Lee Roy Woods received a letter from his father, Dr. Woods who is visiting in Portland, telling of his catching a Royal Chinook salmon weighing 29 pounds and 15 ounces, said to be the largest salmon caught on a hook in some time. It took the Dr. one hour and 10 min. to subdue the fish sufficiently to bring him near enough to the boat to get the gaff hook into him and land him. The Dr. said he sweat like a butcher and he don't care about catching any more above 10 to 12 pounds.

Church Social.

Wednesday evening the ladies of the Catholic church gave a sociable at the Armory. Supper was served from 5 until 8. The tables were beautifully decorated and the ladies served a most appetizing supper.
After 8 o'clock an excellent program was rendered which was as follows:
Address.....Father O'Farrell, Eugene
Response.....Father Fitzpatrick
Piano solo.....Miss Margaret Woods, Eugene
Recitation.....Mrs. Jean Brady
Solo.....Miss Marion Hooper
Piano solo.....Miss Margaret Brand
Piano duet.....Misses Woods and Hohl
Recitation.....Margaret Hohl
The recitation "The Volunteer Organist" given by Mrs. Brady was a most beautiful piece and the eloquent manner in which it was given made all present appreciate the sentiment of the story.
A crazy quilt, made by Mrs. Hohl was raffled off, the winner of the prize was Mrs. Brumfield.
Various other amusements were engaged in after the program. A number of people from Eugene came up on the afternoon train and added to the large crowd who were already present.
The ladies made a success of the supper and gave evidence of the fact by having received $75 proceeds.

Tax Business Men.

At the regular meeting of the Commercial Club last Friday evening the matter of a city occupation tax was brought up and thoroughly discussed. Several of our business men have been agitating an extra tax of the business men for some time and after discussing the subject at some length it was decided that a committee from the club meet the city council at its next regular meeting and urge the passage of an ordinance putting an occupation tax on every business man in Springfield. This committee consists of Messrs Kestley, Page and Reichard.—Times.

Oyster Supper.

Mr. David Griggs, manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Co. of this city, gave to the telephone operators and linemen now in his charge and to the ex-telephone operators, an oyster supper, at his home in West Cottage Grove, Thursday evening.
The tables and dining room were decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns. Oysters prepared in every way possible were served, making a most delicious supper.
Mr. Newton, agent for this district was present and gave a decided dignity to the supper party.
Mrs. Blanche Johnson Rouse, the first telephone operator Cottage Grove ever had, was present also and many interesting reminiscences of past experiences were told.
Mr. Griggs is an excellent host and his pleasant manner, in social life as well as business life, made his guests thoroughly enjoy themselves.

Married.

Clyde R. Nokes was married to Miss Loma M. Miller at the home of her parents at Eight Mile Post Office near Heppner in Eastern Oregon Sunday, Oct. 20th.
After visiting several coast cities and friends in Portland they came to Cottage Grove where Mr. Nokes is employed as agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. Clyde was quiet as to his matrimonial intentions when he started on his vacation, but his friends made a pretty good guess.
The young couple start out with a host of friends who wish them many years of success and happiness. The manly man that Clyde has shown himself to be during his long residence here bespeaks for him a prosperous and useful future.
