Several local option cases were on the docket of the present term of Circuit Court at Eugene, but after trying two of them and failing to convict, the others were dismissed upon motion of the District Attorney. Chas. Mayhew and W. Waddle were given a jury trial, charged with selling liquor in Eugene in violation of the law, but the jury in each case returned a verdict of not guilty. The state had as witnesses two detectives who were hired by the Anti-Saloon League as "spotters." After it was found that the jury would rather believe the defendants than the detectives, the cases against Frank Ware, W. L. Ford and Elmer Roushew, the others indicted, were dismissed.

The Cottage Grove district Sunday School convention will be held at the Christian Church next Sunday afternoon and evening. The local schools are urged to attend the afternoon session especially. The Sunday schools at Hebron, Lorane, Star, Doran, Wildwood and Saginaw are expected to send representatives. Everyone interested in Sunday school work should not fail to attend the state convention to be held in Eugene June 26, 27, 28, 29.

The big posters announcing the celebration at Eugene are out. They were printed by the Pioneer Printing Company at Seattle, Washington. If the Eugene printing offices weren't large enough to print their posters the committee should have sent them to Cottage Grove to be printed and thus kept the money in the county at least.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL

Fingal Hinds Closes a Deal With a Medford Fruit Grower.

Our energetic real estate agent Mr. Fingal Hinds, made two sales this week, that is important from the fact that it indicates the trend of the future of this county. His sales were to Mr. Sylvester Boyd of Medford, the Bob Trunnell place of 100 acres and the John Schmit place of 20 acres for the aggregate sum of $8500. The buyer Mr. Boyd is a fruit grower of Medford and after a thorough investigation, became convinced that Lane county possesses both the climate and soil for fruit raising, equal to if not better than surrounds Medford the hitherto acknowledged fruit center of the state, so disposing of his high priced land in that section came here and purchased as stated, and will go exclusively into the fruit raising business. This is a move that should be largely followed, as there is no doubt but that Lane county is particularly well adapted for fruit raising and when the time comes that fruit in sufficient quantities is raised to bring the Eastern buyers here, when fruit can be bought by the car load, the prosperity of all will be greatly enhanced.

Notice of Removal.

The Vogue Millinery Parlors have been removed to third door east of the bridge in the McFarland building, where we will be glad to welcome our old customers and new.

McGEE & HADMS.

A Narrow Escape.

Last Monday evening a number of young ladies while going down to the wreck, and when crossing the railroad bridge just below the city, when about half way across, an engine came hastening down the track, and in their hurry to get across before the engine overtook them, Miss Eunice VanDenBerg, one of the party, missed her footing and fell to the ground, a distance of about 30 feet. The fact that she landed on her back is all that saved her from serious injury. As it was, aside from a severe shock she was unharmed.

Now is the time to get your hat for the Fourth of July and you get a bargain such as you never heard of before. Trimmed hats for $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 in fact any price you want.

M. F. Babcock and wife drove out to the Grove Saturday afternoon.

The furnishing of gravel for building purposes at Newberg seems to be as uncertain as the weather this season, and for this reason building operations have been held up for several days. On the completion of Mr. Lea's barge everything went well for a few days, when the Eldridge launch failed and the barge was tied up. Strenuous efforts have been made to find power to handle the barge, but at Portland Mr. Lea found it impossible to hire or steal a launch. With all the perplexities of the situation he has kept a cool head, and since he has the dogged determination to succeed he will find a way out of the difficulty some way, but it must be wearing on the nerves.—Newberg Graphic.

Mr. Lea is a resident of this city and has the contract for furnishing the gravel referred to.

Notice to Creditors.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the late firm of Welch & Woods are requested to settle by July 1st. After that time the accounts will be put in the hands of an attorney for collection.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

It's as well to know just where to go to get the doctor's prescription filled accurately, quickly and reasonably as regards to price. Pure drugs, in average drug stores, are the exceptions not the rule. Careful compound is another important item the care that insures speed with exactness. And reasonable price is not the least thing to think of.
