

A Novel Entertainment.

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. Grace last Friday, Miss Ethel Barbour entertained her class introducing a new style of spelling bee. Words were given out, but had to be spelled on the staff, which caused one to consider quite a little in order to select words that contained only such letters as is used in music. Besides this, musical games were played and vocal and instrumental pieces rendered. Refreshments were served during the evening and the entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Woods, Dr. and Mrs. Macy, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler; Misses Munday, Grant, Job, Grace, Messrs. Strange, Currin, Sanford and Mr. and Mrs. Grace.

The Klonyke Mill.

J. E. Young has arranged to start up the Klonyke mill, which is on Brumbaugh Creek, ten miles from Cottage Grove, and was formerly operated by the Cottage Grove Lumber Co. The product will be principally ties, which will be driven to Walden, on the O. & S. E. Railway. The mill is situated in a good body of timber. Mr. Young has enough timber to keep him going several years. He will put in new machinery, including new carriage, conveyors, etc. and later, engine and boiler to provide power in the dry season, as the water power now in use, while ample for the greater part of the year, is not sufficient in summer time.

Musical and Literary Entertainment.

The Ethel Lytle Literary and Musical company will give one of their popular and high-class entertainments at the Christian Church in this city on Thursday evening, April 4th. This will be a treat for our people and the church will be crowded. A popular admission will be charged.

National Bank Showing.

In another column you will find the sworn statement of the Cottage Grove First National Bank. The showing is a splendid one. The growth of the business during the past year reflects credit on Cottage Grove and vicinity.

Spend a Pleasant Evening.

An entertainment by the Ladies Hive K. O. T. M. was given last Saturday night in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. H. Venske, the lady commander. After the work of the evening was completed, the gentlemen belonging to the order were admitted into the lodge room and an impromptu program, consisting of recitations, music, etc. was furnished and proved a most enjoyable evening. A very pleasant feature of the evening occurred when one of the ladies on behalf of the order, presented Mrs. Venske with an elegantly bound volume of Browning's poems, making a few very appropriate remarks.

The evening's entertainment concluded with a lunch served in the dining room and it was a late hour when the members separated and departed for their various homes.

Junior League Entertained.

The Junior League of the M. E. Church was entertained at the parsonage Friday evening, March 22. A majority of the Juniors being present, a short business session was held. A program previously prepared by the young people was then given, followed by games and music. Refreshments were served which they thoroughly enjoyed, and the evening was proclaimed a success. They plan to have one social evening in each month, so the league anticipates great times in the future.

If you can't afford to buy a house and lot, secure a lot before they get too high. Hinds has some good ones.

The Disston mill is shut down for a few days, having a donkey breakdown. It does not work any serious hardship on them, however, as they have their docks full of lumber and must have cars to work to advantage.

J. H. Chambers of Cottage Grove has shut down his mill at Alca, having two million feet on hand, and not getting cars he expects to have it on the yard when the raise in rates takes place and thinks he will lose enough without sawing any more lumber. His orders are for California, and the railroad company does not seem to be in a position to take freight for that territory. Mr. Chambers has been called East by the serious illness of his mother, and will probably be gone for a month.

The semi-annual rental of the farmers telephone is due April 1st. DAVID GRIGGS, Manager.

CARE IN COMPOUNDING

Is one of the chief rules of our business. We don't "get near it" as some careless people do, but we make up a prescription exactly as written. Our drugs are always pure and fresh—the best the market affords, and we are prompt in putting up physicians' prescriptions, although very reasonable in our charges.
