Commercial Club Committees.

At the business meeting of the Commercial Club last Monday night C. H. Burkholder and H. O. Thompson were appointed as a committee to endeavor to interest some one in the establishment of a shingle mill at this place. J. B. Rouse and others were appointed to investigate and report on the fire and pottery clay deposits found hereabouts. Ben Lurch, Marion Veatch and C. H. Burkholder comprise a committee to investigate and report on the matter of building a levy across a short ravine at the milldam south of town to prevent the river at times of freshets from flooding the east side of this city. The plan is said to be feasible and that the expense would not exceed a few hundred dollars.

Leap Year Ball.

The social event of the season occurred at the armory hall last Friday evening, the auspicious affair being a grand leap year ball given by the ladies Swastika Club. The armory was beautifully decorated, the Swastika being much in evidence, the ribbon badges also bearing this emblem. Splendid music was furnished by Messrs. Dillard and Svarverud of Eugene and Chas Cochran of this city. Refreshments were served by the ladies and the gentlemen guests were shown a grand, good time, all expenses being borne by the ladies.

The floor managers and young ladies to be credited principally with the splendid success of this occasion were, Misses Margaret Brund, Katie Hawley and Bessie Griffin.

There was a big time at the skating rink Thursday evening, the occasion being a grand masquerade on skates. There was 42 maskers on the floor and many unique characters were represented. There was also a large attendance of spectators and manager Thos. Abrams was regretting that he did not have a more commodious building in which to better accommodate and entertain the public, and he thinks that by next winter larger quarters can be provided.

Mr. Thompson of St. Johns, owner of the Imperial hotel property is here, looking after his business interests in this city.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Ordinance Passed Providing Against Drunkenness. Bills Allowed.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held in the city hall Monday evening, all members being present.

Ordinance No. 190, was unanimously passed. This ordinance relates to levying an assessment for the construction of a lateral sewer, commencing at the main sewer on Looust street, on the east side of Fifth and extending to Wisconsin avenue.

Ordinance No. 191 was passed and simply provides for the re-adjustment of the assessments for the grading and graveling of Perkins avenue.

Ordinance No. 192 was passed and provides that any party or parties found on any streets of the city of Cottage Grove or public place therein, in an intoxicated condition are subject to arrest and fine of from $5 to $50.

A motion prevailed that the mayor appoint a committee of three to look into the matter of amending the city charter and the following committee was appointed: H. O. Thompson, Fingal Hinds and O. O. Veatch.

The report of the street commissioner was read and referred to the street committee.

Saginaw Items.

C. J. Queener is on the sick list. News is rather scarce around here.

George James is working for J. T. Olson.

Ben Jackson has turned farmer these days.

J. E. Angel is building a church on his place.

C. A. Smith is doing some fencing on his place.

The Saginaw Literary Society is getting along nicely.

There will be preaching Friday night at the school house by Dr. Millican of Portland.

The farmers are taking advantage of the good weather, and are plowing and sowing grain.

Mr. Tucker had the misfortune one day this week to get his hand badly hurt by lumber falling on it while working in the lumber yard.

N. E. Compton of the firm of Compton & Wallace and our esteemed townsman, Geo. Hall, made a trip down the valley as far as Portland this week visiting the principal towns enroute. Its doughnuts against agates that they will return with a more exalted opinion of Cottage Grove than ever before.

John Barker installed a fine pool table and a fine billiard table in his business quarters in Hotel Oregon this week. The cues and balls are the best to be had. Mr. Barker has also put in a full line of tobacco and cigars.

Will Hart is building a comfortable cottage on the farm of Rev. Beatty near Saginaw, which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Maddocks, late of Boston.

George Earlow has sold his farm of 140 acres near Divide to Ed Adams and will go to Myrtle Creek to locate.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

Geo. Lea was transacting business at the county seat today.

Wm. Hawley of Lorane, was transacting business in the Grove Thursday.

It is reported that Hamilton Veatch is quite ill at his country home on Row river.

Johnie Veatch has returned home from the Chicago Art school which he has been attending.

The city collected during the month of January $270 in fines; $343.16 street assessments; $29 in licenses, total $642.16.

W. T. Kayser, a prosperous farmer of near Saginaw, was discussing national issues and nominating a presidential candidate, on our streets today.

E. A. Rhoten, field editor of the Pacific Homestead, Salem, is in town hustling business for that splendid farm journal. He favored the Leader with a fraternal call.

Sunday was "groundhog's day" and the sun came up clear and bright, without a cloud to be seen. According to the old adage, we will have bad weather for the next six weeks.

Dr. Lowe, Eugene's well known eye specialist, will be in Cottage Grove at Hotel Oregon next Monday and to noon Tuesday, Feb. 10th and 11th. Have him test your eyes for glasses. Eighteen years experience.

R. R. Giltner and wife of Portland, are the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. DeLure Hemenway. Miss Nellie Hemenway, who has been attending school in Portland, is enjoying a brief vacation at home.

Walker & Campbell and J. H. Chambers, well known local timbermen and lumbermen, moved their office fixtures into the brick formerly occupied by F. J. Hard Tuesday, and have neat and very commodious quarters.

Mrs. Ella Woods, who with her husband resided on a farm east of this city for many years, died and was buried at Walla Walla last Sunday. Mrs. Woods had been divorced from her husband, Sam Woods, for a number of years and was residing with a sister at the time of her death.

Fred Raymond, whose comedy "The Missouri Girl," has made millions laugh, will present his new play "Old Arkansas" at the Armory Hall on Wednesday evening, Feb. 19. This is the first opportunity local amusement lovers have had to see "Old Arkansas" and a crowded house is a certainty.

While there is but 22 miles between Cottage Grove and Eugene, the former place has a much milder climate. For instance ice on the ponds afforded skating at Eugene last week, while at this place ice did not freeze thick enough to support the weight of a three-year-old child. There was snow in and about Eugene Monday, but not a flake hereabouts.

One night early this week some party or parties broke the lock on the railroad velocipede at the depot and took a spin up to the "gallon house" at Divide and put in a supply of "snake bite antidote," which some of the fellows about town have been imbibing rather freely. If the party or parties who took the velocipede are apprehended they will surely get into trouble.

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Cottage Grove Readers Know What it Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills, Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Cottage Grove citizen tells here a certain cure. Walter Rogers, living on the west side, Cottage Grove, Or., says: "I suffered for some time with pains in my back and side and a diseased condition of the kidneys. I did not give the trouble serious thought thinking it would soon disappear. It did not however, and I rapidly grew worse. The secretions were so terribly frequent that I was forced to rise many times during the night and the passages were attended with severe pain. I tried nearly every remedy that was brought to my attention and also used liniments and plasters but did not succeed in finding any relief. I then read of Doan's Kidney Pills and was so impressed that I procured a box at Benson's Pharmacy. I received relief from the first and was so much encouraged that I procured a further supply. I used these as directed and was rewarded with complete cure. The pains have entirely disappeared and I am able to go to bed and sleep throughout the night, something that I was unable to do before using Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
