One of the leading social events of the season was the "At Home" given by Mesdames F. D. Wheeler, and N. E. Compton, at the home of the former Thursday, afternoon, from 3 to 5:30.

The Wheeler home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with roses and carnations, the rooms were darkened and with the brilliancy of the electric lights made a charming scene. The guests were received by the little Misses Wheeler and Compton, daughters of the hostesses, and the manner in which the little ladies performed their duties added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

The time was very pleasantly spent in games, music and other amusements, the most amusing being the drawing contest for which a prize was offered and won by Mrs. Goodman. Refreshments were served consisting of strawberries and whipped cream and marshmallow cream and cake.
