Keep bright and you'll be kept busy.
Light is the magnet that draws trade.

A show window brilliantly lighted with electric lights makes many a sale "the night before." It attracts attention, makes it easy for your display to be examined, and shows your goods to the best advantage.

Electric light is the best and only illuminant.
When may our man see you about it?

Go down to the big meeting at Eugene next Wednesday and help get action on the car shortage problem.

Every business throughout the Northwest is showing unprecedented prosperity and is going ahead daily.

Miss Daisy Hawkins is night operator at the Telephone office in the absence of Robie Baker who is visiting in Portland.

The Fashion Stables have again put up their sign blown down by the recent wind storm and this time it is guaranteed to stay.

The Waters-Pierce Oil Co., a subsidiary company of the Standard Oil has been indicted on 72 counts charged with having received rebates.

The Portland Telegram is giving considerable space to the railroad legislation meeting at Eugene, and the effect of the car shortage upon the valley.

The Portland Telegram had a special man here this week investigating the car shortage problem.
They seem to think the present move one worth helping along.

Basket ball has again claimed attention, and the school boys were the first to give battle on Wednesday night. From now on the game will be numerous and several teams are forming and the contests will be warm.

The Willamette Valley Co. has just purchased the Roseburg light and water system of Guy Majors paying for same $30,000 and assuming the bonded indebtedness of $200,000. They will make a number of improvements to the city.

"Jesse James is coming to the Opera house for one night only next Thursday night. The play is said to be the best melo-drama that has visited Seattle this season and should draw a capacity house here.
It will be presented by a company of fourteen acting people.

Give children a remedy with a pleasant taste. Don't force unpleasant medicine down their throats.
Kennedy's Laxative (containing) Honey and Tar is most pleasant to take. Children like it, and as a relief for colds, coughs, etc., there is nothing better. No opiates. Conforms to National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

The new steel bridges across the Coast Fork are now being put in place by the steel crews. One of the men stated that after they had gotten things ready to start the construction work, it would only take about four days to put the bridges in, and two weeks is considered the limit for the entire work.

Water pipes froze up Tuesday night but none of them solid enough to burst. Several days of clear cold weather have been very bracking and are quite unusual to Oregonians. The cold caught a good many of the fine roses that were in bloom, but some of them are still all right, and are an evidence of Oregon's fine roses and climate.

"Jesse James" will be the next attraction at the Opera house the date being next Thursday night.
It will be presented by a company of fourteen people. The company carries a full scenic production. The big scene of the play is said to be climax of the great third act when a train dashes on the stage at full speed and is held up, robbed and sent on its way.

Christmas week the stores will be open all evening.

The Midland Quintette for Friday night secured the best patronage possible.

Russel Welch is to be manager of the Roseburg branch of the Willamette Valley Co.

Tom Fair, a logger began celebrating a little early and was lodged in jail on Tuesday.

Edward Hosglund of Cottage Grove and Bessie Rickman of Eugene were married yesterday in Eugene.

The Brown Lumber Co. has been cleaning out its big pond the last few days with a donkey engine and a huge scraper.

The S. P. bridge crews are now at work putting in the steel of the bridge across the Coast Fork just south of town. The other bridge north will be tackled in a few days.

The dinner served by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church at the Opera House Thanksgiving was a success from every point of view and taste. Everyone was more than satisfied, the dinner was parexcellence, and the ladies cleaned up a neat little sum for their work.

Timber sales are numerous and many Cottage Grove people have become richer by $2000 apiece for their claims within the last few weeks. A number of large sales have been made that take in thousands of acres and it is fair to think that before long mills will be operating on some of the tracts.

Letters from Denver state that while there has been some rather cold weather there it did not last long and that the weather is fine.
With fine coal at $4. per ton many families can keep their entire houses warm and comfortable on a fuel bill of $25 and $30 a year, and that is better than most of us can do with wood fuel.

Ye editor and family enjoyed a splendid Thanksgiving feast at the home of Jesse Thornton and wife, where quite a party was assembled.
Mrs. Archie Thompson and baby Thompson, Mrs. James Plaster and son Pearl, and Miss Beebe. The dinner could not be surpassed, and everyone had a royal time. The babies all enjoyed themselves together and behaved while the rest of the folks ate in comfort.

The Register in an article about the purchase of the Roseburg water and light plant by the Willamette Valley Co. states that it owns plants in 12 cities, namely Eugene, Corvallis, Independence, Albany, Seaside, Baker City, Walla Walla, Dallas, Pendleton, Boise and North Yakima, Roseburg and forgets Cottage Grove entirely. While its plant here may not be as large as some of the others, yet it is one of the bunch.

"Jesse James" will be the attraction at the Opera House next Thursday night. The play is taken from the life of the noted Missouri outlaw of that name and was written especially for Belasco and Robbins by Frank James a brother of the great and only Jesus.
It was put in dramatic form by Henry Belmont the well known playwright and author. The company numbers fourteen acting people. They carry a full scenic production. Seats on sale at New Era Drug Store.

The greatest of all sensational melodramas, "Jesse James", will be the attraction at the Opera House on next Thursday night only. The play is written around the life of Jesse James, the noted Missouri outlaw and everyone knows that to follow the story of his life would mean a great many thrilling adventures and daring escapes. The scenic effects are said to be nothing short of marvelous, a train dashing across the stage at full speed being one of the features. The company is said to be large and well balanced numbering fourteen people. Seats on sale at New Era Drug Store.

Shipped the Big Donkey Engine.

Some weeks ago the Register noted the fact that the Frazer Iron Works was putting up a large donkey engine for Taylor & Son who are big logging contractors at Star, Oregon. The big machine which is of sixty-horse power capacity was loaded yesterday and shipped to its destination. It is a very powerful machine and was constructed entirely at our local iron works.—Register.
