

200 Men and Women Wanted

to come to the Modern Pharmacy for their medicinal wants every day. Only by coming here for your every want in lines sold by us can you know how satisfactory it is to deal at this store.

A Few Specials

left over from the holidays for a very little money.

Woodmen Install Officers.

The Modern Woodmen of America held installation of officers Monday evening, admitted a number of new members and with their ladies partook of excellent refreshments. It was an enjoyable affair and the members of the order are feeling good from the fact that they had no assessment for January. Besides the installation a short program was rendered and it was estimated 200 people were present. The officers installed were:

Consel, N. E. Compton; Adviser, Jas. Olliver; Escort, Orville Knapp; Banker, A. W. Kime; Watchman, Roy Langdon; Sentry, Geo. Brown; Physician, Dr. Kime; manager, A. S. Powell. The officers of the Royal Neighbors are: Oracle, Mary Baker; Past Oracle, Mpry Conner; Vice-Oracle, Mattie Brown; Chancellor, Phoebe Stoneburg; Recorder, Mildred Wallace; Receiver, Emma Powell; Marshal, Maggie Lockwood; Inner Sentinel, Cora Teeters; Outer Sentinel, Sallie Hill; Manager, Mary Sallee; Physician, Dr. A. W. Kime.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

The Woodmen of the World installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: Consul, A. Brewer; V. Lt. Dr. J. O. Van Winkle; Escort, John Veatch; Clerk, C. H. Van Denburg; Banker, D. E. Chamberlain; Watchman, J. C. Huff; Sentry, Lincoln Taylor; Manager, Louis McKibben. The order is in a flourishing condition. The officers of the Circle are: Post Guardian, Mrs. Margaret Johnson; Guardian, Mrs. Rosenberg; Adviser, Mrs. Jenkins; Clerk, Mrs. Alice Coffman; Banker, Mrs. Eva Hemenway; Attendant, Mrs. Frey; Magician, Mrs. Myrtle Veatch, Captain of Guards, Mrs. Van Denberg; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. Frank Rosenberg; Managers, Mesdames Awbrey and Bisby; Musician, Miss Eunice Van Denberg.

BEST WEARING SHOE IN AMERICA.

You see the wear in Star Brand Shoe the minute you look at them. Wear, Style and Comfort are all combined in each and every pair of shoes bearing the trade mark, R. J. & R. We carry this line complete.

COMPTON & WALLACE WHERE YOU DO BETTER.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The Leader leads. Spring-like weather. Lots of building talk. Patronize Leader advertisers. See Miss Barret's new millinery store ad.

Miles Pitcher of Star was a business visitor to our city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kayser are spending the week on their farm near Saginaw.

Tell your friends the Leader is an ideal local paper and that they should subscribe.

T. J. Kirk, C. P. Jones, W. H. Abrams and T. R. Parker were Eugene visitors the early part of the week.

The ladies should call at Miss Barret's millinery store and examine those Henderson double front laced corsets.

E. E. Bright, the poultry raiser, shipped a fine Houdan cockerel to Petaluma last week for which he received a $5 bill.

Gravel has been delivered for the foundation work on the new Stewart & Hinds brick, corner of Main and Second streets.

Newton Crusen and wife, formerly Miss Viola Vaughn, who were married Jan. 12, have settled down to housekeeping in this city.

The Leader wants a good correspondent in every community tributary to Cottage Grove. Paper, envelopes and stamps furnished free.

Mrs. John Coleman went to Sacramento late last week to attend her mother, Mrs. Elliot, who is quite ill with Typhoid fever at her home at that place.

Miss Zelma Cruzan returned to Wildwood Monday after a short visit in Eugene. She is one of the Guard's contestants for the piano to be given away February 8.—Eugene Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tetherow and son of Independence are visiting in Cottage Grove with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Rice Hastings and are looking for a little home of a few acres, having decided to locate here.

The neat new lockers for Co. E were completed and delivered to the armory last week and now each member of the company will have separate compartments under lock and key for their uniforms and other equipments.

Mrs. Ben Pitcher of Disston, held the lucky number—293—which won the fine little express wagon at Lurch's store. "Of course" Mrs. Pitcher read the announcement of the winning number in the Leader and telephoned accordingly to Mr. Lurch.

Frank Crabtree has purchased the real estate business of F. B. Phillips who has accepted the position of cashier in the Bank of Cottage Grove. Mr. Crabtree will move to town from his farm and take personal charge of the business in a short time.

"A Man's Broken Promise" at the armory hall Wednesday evening.

Chas. Lavene, the painter, has been painting and varnishing the interior of the Latham school house this week.

George Allen is home from Spokane and other Washington points where he has been sojourning for some time past.

The Cottage Grove Leader has been wonderfully improved under its new management, with W. C. Conner behind the quill and scissors.—Draiu Nonpareil.

Mrs. C. F. Croner made a trip to Cottage Grove last week on horseback. Mrs. Croner is an expert horsewoman and enjoys such little jaunts as that.—Guard.

H. C. Veatch presented the Leader a few days ago with a branch broken from a blackberry bush containing berries almost ripe and blossoms. Pretty good for January.

Misses Maggie and Lizzie Veatch left this week for a visit with relatives and friends at Creswell and Cottage Grove, after which they will proceed to Eugene, where they will make their future home with an aunt.—Grants Pass Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffman, parents of our genial barber, are enjoying a pleasant visit with their son and his family in this city. Mr. Coffman and wife have just returned from a seven month's visit in the east having visited all points of interest east of the Mississippi.

S. J. Brund, a well known Bohemia mining man, has secured patents on two simple devices which promise to make a lot of money for him. One is an electric wire holder to fasten wires to all kinds of supports, and the other is a safe contrivance for thawing out giant powder.

Railroad Commissioner T. K. Campbell of Salem, was exchanging greetings with his Cottage Grove friends Monday and looking after his property and business matters here. He says he is kept pretty busy looking after the affairs of his office, which he is certainly handling in a very efficient manner.

Mrs. Jack Lewis narrowly escaped serious results from blood poisoning this week. In pursuing her household work a splinter of some kind penetrated her finger. It was promptly removed but the hand and arm became badly swollen before the poison contained in the splinter could be counteracted.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby was up from Junction City Monday and reports that there has been but three cases of small pox at that place, that they have been strictly quarantined and each of them are now convalescing. After attending a few patients at this place he returned to Junction Monday evening.

Mrs. Bert Woods, formerly of this city but late of Raymond, Washington, is a guest of Cottage Grove friends, having arrived in this city Tuesday. She says Mr. Woods is engaged in work on a large carpenter contract at Raymond. Mrs. Woods says Raymond is a pleasant summer home with its sea breezes, but the winter is rendered disagreeable from heavy coast winds.

The armory has been supplied with a Houck military target cabinet, and a regulation army rifle made in 22 caliber. The target scale is so regulated that members of Co. E in shooting from a 90 foot range get all the practice and results that could be obtained on the regular rifle range at from 100 to 1000 yards. This cabinet was invented by Geo. Houck of Roseburg and is in general use in all armories.

An opportunity will soon be given local play goes to witness the big laugh producing hit of the season, "A Man's Broken Promise," written by Lillian Mortimer, that popular author and actress. Manager Oliver J. Eckhardt has selected the cast with great care, the scenic equipment is far beyond the ordinary. There is lots of comedy in the piece and also numerous specialties. This play will be seen at the armory hall on Wednesday, Jan. 29.

J. W. Baker was transacting business at the county seat Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gibbs of Eugene were Cottage Grove visitors Tuesday.

Ladies, don't fail to read the new ad of Miss Ida Barrett in this issue of the Leader.

W. C. Johnson and William Landess were in attendance at the meeting of the Elks at Eugene Wednesday evening.

Mrs. John Medley has been quite ill at her home in this city during the past week, but her condition is somewhat improved today.

Mrs. Thomas Jenkins and daughter Miss Mabel Lee, spent Tuesday at Eugene visiting with friends. Mrs. Jenkins is much improved in health since receiving treatment at a Portland hospital.

The revival meetings are still in progress in three of the local churches, many conversions and accessions to these respective churches having been made. Some of these services will close Sunday evening.

"A Man's Broken Promise" which comes here on Wednesday, Jan. 29 is a safe proposition for theater goers. Its merriment has been proven and a strong cast is promised for this engagement.

B. M. Atkins of Independence is a guest of his parents and sister, Mrs. Van Allison. He is an electrician and is with the Willamette Valley Co. at Independence. Mr. Atkins has not visited this city for some time and says he notes many improvements.

J. C. Veatch, son of Hon. R. M. Veatch is homeward bound from Chicago where he has been studying pen sketching, this line of work coming natural to him. He made rapid progress under his late instructions and left some very clever sketches in the Chicago school collection.

Less snow is reported in the mountains of this part of the state this year than for a great many years. This winter only the highest peaks and ridges are covered, while the valleys, even though far up in the mountains, are free from snow.

The weather has been so good lately that many people are getting ready to make garden. It is a little early yet and we will no doubt have some cold weather, but there are many who are spading up the ground to plant garden seed such as peas, onions, lettuce, radishes and turnips.

"A Man's Broken Promise" will be the attraction at the armory hall on Wednesday evening, Jan. 29. The piece contains a large cast and is mounted with all special scenery. The story is neat, clean, pure and moral. It has considerable of the comedy element and numerous specialties are introduced throughout the play.

Monday morning the Bazaar will commence a clearance sale in order to make room for a fine new stock of graphophones and records and spring goods. Ten and fifteen cent laces and embroideries will sell at 5 and 10 cents, and there will be bargains in men's, gloves, chinaware, sweaters, shirts and a good many articles in the grocery line.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Atkins and Mrs. S. V. Allison received a telegram Tuesday morning from their son and brother N. L. Atkins at Forest Grove, that a baby girl had arrived at their home that morning. This is the grandparents first grandchild after being married 45 years. Mr. N. L. Atkins was night operator in the depot here for some time, until last June was passenger agent at Forest Grove, when he resigned and accepted a position as cashier of Senator Haines bank of that city.

LOST

A valuable fox hound, black and tan with extra large ears, 7 months old. Was running coyote in the vicinity of Bear Creek or Booth, Kelly mills when last seen. Return to owner, G. W. McFarland, Cottage Grove and receive suitable reward.

AFTER INVENTORY AT LURCH'S

Genuine Annual Sale

Unprecedented Offering of Men's and Boys' Clothing

25% REDUCTION 25%

LADIES! Note our prices on the new Remnant Counter of 1908.

HARDWARE

STOVES AND RANGES
About which there is nothing cheap but the price.

FARM IMPLEMENTS
Everything from a garden hoe to a Studebaker wagon.

GUNS, AMMUNITION
Headquarters for hunters and miners supplies.

TIN AND GRANITWARE
The kind that will wear but costs little money.

Griffin & Veatch Com'y

FOLLOW THE FASHION

If you adhere to the fashion in suits, waists and cloaks, you must follow it closely in Corsets. Unless your Corset is stylish your other stylish cut garments will not fit.

Now what is required? First of all, tight-fitting waists and Princess gowns necessitate a perfected Corseted figure. The Henderson Habit Back Corset is the one for the present styles. For sale at the Ideal Millinery Store. Come ladies and inspect them.

IDA FRANCES BARRETT.

EUGENE HOSPITAL

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL STAFF.
W. Kuykendall, M. D.
W. O. Prosser, M. D.
P. J. Bartle, M. D.
B. F. Seatele, M. D.
D. A. Paine, M. D.
Geo. O. B. DeBar, M. D.
L. E. McDougal, M. D.

For the care and treatment of Medical and Surgical Cases. Modern operating room, and equipment. Appliances for X ray work. Sputum and blood examinations. Full corps of trained nurses. Rates on application.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

Regular course of lectures by the faculty and practical training in the hospital. The medical and surgical staff of the hospital constitutes the faculty. For rates or information, as hospital or training, address W. KUYKENDALL, M. D., Superintendent.
Or MISS M. H. HOLMSTRUM, Superintendent of Nurses.

BANK OF COTTAGE GROVE

Capital (paid in) $25,000

Conducts a General Banking Business along conservative lines. Your patronage solicited.

W. H. Abrams, President
F. B. Phillips, Cashier
B. Lurch, Vice President
Harry Short, Asst. Cashier