The Leader Office has just finished Volume 1, No. 1, of "The Superlative," the High School paper. It is neatly gotten up and well edited, and certainly a credit to the High School and the "staff." It contains some interesting stories written by members of the senior class. The cover design, which is not excelled by any school publication in the state, was designed and drawn by Allen Baker, of the class of '08, and must be seen to be appreciated. It is a fine piece of work and Allen will surely become one of our great artists. The Superlative will be issued each month during the school year, and the interest taken by our business men in the way of advertising assures its success. At 11 o'clock a supper was served by the wives and other fair ones, that are in close touch with the members of the Military Club.

THANKSGIVING DAY

How it Was Spent in Cottage Grove—Services at Churches.

Never was a Thanksgiving day more generally observed or appropriately celebrated in Cottage Grove. The weather was all that could be asked, clean streets and crossings had their par as well as the chrysanthemums and fresh budding roses that adorn the yards of so many beautifully kept homes of our city. The merchants all closed their stores at 11 o'clock and until after two o'clock the streets were deserted for the home.

The usual quick lunch of our busy merchants gave place to a real dinner with the family and the familiar phrase "like mother used to make" was expressed more than once while the mince pies, plum pudding and other good things were being enjoyed. In addition to the family at home, from seeing the many absent members of families alight from the train one would almost guess that it was a home coming day.

The ladies of the M. E. church served their annual Thanksgiving dinner in the church at which 250 plates were laid. The dinner was a great success and especially so was the social time held after dinner when all visited together for a few hours. At the churches services were held. At 9:30 a. m. Mass was celebrated at the Catholic church and Father Fitzpatrick preached a splendid sermon. In the evening at the Presbyterian church union services were held, Rev. Elkins of the Christian church delivering the sermon and special music was rendered by the city choirs.

Woodmen Officers.

The Woodmen of the World held their regular meeting last evening and the following officers were elected for the coming term:
 Consul Commander, A. Brewer;
 Adviser Lieutenant, Dr. J. O. Van Winkle; Clerk, C. H. VanDenberg; Banker, D. B. Chamberlain; Escort, John Veatch, Watchman, J. Huff; Sentry, L. Taylor; Trustee, B. McKibben; Physician, Dr. Van Winkle;

The social session held after business was over was enjoyed, especially the refreshments which consisted of wedding cake and the Woodman's only beverage, pure water. It's no use to ask any of them where they got the wedding cake or who was married, 'cause they won't tell.

At the request of a number of ladies, the Poultry Association has decided to hold the baby show in the afternoon at 2:30 instead of in the evening. This will be much more convenient for the babies, as they will be in better humor and look prettier than in the evening when they would be sleepy and tired. A number of pretty prizes will be given, among them one for the prettiest boy and girl baby under 1 year, and from 1 to 2 years, and the fattest baby under 18 months.
