The parlors were elaborately decorated, and music was furnished throughout the evening by a popular orchestra. Forty-three messages of congratulations and best wishes were received during the evening, including cablegrams from Europe, and many beautiful and costly presents were received.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lurch of this city, is very popular with the young people here, and all join in wishing her success and happiness.

Mr. Krueger is a prosperous young business man of Butte, Mont., where they will reside after a honeymoon spent in the Sound cities.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lurch, Miss Celia Lurch, J. B. Lurch, of this city; Miss E. Weinland and Miss Lillie Weinland, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Strauss, Miss Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hexter, Miss Edith Hexter, Mr. Clayton Hexter, of Portland.

Death of Flossie Huff.

She had been attending the High school in Cottage Grove, living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Isham, was an active member of the M. E. Church and a faithful worker in the Epworth League, a number of whose members attended the funeral which was held in the church near Walker, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Many beautiful floral pieces were sent by her young friends, the Epworth League sending to Portland for two handsome pieces.

A long felt want is to be realized for Cottage Grove. We were all pleased when Bartels & Co. built their cold storage plant and now these enterprising gentlemen having sold their meat business at that plant, and imbued with the spirit of doing something new and good for the city, that they expect to continue their residence, as everyone else does that once gets acquainted here, they have purchased through Chas. Burkholder a plot of ground fronting on both railroad tracks and will at once commence the erection of an ice manufacturing plant. Mr. Bartels is now in Portland securing the necessary machinery, and before the summer demand for ice is here we will have our own production and an agreeable change from former days, it will be.
