

COTTAGE GROVE LEADER

COTTAGE GROVE OREGON

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.
BY THE LEADER PUBLISHING CO.

Entered at the Cottage Grove postoffice as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Year $1.50
Six Months .75
Three Months .50
I paid in advance but if not so paid a small rate of $2.00 per year will be charged. Advertising rates made known on application.

CLUBBING LIST

The Cottage Grove Leader for one year, and any of the following publication for one year, for the price set opposite:

New York Tribune Farmer	$1.75
Toledo Weekly Blade	1.75
Portland Weekly Oregonian	2.50
Portland Weekly Journal	2.50
Portland Semi-Weekly Journal	2.50
San Francisco Call	2.50
San Francisco Examiner	2.50
Sunset Magazine, San Francisco	2.50
Out West, Los Angeles	2.50
Town and Country Journal	1.75
Northwest Poultry Journal	1.75
Pacific Homestead	2.25

SATURDAY, SEPT. 7, 1907.

OLD-TIME GAMES.

I want to go back to the old home nest
And swing on the sycamore tree;
I want to go home again and rest
And let my heart go free;
And play the games with the old-time zest
With the boy that I used to be;
"Chicka-ma-chicka-ma-cra-nee-crow
Went to the well to wash her toe,
When she got back her chickens were gone;
What time, old witch?"

I want to play hide and seek again,
And climb in the old hay loft,
Oh, the world is empty and all in vain
Its riches, and oft and oft
I turn aside from the path of pain
To list to a whisper soft.
"One zall, two zall, sickersall, zan,
Bobtail vinegar, ticklerall, tat,
Harum, scarum, Irish harum
Swingerlum, Swangerlum,
Washumbuck."

—New York Sun.

A New York man who for 30 years has been the heaviest apple exporter of the country says Oregon can produce the best apples in the world, and that good as Hood River apples are those raised around Ashland are even better. In the Rogue River valley and other parts of Oregon the choicest of pears and other fruits can also be produced in immense quantities. Besides, he sees, as well as other outsiders do, what a great dairy and poultry state Oregon could be and ought to be, and wonders at the importation of dairy products and at the almost prohibitive prices of poultry and eggs. After noticing the abnormally high prices for these products here, he asks: "Now with such a market as this, with a great and growing city simply clamoring for eggs, butter and milk, do you see anybody in Oregon alive to the chance to make a fortune out of such a condition?" And he answers: "No, sir. People move along in the same sleepy way. The people are too slow. The mossback must wake up and get busy or go to the wall." Chicago will dump millions of dollars' worth of products here—is indeed doing so—annually, that Oregon can produce cheaper and better than the country from which Chicago obtains them. This New York man continues with unpleasant but needed and wholesome truth:

With such land, such a climate, such market, it is almost a disgrace that things here should be in the condition they are. Portland is crying for butter, paying in some cases 50 per cent over the price paid in other cities and the farmer is roaming leisurely along, going fishing today and working a little tomorrow if it is not too hot. He has sawnny cattle and his chickens are half hawks. Portland, and in fact, the whole state of Oregon needs to be spurred like a lazy horse. She has the speed and the strength, but she is lazy over the fact that her oats and grass are too easy to get.

We suppose this is the principal reason for this absolutely shameful state of affairs. Yet another reason is that we cannot as yet get men enough from the east or anywhere to come here, see and understand these conditions and take advantage of them. Oregon is all right, is great, is resourceful almost beyond description or imagination, but too many of her people are not of the right kind to develop a state. They are good people otherwise, but they lack the ambition to develop, to make the most of opportunities. They are "easy" careless, neglectful, wasteful, thriftless. Of course there are numerous exceptions, and the proportion of enterprising, developing people is increasing, but not nearly fast enough to keep up with the times. No wonder when such conditions prevail as this man describes that outsiders point scornful fingers at us. The inexplicable wonder is that more homeseekers and opportunity seekers do not rush to this state of unparalleled and astonishing opportunities to get rich off the soil.—Portland Journal.

VETERANS REUNION.

Will be Held in Eugene September 18, 19 and 20.

The Lane county veterans will meet in annual reunion at Eugene on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 18, 19 and 20. This association embraces veterans of all wars who have fought in defense of their country, and all of them are cordially invited to participate in the reunion. Many veterans are getting on in years, and can hope but for a few more of these reunions. Those in charge of the reunions are anxious for as many as possible of the veterans to remember the present opportunity once more to touch elbows and clasp the hand in friendship as in the times that have passed.

The program for the reunion is as follows:

Wednesday, September 18, the books for registration of comrades will be opened at Grand Army hall. All comrades are requested to register name, company and regiment, and receive a badge.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 a camp-fire will be held at the G. A. R. hall. Speeches, recitations and musical numbers will be on the program for the evening.

Thursday, September 19, at 10 a. m. the line for the parade will form on Willamette street in front of the G. A. R. hall and make a small march. The Spanish War veterans and the Sons of Veterans are especially invited to join in the parade.

At 12 o'clock, noon, a dinner to all will be served in the G. A. R. hall.

Thursday evening at the court house an address will be delivered by S. D. Allen, to which the public is cordially invited. Music, recitations and short speeches will make up the rest of the evening's program.

Friday, September 20, at 9 a. m. the business meeting of the association will take place in the G. A. R. hall. Election and installation of officers for next year will take place at this time, and the meeting will adjourn at noon without date.

Jeering Roosevelt.

The Times does not believe in jeering and hooting at the name of the president of the United States. It does not believe in insulting the American flag nor in waving red flags.

The president is the nation incarnated. The nation may have abuses and follies; in fact has many of them. But it is our nation, and it is the nation we want. It is not a kingdom nor an empire. It is our fault that it has faults. We have the power to correct those faults by the use of the ballot any day.

In Mr. Roosevelt we have a president who is correcting many faults. He has done more in this line than any president in forty years. He may talk too much and meddle too much in frivolous things, but in great matters like enforcing laws against trusts he is doing his duty. For that he should have praise not jeers.

He should have praise because all presidents do not do their duty. Mr. McKinley did not. Mr. Cleveland did not. Mr. Harrison did not. The law for prosecution of trusts was on the statute book under all of them, and the trusts were thick as bees and arrogant as tyrants. But neither prosecuted a trust.—Corvallis Times.

Boosting Oregon.

Widespread interest is being awakened over the state in the campaign started by the Portland Commercial Club to secure distribution throughout the east of the leaflets announcing the colonist rates and urging homeseekers to visit Oregon during the month of September. The club has printed 50,000 copies, and rush orders are being received from a score of commercial organizations and many individuals over the state, asking for bunches of the leaflets. They will be inserted in correspondence that is sent east.

Pre-eminent in the consideration of a Pacific Coast trip by Eastern people at this time is the fact that the colonist rates during the month of September, will be the last rates of this kind granted by transcontinental railroads. Never again will they, it is said, voluntarily give the people opportunity to travel from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast for the sum of $26. The Eastern homeseeker who has any intention of visiting this coast because of the cheap rates must come now. Later on he will have to pay the full fare.

The colonist rate allows passengers all the privileges of a first-class train excepting a berth in a standard Pullman sleeper. Instead of this he is carried on a first-class tourist sleeping car, which contains every needful convenience of travel.

The all-important thing to remember in purchasing a colonist ticket is to have it designate the town in Oregon to which the traveler wishes to locate. The price is the same for any destination in the state, but the ticket must be purchased to final destination.

Crowds immense,
Great events,
Songs and speeches,
Luscious peaches,
Onions, peas,
Butter cheese,
Big potatoes,
Red tomatoes,
Carrots, beans,
Farm machines,
Cattle, hogs,
Fine bred dogs,
Turkeys, hens,
Well-kept pens,
Free attractions,
Life and action,
Speedy races,
Pleasant places,
Colored lights,
Jolly sights,
Music, bands,
Ice-cream stands,
Barkers, players,
Candy dealers,
Old-time meetings,
Friendly greetings,
Lawns and flowers,
Happy hours,
Education,
Recreation,
Buildings, fountains,
Views of mountains,
Grand displays,
Joyous days,
Biggest, best,
In all the west,
You'll be there,
Oregon State Fair.

Judge Waldo Dead.

Salem, Or., Sept. 3.—Judge John B. Waldo, jurist, legislator and farmer, died at his home in the Waldo Hills last night after an illness of two weeks. He had been in his usual health until the middle of last month when he went on a trip through the Cascade mountains. It is supposed that while riding horseback he suffered internal injuries which resulted in his death.

John Breckenridge Waldo was a son of Daniel Waldo and was born on the old homestead, October 6, 1844. He received such common school education as the pioneer schools afforded and continued his studies in Willamette University, graduating from that institution in 1866. He was admitted to the bar in 1870 and was elected to the Supreme Bench in 1880.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

All parties indebted to the firm of Veatch & Lawson will please call and settle up their account within the next thirty days. 8-20-3

Reduced Rates.

Will be made by the O. R. & N. and S. P. Railroad companies, on the basis of a fare and a third for the round trip, for the important events as follows:

Oregon Irrigation Convention and Rogue River Valley Industrial Fair Grant's Pass, September 10-11 and 12. Tickets on sale from all points in Oregon.—O. R. & N., September 9-10. S. P. Co. September 9-10 11-12. Final return limit for all tickets September 13.

Oregon State Fair, Salem, Or., September 16-21 inclusive. Ticket sales dates:—O. R. & N., September 12-14-17 and 19. From all points in Oregon. Final return limit, September 23. O. R. & N. tickets must be validated for return by S. P. agent at Salem or at Fair grounds.

S. P. Co.—September 15-16-17-18-19-20 and 21, from Oregon line points. Final return limit, September 22.

Stopovers will not be granted on tickets sold for these events. Inquire of agents for full information. Wm. McMurray, Gen. Pass. Agent, John M. Scott, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agent, Portland, Or.

Ansel's Wild West Show.

On Monday, September 9th, Ansel's Wild West Show will give an exhibition, typical of the west, on the lot east of the S. P. depot.

Rough riding with broncos and rope throwing will be the two attractive features, and a prize of $25 will be given to the person who can and will, ride the grizzly bull one minute.

The first performance will take place at 2:30 Monday afternoon and a later one at 8:30 p. m. Remember the date. Come and refresh your memory of the plains.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Opens September 27th. Instruction begins October 1st. Offers courses in Agriculture, Agronomy, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Husbandry, Horticulture, Forestry, Civil, Mechanical, Electrical and Mining Engineering, Commerce, Pharmacy, Domestic Science and Arts. Tuition is free. For catalogues containing full information regarding courses of study, equipment, etc., apply to The Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon.

Important to Cruisers.

I want every reputable cruiser in Southern Oregon to send me his name and address, upon receipt of which I will send him information of vital interest to himself and his business. Address H. G. Wolf, Roseburg, Or. 31-41

The Pacific Coast Leader

Oregon State Fair

Salem, Sept. 15-21, '07.

(OPEN DAY AND NIGHT)

The West is a good and promising Live Stock district. This exhibition will be of great value to breeders and purchasers. The entire stock-loving West will be at SALEM.

Come and See the Display of

HORSES,
CATTLE,
SHEEP,
GOATS,
SWINE and
POULTRY

Also a Grand Display of

AGRICULTURAL
HORTICULTURAL MECHANICAL and
FINE ART WORKS.

RACING EVENTS DAILY
Special Railroad Rates.

Correspondence Solicited.

W. H. DOWNING, President.
FRANK A. WELCH, Secy

GRIFFIN & VEATCH CO.

Dealers in

General Hardware, Stoves and Ranges.

We also handle all kinds of

Farming Machinery
Cream Separators, Sporting Goods
Guns and Ammunition, Etc.

Remember We Buy for Quality. Call on

Griffin & Veatch Co.

EUGENE HOSPITAL

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL STAFF.

W. Kuykendall, M. D.
W. O. Prosser, M. D.
P. J. Bartle, M. D.
B. F. Seale, M. D.
I. B. Bartle, M. D.
Geo. O. B. DeBar, M. D.
L. E. McDougal, M. D.

For the care and treatment of Medical and Surgical Cases. Modern operating room, and equipment. Appliances for X ray work. Sputum and blood examinations. Full corps of trained nurses. Rates on application.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

Regular course of lectures by the faculty and practical training in the hospital. The medical and surgical staff of the hospital constitutes the faculty. For rates or information, address W. KUYKENDALL, M. D. Supt.

Portland Business College

TENTH AND MORRISON STREETS, PORTLAND, OREGON

A. P. ARMSTRONG, LL. B., PRINCIPAL

Educates for success in a short time and at small expense, and sends each student to a position as soon as competent. Quality is our motto, and reputation is our goal. Thorough work brings us over 100 calls per month for office help. Individual instruction insures rapid progress. We teach the loose leaf, the card index, the voucher and other modern methods of bookkeeping. Charting is our shorthand, easy, rapid, legible. Beautiful catalogue, business forms and penmanship free write today. References: any merchant, any bank, any newspaper in Portland.

Bank of Cottage Grove

Capital Stock, $25,000.00

SAVE $1.70

And get the news of the world TWICE EACH WEEK, the local news once a week and an illustrated magazine once a month. This is the combination:

Semi-Weekly Oregon Journal, one year, 104 copies.....$1.50
Cottage Grove Leader, one year, 52 copies..... 1.50
Pacific Monthly, one year, 12 copies..... 1.00
Publishers' price for the three..... $4.00

All three one year for $2.30

The Semi-Weekly Journal, Portland, Or., is a farm newspaper published Tuesday and Friday of each week. It has its own leased wires and its reports of events are always the latest and without bias or prejudice. Its market reports are corrected up for each issue by one whose business it is to do that and nothing else. They are reliable. Its story pages, and page of comics are always interesting, and its farm department (soon to be a feature) will contain original articles by special paid writers.

The Pacific Monthly, published at Portland, Or., is the leading magazine of the West. It is beautifully illustrated. Its stories are clean and wholesome and intensely interesting.

The Cottage Grove Leader, is your local paper and you need it to keep in touch with local news and happenings.

$2.30 The Three For One Year. Only $2. 30
New or Renewals