

COUNTY SEAT NEWS AND NOTES

A County Republican club was organized at this place Thursday evening.

Mrs. Snodgrass and little child came down from Cottage Grove yesterday to visit her parents.

The Eugene street railway franchise has been amended, providing free rides for members of the city council, while serving in official capacity, effective April 1st.

The midwinter examination of teachers commences at the court house Wednesday and continues the balance of the week under the direction of the county superintendent.

Roseburg will run an excursion to Eugene Feb 17th to give the local street committee and business men an opportunity to inspect Eugene's paved streets. Roseburg having voted to pave three of its principal streets.

The Chambers-Bristow Banking Co. moved their working materials, books, etc., to the First National Monday and their institution is no longer in existence in reality. The business of the bank will be closed out at the First National bank by Mr. Bristow who will be at the latter place as one of the working force.

Two cars of logs came in from Wildwood for the Eugene Lumber company Tuesday and two cars of ties for the Eugene Transfer company, which are to be used for wood.

William Twilley, who pleaded guilty to selling intoxicating liquors before Justice Bryson and was fined $100 and costs, succeeded in paying his fine in full on Saturday evening.

At the meeting of the Commercial Club Monday night the matter of the return visit of the Cottage Grove Commercial Club Monday, February 17, was discussed and arrangements made to entertain the visitors. It was also decided to invite the business men of Springfield and Junction City to visit Eugene on that day.

Frank Scott, brother of C. L. Scott of the First National bank, who formerly lived at Creswell and well known in Eugene as a member of the Fourth Regiment band, has been promoted from state manager for Montana of the International Conservatory of Music at Portland, to the Pacific Coast manager. He now has 35 men under him, and 30,000 pupils and has a very responsible position. His many friends here rejoice with him over his promotion.

ROOSEVELT'S RED-HOT MESSAGE

President Roosevelt has issued his special message to congress and no document of the kind has probably ever created so much discussion and has been so forceful, pointed and fearless in its tone and sentiment as this one. Thunders of cheers have gone up all over the country for the president and he is proclaimed a crusader against wrong while the message is endorsed by both parties. The best indorsement of the message to come to our notice is the following excerpt from the Portland Journal:

"The President's special message is a scorching. Or, to use another figure, is a paralyzer. Nothing like it was ever sent in the form of a special message to the American congress.

The president had evidently kept quiet as long as he could under the reiterated assertions that he had caused the panic among business because he attacked rascals and lawbreakers of great wealth and power. And he pays his respects in no uncertain terms to the editors and pamphleteers and professors who have voiced these accusations and defended the methods of the big lawbreakers. "The apologists of successful dishonesty," he says, "always declaim against any effort to punish or prevent it on the ground that any such effort will 'unsettle business.' It is they who, by their acts have unsettled business, and the very men raising this cry spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in securing by speech, editorials, book or pamphlet, the defense by misstatements of what they have done; and yet when public servants correct their misstatements by telling the truth, they declaim against them for breaking silence, lest 'values be depreciated.' They have hurt honest business men, honest workmen, honest farmers; and now they clamor against the truth being told."

If some people thought the president had been cowed and humbled by the attacks upon him, they are now thoroughly undeceived. They would better, for their own sakes, have let the lion alone. He has not only taken the offensive against his accusers, but he charges upon them with astonishing, overwhelming force. Apologize, retreat, react, modify—be! He shows them; with the Big Stick in full swing; with gleaming eyes and exposed and gritted teeth, he rides upon and over them ruthlessly, unsparringly, irresistibly, splendidly. It is indeed a war in which the country is engaged, and it has a general in command of such knightly bravery as has not been seen in it before, and may not be seen again.

This message, and others to follow, if like it, may make Theodore Roosevelt president again in spite of himself.

GOOD NEWS FOR ENTRYMEN

AVOID COURTS WHEN POSSIBLE. "Whenever the facts warrant, I confer with persons who are accused of using or holding land illegally, and if possible or proper, effect a settlement or obtain return of the lands to the government without litigation."

Under the former administration there was no such effort to settle cases of this character out of the courts. Every offender, no matter what his motive, looked for a criminal court record if detected. Incidentally, while the government made a striking record for convictions in Oregon, it lost much of the land in controversy, whereas the government is today recovering land illegally taken, and innocent offenders are not besmirched unnecessarily.

Secretary Garfield deals sensibly with the question of fencing the public domain. On this subject he says:

Under the existing law no fences can be permitted. It is therefore necessary that the law be so amended ed as to give the secretary of Agriculture, who could best administer such a law, the power to permit the use of the public range in such manner as is equitable to the stockman in each locality. This can best be accomplished by a system of permit based either upon an acreage or a per capita basis and regulated in accordance with the peculiar and special needs and customs of each locality. The settler at all times should be given the right of homestead entry and a preference to use such portion of the range as may be necessary to graze the stock which can be supported upon his homestead.

WOULD REPEAL TIMBER AND STONE ACT.

The timber and stone act should be repealed. Under this act many frauds have been perpetrated. This act has been one of the most harmful of the public land statutes. Under it millions of acres of timber land have been fraudulently acquired and the monopoly of the timber supplies of the public land states made possible. The purpose of the act may have been good, but its effects have been vicious.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Life When a Cottage Grove Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney disease, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Cottage Grove testimony.

Mrs. Virginia Protzman, living on Perkins avenue, Cottage Grove, Oregon, says: "I suffered for a long time with kidney and bladder disorders and my condition finally became so bad that I had to go to bed and my life was actually despaired of. I doctored and used many remedies without getting the slightest relief. Cutting pains through my back kept me in agony and I was so weak and lame across the small of my back that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothing. I suffered with severe headaches and was caused a great deal of annoyance on account of the irregularity of the secretions. I was laid up in bed for nearly two months. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at Benson's Pharmacy and before I had finished the contents of the first box I noticed an improvement in my condition. As I continued the remedy I grew stronger and stronger and when I had used the contents of five boxes I was almost free from the trouble. When I finished the sixth box I was in better health than I ever hoped to be. Doan's Kidney pills effected a complete cure and I believe actually saved my life. I heartily recommend this remedy to kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
