The Simple Life.

Just leave the city's heated air,
And seek both joy and rest
By casting all your load of care
On Nature's loving breast.

Then visit each remembered nook
You haunted years ago—
The pasture green, the pebbly brook,
The field you used to hoe.

Again you'll see the rustic gate
Where you went wont to lean
With her you deemed your chosen mate—
A lass of sweet sixteen.

How like your boyhood days 'twill seem,
As leisurely you stroll
Down by the dear old silver stream
With bait and fishing pole.

The bank of yielding moss will be
A cool and restful bed,
With Nature's azure canopy
Suspended o'er your head.

The birds will twitter all day long
The notes you love to hear;
The bees will drone a harvest song
Familiar to your ear.

The aster and the golden rod,
Each butterfly's retreat,
Will seem to give a friendly nod
When e'er you chance to meet.

A zephyr will your senses steep
With incense from the flowers,
And give to you refreshing sleep
Through summer's golden hours.

And when at last you must depart
To join the din and strife,
There'll be a yearning in your heart
To lead "the simple life."
—Susan Fisher Milner.

How to Get Better Train Service.

A passenger train from Seaside and Astoria, with several hundred passengers aboard, was needlessly detained for four hours, last Sunday night, at a point several miles below Portland, through a trifling accident. Efficient train management would have brought these indignant passengers to Portland practically on time. Neglect of their plight and indifference to their rights caused the hour of their arrival to be put off until the early hours of morning. The street cars had stopped running, and men, women and children had to find their way home as best they could.

This incident, though very annoying to many people, is only one of many that have recently marked the course of Oregon railroad management. There isn't an Oregon railroad that now pretends to run its trains on scheduled time. There has been no time in the last year when one could be certain of getting a train at the advertised time at any interior station, or be reasonably sure of arriving at his destination without unnecessary and inexplicable delay. The Oregonian does not assume to fix the blame. It only states a fact that has long been notorious and has at last become scandalous. Very likely the local railroad managers are doing what they can to relieve an intolerable situation, but in one conspicuous instance at least they have resisted a reasonable demand to improve the service, and that is for the installation of a local train between Portland and Pendleton. The State Railroad Commission ought to require the O. R. & N. Co. to put on this train, and should require the Southern Pacific to give better service through the Willamette Valley.

We have heard much lately about the wrongs of Oregon shippers and there has been a great effort to redress them. It is time now that due attention be paid to the grievances of Oregon travelers. When a railroad company takes a passenger's money for his ticket, it makes a contract with him to deliver him safely and with reasonable promptness at his destination. If it fails it should be penalized, unless a reasonable showing can be made that its plain contract could not be fulfilled. If there was a law on the statute-books requiring the railroad company to make adequate rebates to passengers when they are not carried according to advertised schedule, or within the advertised time, we should have a better train service in Oregon in a hurry.—Oregonian.

The convention of the Oregon Development League promises to be thoroughly successful and especially effective. Many active workers throughout the state are now in Portland and there seems to be a universal desire for the people of this state to add enormously to the population of Oregon as a result of the colonist rates beginning September 1st and continuing until October 31st. These rates are exactly the same as were in effect during March and April—$25. from Missouri river and St. Paul territory, embracing 10,000,000 of people, $30 from St. Louis and $33 from Chicago, with $2.50 less for every ticket east of Umatilla.

Oregon has received no better advertisement than the visit of the Oregon girls throughout the East. The newspapers everywhere they visited gave them extraordinary attention, and now comes the Fort Worth, Texas, Record, of last Sunday, devoting its leading editorial to their trip and complimenting the plan as being "novel, valuable and effective for publicity purposes."

The Portland Commercial Club's prize contest of $5,000 for articles on Portland, Oregon, and this part of the United States, appearing in papers printed outside of Oregon and Washington is open to every resident of Oregon.

Double Wedding at Lorane.

The gentle zephyrs wafted the news to us that there is to be a double wedding at Lorane on Sunday, June 23d. George C. Schneider will lead to the altar of Hymen Miss Ella Addison at high noon, and as the sun casts his glinting rays level with the pine-clad slopes Herbert Doty and Miss Helen Jackson will plight their troth for all time. George has a little the start in the race but all will anxiously watch which team trots the steadiest and pulls the steadiest in double harness. The entire neighborhood will wish them well as they are among the most popular of the young people.—Register.

Miss Ethel Crowder returned last week from a trip to the Jamestown Exposition. Miss Crowder was a member of the party of young ladies sent to the Fair by the Portland Evening Telegram. While crossing the Rocky Mountains Miss Crowder had a narrow escape from death, as the high altitude affected her heart. At one time she was given up for dead, but the efforts of three physicians finally brought her out of her dangerous condition.—Herald.

Encampment Near Roseburg.

Separate Company E, O. N. G. of this city will have their summer encampment near Roseburg from July 20 to 29. General orders having been issued to that effect, Captain Johnson expected such orders and the company is well pleased.

There was some talk that perhaps the company would be ordered to Seaside.

A company order has been issued directing separate Co. E, O. N. G., to assemble at its armory next Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock, carrying rations for a 24-hours outing and otherwise prepared to march to the rifle range two miles east of town, where tents will be pitched. The range will be marked, pits dug and target frames planted.

Express Rates Reduced.

Wells Fargo Express company has reduced the express rate from Portland to Cottage Grove from $1.25 to $1.10 per hundred.

MOVING BELT SAVES LIEE

Unconscious Man Carried on Belt From Broken Steam Pipe.

When a large steam pipe in the plant of the Lebanon Paper mill burst yesterday afternoon while R. L. Smith, the chief engineer, was engaged in making repairs upon it, a swift moving belt through a miraculous chance carried the badly scalded and unconscious man out of danger, in all probability saving his life.

According to a telephone message from Lebanon yesterday, Engineer Smith had just discovered that one of the large steam pipes was leaking and had climbed upon an improvised platform to where the break was and was engaged in making the necessary repairs. Directly behind him and below ran a wide belt which aids in driving the machinery in that part of the mill. Without warning the steam pipe suddenly burst and Smith was deluged with steam and hot water. The man's arms shoulders and one leg were fearfully scalded and he fell backward unconscious onto the wide belt, which bore his body out of danger and finally threw him onto the floor. A physician was at once summoned and the injured man was given medical aid. It is thought he may recover. It is said that had the belt not carried the engineer's body out of the escaping steam, both eyes would have been put out by the scalding water. Smith's home is said to be in the Siuslaw country. He has an uncle W. W. Smith, at Monmouth.—Herald.

Appointed Fish Commissioner.

J. W. Wilson of Yoncalla has received the appointment of Fish Commissioner for Southern Oregon. Mr. Wilson has been one of the right hand deputies for State Game Warden Baker, who while regretting that he has to lose him from his staff, congratulates him on the appointment, which he believes could not be bettered.

School Election.

The school election yesterday passed off quietly. There are about 300 electors in the district, but only 59 cared to exercise their prerogative. Mr. J. M. Isham receiving 29 and Mr. Oliver Veatch 26 for the office of director and J. K. Barrett was re-elected clerk. There is not much interest taken in school elections which is to be deplored as it is one of the most important we hold.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Cottage Grove Women are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. B. S. C. Oliver, of 612 Maple street, Pendleton, Ore., says: "It is now nearly two years since I have had any occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. Prior to that time I had my share of kidney trouble, and if there is anything that causes more misery than a disordered condition of the kidneys, accompanied with backache, tired and listless feeling and restlessness, I have yet to experience it. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at a drug store, brought me entire freedom from the pains, aches and lameness, regulated the action of the kidneys and restored ambition to me so that I could get around and attend to my duties without discomfort. I do now and always will recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from kidney ailment in any form." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doans—and take no others. 30ct

STATE AND COUNTY

Items of Interest In a Condensed Form.

AS TAKEN FROM OUR EXCHANGES

A Resume of the Week's Local Happenings of the State and County Briefly Told.

One day last week 20,000 sheep were shipped from Baker City to a Montana buyer.

Mrs. Ida Calahan was elected school director at Corvallis this week, receiving all the votes but one.

Pendleton authorities are compelling all lot owners to destroy the weeds. This should be done in all towns.

A Silverton man fell thirty feet, from the roof of a mill, lighting on his feet on some lumber, and was uninjured.

A Sherman county man sold 54 pounds of butter from one cow, in May, besides using her milk on the table.

W. H. P. McDonald and V. G. Freeman of Sacramento, Cal., has bought the interest of Walter Lyon in the Albany Herald.

Earl Walker, an eight-year old boy of Springfield, was run over by another boy on a wheel and had his leg broken, besides being otherwise injured.

A Tillamook paper says: "A small dairy farmer close to town got a check for $202 for nine cows during the month of April." For the cows' milk it means.

A Walla walla county sheep herder thirsted to get drunk but the county being dry he filled up on various kinds of extracts with success enough to get in jail.

B. S. Kelsay, who owns a big farm near Cresswell, made his first trial with alfalfa this year and has a crop that will go three tons to the acre. This alfalfa record will be hard to beat.—Register.

Frank Hubbard of Dallas, Or., died at a hospital in Portland, of a strange malady. He was a strong hearty man and was sick just 24 hours. He complained of pains in the back and abdomen. His skin on the left side and up the back lay torn and shredded though not bruised. The doctors are not able to diagnose it.

Philomath Review: Rev. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis, who preached the baccalaureate sermon last Sunday, met his double in the person of Bishop William M. Bell, of Berkeley, Cal. Both are famous preachers, both are large, scarcely a pound's difference in weight, and look like twins. Yet they are not related, and had never met until they faced each other last Sunday.

A Benton county man bought 400 head of ewes last fall, paying $4.50 per head for them. They averaged a lamb each, and the ewe lambs are nearly all sold at $4 per head, and the buck lambs are contracted for delivery at $5, the lambs thus bringing the cost of the ewes. The wool clip is worth $1.75 per head, which means that the owner has his original stock left and meantime has had an income of $2,500 in less than a year.

Tim Casey, the man fined $100 at Brownsville, for selling some stuff called whiskey, is reported to have been held there for the U. S. marshal on a government charge. Besides this when he gets back to Coburg it is said he is wanted there on a serious charge. The story is that a man took two glasses of his preparation went to bed at 11 o'clock and before daylight was dead. His face turned blue, and now it is said it is probable that the so-called whiskey did it.—Albany Democrat.

Mix This At Home.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to readily relieve and overcome any form of rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter from the blood and system all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter, relieving at once such symptoms as backache, weak kidneys and bladder and blood diseases.

Try it, as it doesn't cost much to make, and is said to be absolutely harmless to the stomach.

Get the following harmless ingredients from any good pharmacy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

This simple mixture is said to give prompt relief, and there are very few cases of Rheumatism and Kidney troubles it will fail to cure permanently.

These are all harmless, every-day drugs, and your druggist should keep them in the prescription department; if not, have him order them from the wholesale drug houses for you, rather than fail to use this, if you are afflicted.

Graphophone FREE

Occasionally persons desiring to purchase a Graphophone conclude that they can secure a lower price on a machine by buying at Eugene, Portland, or by sending East. We want to make those persons the following proposition:

Anyone laying proof before us to the effect that they or any of their friends have purchased or can purchase any type of Edison, Columbia or Victor Graphophone or records at any of the above mentioned places, any cheaper than we are selling the same, will be given a Graphophone absolutely free. Every agent is bound by the same contract to sell only at the prices fixed by the factory and any agent doing otherwise is promptly suspended.

When you buy elsewhere you are simply out the express, freight or your car fare in transaction.

Buy from your local dealer who is here to stay and make good all guarantees.
