Keep bright and you'll be kept busy.
Light is the magnet that draws trade.

A show window brilliantly lighted with electric lights makes many a sale "the night before."
It attracts attention, makes it easy for your display to be examined, and shows your goods to the best advantage.

Electric light is the best and only illuminant.
When may our man see you about it?

our Angoras can butt any kind of a prize off the shelf. This was proved at Dallas.—Statesman.

C. E. Peterkin of the Chambers Lumber Company at Dorena went to Portland Thursday evening.
Mr. Peterkin said that things were pretty nearly froze up at Dorena and he would improve the opportunity by going to the city while business is quiet.

R. C. Johnson, a prominent lumberman of San Francisco, is visiting Cottage Grove in the interests of his company. He reports extreme cold weather for that part of the country stating that a fall of snow was on the ground the first time in a long time and that the people there were spending all their time enjoying the coasting.

Mr. McCarty representing Tatum & Bowen was in town for a short trip. He states that all along the line of the railroad mills are doing nothing on account of the shortage of ears and the cold weather; it is expected however that the mills will be in shape to run by the first of February in anticipation that the pending legislation will induce the railroads to put an end to the ear shortage.

Mrs. Abbie Valentine Sues for Divorce.

Mrs. Abbie Valentine of Cottage Grove has begun suit in the circuit court against her husband, Palmer Valentine, for divorce on the ground of desertion. They were married at Isabelle, Mich., January 1, 1895, and have three minor children, as follows: Charles, aged 11 years; Edward 9, and Ina, 7.
The first two named are with the defendant and the latter one with the plaintiff. Mrs. Valentine alleges that on September 15, 1905, her husband, without cause or provocation deserted her, and has since failed and neglected to provide for her. She asks the custody and care of the daughter, Jerome Knox and A. H. King are her attorneys—Guard.
