GLORIOUS FOURTH

The Ladies' Committee Actively at Work on Preparations.

In the Leader supplement will be found the program for the big celebration to be held in this city next Thursday July 4th. The committee have spared no pains and labor to make the celebration a success in every detail. The program is a good one and as near as possible will take place at the grove, which is being put in first-class condition where it is nice and cool and shady, thus avoiding the necessity of traveling about in the hot sun to see the various sports and every indication points to a most successful celebration. Everybody come and bring your basket and join in the big basket dinner at the Grove at noon and stay for the fire works in the evening.

The ladies committee met at the Commercial Club rooms last week and are progressing nicely in making arrangements for a grand time. Miss Francis Howard is the honored lady chosen for Goddess of Liberty, Miss Hazel Gray and Mamie Kime as her maids of honor, Miss Hazel Hazleton for plenty, Miss Mable Rosenberg peace, Miss Agnes Langdon Columbia, Miss Eunice Van Deburg, Opal Whiteley for Hiwaian Islands.

There will also be the car of little girls to represent each state. The L. O. T. M's have planned a beautiful float. All orders, societies and business houses are invited to have a float.

The wagons and floats to be decorated on the vacant lots, west of Green Pitcher's residence.

A Family Reunion

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker were entirely taken by a pleasant surprise gotten up by their children, who had so arranged it as to assemble together in a family reunion. The pleasure of the parents was so much the greater from the fact that it had been kept a close secret from them, who had no inkling of what was proposed. On Saturday night some of them arrived on the train, the others reaching here on Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Baker's family consists of eight children, all being present but one, a daughter, Mrs. W. S. McFarland of Marshfield who was unable to be present.

Those present were, Mr. E. D. Baker and wife of Portland; Mr. Walter Baker and wife of Cottage Grove; Mr. Clair Baker, wife and son, Albany; Mr. Ralph Baker and wife, Portland; Mr. F. T. Miles and wife, Portland. So many hands soon made the spacious rooms a bower of flowers and it was a most happy fifteen that sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Baker sincerely hope that this is the forerunner of what will be many happy gatherings in the future. They have only one grandchild, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Baker, and of course the grand parents think with the parents that he is the "only." A most happy and enjoyable time was had by all, and another gathering was arranged to take place in the near future, the scene being shifted to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker, of near this city.

Runaway Accident

G. W. Griffin's driving mare ran away this morning and as a result Mrs. Griffin is confined to the house with a badly sprained ankle. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin were driving to Cottage Grove to attend the development league convention. Between Springfield and Goshen the harness broke and the horse began to kick and run. Right in front of them in the road was a big camp wagon and thinking they would collide with it, Mrs. Griffin jumped from the buggy to the ground, spraining her ankle. Mr. Griffin ran the animal into a high bank, demolishing one of the front wheels of the buggy and the horse broke loose and ran clear to Pleasant Hill. It was caught by Henry Mathews and brought to Eugene. He stopped it where the buggy was sidetracked and hitched the horse to it. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin were brought to town in another rig.—Guard.

Sunday School Convention

The District Sunday School Convention was held at the Christian church last Sunday evening. A large attendance was present and an interesting program rendered. Prominent among the speakers were Mrs. Ida Caldwell, Miss Gertrude Burdick, Miss Baughman and Mr. Moss and Rev. White of the Presbyterian Church. Two officers were elected, Rev. White, vice-president and Mr. Clarence Moss, secretary. The 22nd annual state convention is being held in Eugene this week, closing tonight. A number of prominent Sunday School workers of the state are present, and a number of delegates present from this city. Among those on the program is Mrs. Ora Hemenway of Cottage Grove, who spoke yesterday afternoon on "The Boy Problem."

MARRIED

By Rev. C. H. Wallace, June 23, 1907 at the bride's parents, Geo. C. Schneider and Ella M. Addison, also Herbert Maurice Doty and Helen Hunt Jackson, all of Lorane, Oregon.

At the Methodist parsonage at Eugene on Saturday, June 22 at 4 p. m. by Rev. D. H. Trimble, Mr. Morris A. McKibben to Miss Nettie Yarecy. The happy couple are both prominent residents of this city and have a host of friends who wish them much joy and bliss. They left on the flyer last Saturday evening for Portland and a trip through the Sound country after which they will return and reside in this city. Mr. McKibben is a prominent lumber dealer of this place, being a member of the firm of McKibben Bros., and the Western Oregon Lumber Manufacturers Association extends to him and his bride their heartiest congratulations and well wishes for long life and prosperity.

STRAIN TOO GREAT

Hundreds of Cottage Grove Readers Find Daily Toil a Burden.

The hustle and worry of business men,

The hard work and stooping of workmen,

The woman's household cares, Are too great a strain on the kidneys.

Backache, headache, sideache, Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.

H. Oliver of 1915 West St., Pendleton, Oregon, says: "I speak from experience when I say that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy that has much merit and can be depended upon for curing backache and kidney trouble. At a time when my back was so sore and lame that it was all I could do to bend over or straighten up again and the kidneys were deranged, Doan's Kidney Pills did more for me than everything else I had tried. Heavy work and colds have brought a twinge of stiffness in my back since then at times, but a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills have quickly removed the symptoms. This remedy can be relied upon to end sufferings similar to mine." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doans and take no other.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

It's as well to know just where to go to get the doctor's prescription filled accurately, quickly and reasonably as regards to price. Pure drugs, in average drug stores, are the exceptions not the rule. Careful compounding is another important item the care that insures speed with exactness. And reasonable price is not the least thing to think of.
