits and vegetables are desired for the exhibit.

Street Railway for Eugene.

Eugene has at last granted the Willamette Valley Co. a street railway franchise in Eugene for thirty years. The franchise calls for the extension of the line to Fairmount by Oct. 1, '07, the road must connect with Springfield, and a bond of $5,000 must be filed.

The most objectionable feature to the previous franchise was the hauling of freight through Willamette street and this has been amended so that freight can only be hauled from 6 p. m. to 7 a. m. Eugene is very jubilant that the franchise has been granted and in all probability Cottage Grove will be the next town where a franchise is solicited.

Flat Assessment of 1.24 for A. O. U. W.

The Portland Telegram states that the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W. which meets next Tuesday in Portland will consider the establishing of a flat insurance rate of 1.24 instead of a variable one. This rate shall apply to all members and will not be increased as they grow older, and is likely to be decreased.

At present the charge per assessment is only 60 cents for young members, while those over 55 must pay $8.40. This system bears heavily on the old men, as there were 11 assessments of $8.40 last year, and many old members dropped out of the Oregon jurisdiction when the rate was increased two years ago.

Monroe, Iowa, is said to be the best practical exhibition of the workings of municipal ownership in the United States. The town is just completing an electric railway system which is constructed without a cent of expense to the taxpayers, being paid for from the receipts of the municipal water, light and power plants, as well as other city utilities.

Educated Farmers.

The Grants Pass Courier tells how an educated farmer of the Illinois valley and his sons have made a very productive and valuable farm out of land considered of little value by its series of former owners, who got no profit out of it because they did not employ the right methods and work with sufficient knowledge and diligence. This man sent his son to the agricultural college, and now, says the Courier, "they are home putting into practice the modern, progressive methods of farming they learned there. They discovered by a series of experiments that the soil held an excess of acid, which poisoned to a degree the vegetation. Knowing how, they proceeded to eliminate this condition and now the land is producing abundant crops. And in other branches of farming these men have found that it is highly profitable for a farmer to have the scientific and practical knowledge that is taught at agricultural colleges."

Very likely many other similar incidents might be related of the value of a scientific knowledge of the properties of soil, and what can best be produced from it and how. Haphazard, happy-go-lucky farming can rarely be profitable and is going out of date. A man may be a successful farmer without having attended an agricultural college, but the knowledge acquired there may be of much value. So have been the farmers' institutes held during recent years in all parts of the state.

The value of the up-to-date, successful and in a measure scientific farming does not lie wholly in increased crops and profits, but also in the satisfaction and gratification taken by the farmer in his work, work, the contentment and comfort with which it is done, the pride taken in it, and the encouragement and opportunity it offers to country youth to stay on the farms instead of drifting into the cities.

There is no longer need to consider farming nothing but unprofitable drudgery; it can be made rather one of the most inviting as well as the most independent of vocations.

Lawyers Volunteer to Defend Murderer.

Chester Thompson, who killed Judge Geo. Meade Emory in Seattle, on account of his refusal to let him see his niece, has been arrested and is charged with murder in the first degree. It is said that half a hundred attorneys have offered to defend the young man on account of their esteem for his distinguished father.
