We would call the attention of our street committee to the condition of Second street on the north side of Main street. With all the gravel that is easily obtainable, there is no excuse for Cottage Grove to have such a dangerous thoroughfare, especially where it can be seen and commented on by every stranger who enters town. The street may not be used to any great extent, but while it is left open for travel it should be put in a condition that would at least secure the town against a damage suit.

The members of Co. E are to be commended for the rapid improvement they are making in military tactics. Papers in discussing the wreck of the Southern Pacific excursion train in California by which 32 persons were killed, have much to say in criticism of the company for running their trains too fast. Here in Oregon that kind of criticism would be considered a great joke.—Register.

The Leader tells the news.

A very pleasing industrial item is the one that 350,000 freight cars are to be built just as fast as possible to help out the demands from all sections of the country for cars to convey the products of the farm, mill and factory. The United States is growing wonderfully in a business way and it behooves the railroad magnates to take the wheels out of their heads and put them under boxes for the good of the country.—Albany Democrat.

Cottage Grove, Oregon, March, '07
To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that I have taken treatment of Dr. H. A. Foster, chiropractor, for my eyes. The treatment has been of great benefit to my eyes. I can see better than I have been able to see in ten years. He has also treated me for vertigo and given me the only relief I have ever had from that malady which is of thirty-five years standing. My eyes have been bad for thirty years.

I most cheerfully recommend him to the public as being competent in his chosen profession and a courteous gentleman.

Respectfully, RY. R. C. GRACE.

You will find me at my office, over Madsen's from 10 to 12 a. m. 2 to 5 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday by appointment.
