Returns the Money.

Marshal Snodgrass arrested a man here this week by the name of Vickers, wanted at Roseburg for embezzlement. The following dispatch from that city explains:

Roseburg, Ore., July 17.—The first chapter in the interrupted elopement of Mrs. Williams, of Looking Glass, and S. Vickers who was arrested at Cottage Grove on a charge of larceny, was ended today when Mrs. Williams appeared before District Attorney Brown and returned to him $15 of the money Vickers stole, stating that he had given her the money to deliver to Mr. Smith, from whom it was taken and that she was returning to her husband at Looking Glass. As Mr. Williams refuses to prosecute Vickers on a charge of illicit relations, Vickers will be released. Smith claims that there is yet $1.65 of the stolen money to be accounted for, and will not consent to the release of Vickers until that amount is returned.

A Farewell Party.

Friends, acquaintances and co-workers of Rev. and Mrs. Billington, to the number of about 200 assembled on Monday night on the spacious and beautiful grounds of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway to tender the reverend gentlemen and his wife a farewell reception as they leave this city and their work on Thursday, to take it up again in Albany.

A very entertaining program had been prepared and was carried out, consisting of solos, instrumental and vocal duets, recitations, declamations and speeches, in which the kindest expressions were made for the future of the two much beloved citizens, who were about to leave them. Mr. Billington replied to the good wishes tendered them and assured them that their sojourn in Cottage Grove would long be remembered by himself and wife as one of the happiest periods of their lives, but however much they might regret the separation from their old kind neighbors and friends, they considered that the call to duty should be first observed.

LONDON MINERAL SPRINGS

The Celebration Held There Last Saturday a Big Success.

London Springs, Lane county's most popular and favored summer resort celebrated the Fourth of July last Saturday in first-class and patriotic style. The celebration was originally planned for July 3d but owing to sickness was postponed until last Saturday. The editor, in company with some friends, drove up in the afternoon and were the guest of mine host, Levi Geer, returning home after the fire works in the evening.

The program was held in the afternoon at the grove just south of the springs and consisted of songs, recitations and speeches, including an interesting address by Mr. Bert Richmond of this city. A large crowd was present, quite a number from this city attending, and all enjoyed the holiday to the fullest. After the literary exercises at the grove, a great many attended Mr. Richmond's moving picture show which was very interesting. Supper was served at the hotel and the tables fairly groaned with all the good things of the season. Nowhere in the country are better meals served than at this resort, they being under the supervision of a first-class chef. In the evening on the lawn in front of the hotel, there was a fine display of fire works and a bowery dance was well attended by the young people of the neighborhood.

A walk about the grounds show many improvements. The large bath house, built this spring is modern and up-to-date in every particular. It is well supplied with fine porcelain tubs, everything is new and neat and has all the conveniences of the modern bath house, including the hot and cold mud baths. It is the intention of the management to have a lady and gentleman attendant at the baths in the near future.

Mr. Geer informs us that it is his intention to move the bottling works down to the springs where the water can be bottled fresh from the springs, thus saving pumping it through pipes about 200 yards. The grounds around about the hotel are being improved, games of all kinds are being installed and among them will be a fine tennis court. Mr. Geer is sparing no pains or money in making this a nice, comfortable and attractive resort and with the wonderful medicinal properties of the water, London Springs is destined to become one of the leading resorts of Oregon.
