PEOPLE OF THE DAY

The Case of Banker Stensland.

Paul O. Stensland, president of the wrecked Chicago state bank, who was recently arrested at Tangier, Morocco, found no asylum in that country despite the lack of an extradition treaty. His case is similar to that of Bill Tweed, one time head of Tammany Hall, New York. When Boss Tweed was brought back from Spain no extradition treaty existed, but an American warship touched there, and Tweed, who had been harassed, agreed to go home on it.

PAUL O. STENSLAND.

The closing of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank on Aug. 6 last was followed by a panic among the 22,000 depositors. The bank was a Stensland family affair, and its patrons were small business men and poor working people.

Upon the closing of the institution the authorities discovered that Stensland had fled. Cashier Hering, arrested in Chicago after he had disappeared for three days, placed the blame on Stensland. On Aug. 10 Frank Kowalski, paying teller, committed suicide by shooting because he could not endure the suspicions cast upon him by his friends. Several ruined depositors were driven to commit suicide.

Memoranda left by Stensland showed, it is alleged, that he took $1,033,000 from the bank, of which half was cash stolen within a month of the bank's collapse.

President Stensland is a Norwegian. He went to Chicago in 1871. He formerly conducted a private bank. In 1891 he organized the state bank which was looted. Stensland was a World's fair director and a leader among the foreign element of Chicago.

A Preference.

An intimate friend of Senator W. A. Clark of Montana related this story of the copper king at the Hoffman House the other day:

"Senator Clark does not pose as a wit, but there are times when he gets off a good thing. He fully appreciates, too, the weaknesses of human nature. One of his secretaries is somewhat addicted to the flowing bowl. Having to talk with the senator one day on some business matter after imbibing too freely, he washed his mouth carefully with a cleansing fluid, ate some cloves, several pieces of orange peel and then sprinkled himself over with perfume. Convinced that he had eradicated all the whisky aroma, he then walked into his private office. As soon as he had approached the senator close enough to explain certain figures, Mr. Clark threw himself back in his chair, scrutinized his secretary keenly, sniffed the air and said with just the shadow of a smile on his face:

"'Really, Mr. ——, it was quite unnecessary to turn yourself into a scent bottle before coming to me. I prefer the odor of the whisky.'"—New York Globe.

Triumph of Davidson.

Governor James O. Davidson of Wisconsin, who has been named by the Republican party to succeed himself, is the first gubernatorial candidate to be nominated under the new primary law of the state. Incidentally he triumphed over Senator La Follette, whose candidate, Speaker Lenroot, was badly beaten.

Possibly the most striking feature of the whole campaign is the fact that the defeat of the junior senator was inflicted under the primary law which was the issue on which La Follette won his fight for the governorship in 1900.

Governor Davidson is a remarkable example of a self made man. Thirty-four years ago he landed in this country from the steerage of a liner and in debt for the price of his passage, which he had borrowed. His first work was as a farm hand, and the first money he saved went to pay his debt. In time he became a merchant and prospered. His first essay in politics was as a member of the state legislature in 1892, where he was conspicuous in waging war aginst lawbreaking corporations. Later he served two terms as state treasurer and in 1904 was chosen lieutenant governor on the ticket headed by La Follette. He succeeded to the governorship when La Follette went to the United States senate.

WOMEN'S WOES

Cottage Grove Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. B. S. C. Oliver, of 612 Maple street, Pendleton, Ore., says: "It is now nearly two years since I have had any occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. Prior to that time I had my share of kidney trouble, and if there is anything that causes more misery than a disordered condition of the kidneys, accompanied with backache, tired and listless feeling and restlessness, I have yet to experience it. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at a drug store, brought me entire freedom from the pains, aches and lameness, regulated the action of the kidneys and restored ambition to me so that I could get around and attend to my duties without discomfort. I do now and always will recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from kidney ailment in any form." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doans—and take no others. 3eo

TIMBERLAND ACT JUNE 3, 1878—NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

United States Land Office
Roseburg, Oregon, July 8, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892,

CHARLES R. LAWRENCE

of Comstock, county of Douglas, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 8230, for the purchase of the W½ NE¼ S½ of NW¼ of Section No. 8, in Township No. 21, Range No. 4 West and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver at Roseburg, Oregon, on Saturday, the 5th day of October, 1907.

He names as witnesses:

Roy Griggs of Comstock, Oregon; J. A. Griggs of Comstock, Oregon; M. C. Stewart of Comstock, Oregon; R. J. Delaney of Comstock, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 5th day of October, 1907.

BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.

Home-Made Catarrh Cure.

Any one can mix right at home the best remedy of its kind known. The name "Cyclone" is given to the following prescription, it is supposed, because of its promptness in driving from the blood and system every vestige of catarrhal poison, relieving this foul and dread disease, no matter where located. To prepare the mixture: Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon and three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This is a harmless, inexpensive mixture, which has a peculiar action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, assisting them to filter and strain from the blood and system all catarrhal poisons, which, if not eradicated, are absorbed by the mucous membrane, and an open sore or catarrh is the result.

Prepare some and try it, as it is the prescription of an eminent catarrh specialist of national reputation.

THE NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION OF WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

Excels in Vocabulary. It is the most useful in size and contents, judiciously selected to exclude corruptions of good usage, and to avoid unintelligible technicalities.

Excels in Arrangement. Each word begins a paragraph in its correct alphabetical place and is readily caught by the eye.

Excels in Etymologies. These are complete and scientific, and embody the best results of philology. They are not scrimped or crowded into obscure places.

Excels in Pronunciation which is indicated by respelling with the diacritically marked letters used in the schoolbooks, the sounds of which are taught in the public schools.

Excels in Definitions. They are clear, terse, yet complete, and are given in the order in which the word has acquired its shades of meaning. Many of the definitions are illustrated.

Excels in its Appendix which is a packed storehouse of useful knowledge.

Excels as a Working Dictionary. No other book of like size contains so much useful information, or is so indispensable in the home, study, school, or office.

The International has 2380 quarto pages, 5000 illustrations, 25,000 new words, revised Gazetteer of the World, and a revised Biographical Dictionary, etc. It received
