Miss Lulu Currin Entertains.

On last Friday evening Miss Lulu Currin entertained the Juniors and Seniors of the C. G. H. S. and a few invited guests at a St. Valentine's Leap Year party.

The living room was very prettily decorated with red hearts strung on the same shade of ribbon and festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the room.

The hostess had prepared some very unique games all symbolic of Valentine's day, some affording much amusement.

At a late hour dainty refreshments carrying out the idea of hearts, were served after which the guests departed thanking their hostess for the pleasant evening she had afforded them.

The guests were, Nora Hull, Eunice Van Denberg, Hazel and Neita Hazelton, Eliza Magee, Belle Burkholder, Beulah DeSpain, Della and Inez White, Emma Job, Miss Mundy, Miss Greta Bristow of Eugene, Miss Lulu Currin, Joseph Arnold, Charles Gates, Ernest Wyatt, Elvin Spray, Paul Marklev, Allen Baker, Ren Sanford, Harry Short, John Veatch, Mr. Harvey and Hugh Currin.

Valentine Party.

Among the society events of the week was the "At Home" given by Mrs. F. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle, and Mrs. J. C. Johnson at the Rosenberg residence. The decorations throughout the house were commemorative of St. Valentine. Strings of hearts were in evidence everywhere. Concealed in some nook or corner was a very unique valentine for each guest, all of which were found. Mrs. C. Ross King won the prize in the guessing contest, a beautiful heart shaped box of bonbons. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests were:

Mesdames Geo. Hall, Frank Wheeler, J. H. Chambers, D. J. DuBruille, Nate Compton, Herbert Eakin, Fred Herren, Harley Petrie, Harry Metcalf, Chas. Burkholder, Dr. Kime, Ben Lurch, John Medley, Ed Jones, Wm. Abrams, H. O. Thompson, Lilyan O. Goodman, Frank Phillips, Nave, C. Ross King, Almond Hemenway, B. Job.

C. L. Haeksey sustained a broken arm while working at the Nokes & Atkinson mine, in Bohemia Tuesday evening. He was brought to this city and the fracture was reduced and he is getting along very well.

F. H. Hall, well known here among mill men and late in the employ of the Gould roads as purchasing agent of ties and timber and lumber has decided to come to Cottage Grove and go into business on his own account.

In conversation with J. D. Buell, Wahams & Kerr's traveling salesman a few days ago, he stated that while he owned several brick buildings he would not give one building constructed from concrete blocks for a half dozen brick buildings, he having built a concrete building some time since. He agrees with Edison that this is the "concrete age."

Mrs. F. D. Wheeler was greatly surprised Monday by a number of her lady friends assembling at her home to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of both herself and Mrs. W. C. Conner, which falls on the same day, Feb. 17. A very pleasant social evening was spent and light refreshments were served after which the guests dispersed wishing the ladies many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Mesdames Hall, Eakin, Thompson, DuBruille, Isham, Compton, Phillips, Wheeler and Conner.

The Leader will receive in a short time a new dress of type for the paper which will give the Leader pages a bright, new appearance and will enable our readers to put aside their glasses. Three hundred pounds of type at 50 cents per pound is required to make this improvement.

Conductor Sam Veatch, who has again been promoted and now holds the position of chairman of the S. P. Grievance committee, with headquarters at San Francisco, stopped over in this city Saturday evening and made his aged parents a brief visit. He was on his way to Chicago and is kept on the road the greater part of his time.

The Leader has on exhibition on its table one of the first blocks of matches turned out of the new Cottage Grove match factory. The block is clean cut and is ready for dipping, and demonstrates that the timber hereabouts is excellent for this purpose. This factory will soon be turning out a gilt edged product.

Ralph Easley and wife of La Plata, Missouri, arrived in this city Saturday evening to visit with relatives and may locate here. Mr. Easley is a nephew of Mayor J. I. Jones and with his father and mother formerly resided at this place for a few years after which they returned to their old Missouri home, but never having been able to shake off their fascination for Oregon. Mr. Easley and wife stopped over a day at San Francisco and report that many great steel structures are being built in the burned district. They also took a car out to Golden Gate to view the old Pacific and inspect the new Cliff house which has been rebuilt from more attractive and modern architectural designs than before.

The Leader is in receipt of an interesting letter from Geo. O. McGilvray, formerly of this city, now of Canyonville, who owns a pretty home out on Wall street in this city which he would sell at about $1650. Mr. McGilvray says Canyonville will build a $4,500 school building this year and that a change is being made in the management of the Pacific States Telephone office out there, Calvin H. McGilvray being the new manager and the office is being installed in the building with the Postal Telegraph office of which G. O. McGilvray is manager. He also adds that Devore Bros. are opening a large new stock of groceries in that prosperous little prohibition town.

John Veatch was looking after business matters at the county seat Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krueger of Butte, Montana, arrived in this city Wednesday to enjoy a brief visit with Mrs. Krueger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lurch. Mr. Krueger is engaged in the mens' furnishing goods business at Butte. Miss Celia Lurch who has been visiting in Portland, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Krueger to her home in this city.

Fingal Hinds of the Hinds Real Estate Agency, accompanied by Messrs Foster brothers went to Portland Monday and closed up the sale of the Porter Bros. stock farm situated in Lake county. The sale price for the tract of 2040 acres is $20,400. The purchaser is Hi Adams recently from Nebraska. Over a thousand acres of this tract is situated in such a way that it can be irrigated when it becomes an immense hay field and will grow long forage for winter feeding. Mr. Adams is a thorough stockman and made his fortune east of the Rockies.

Last Saturday evening quite a number of Cottage Grove citizens went to Eugene to see "Parsifal," Wagner's great dramatic production and no one was disappointed. Such productions as Parsifal bring a spiritual uplift to any community illustrating as it does the power of good to overcome evil. The Cross and all it stands for, the incorruptibility of him who wears it, the meaning of Christ's sacrifice, these are the things that impress themselves upon one who listens to the majestic lines of Wagner's drama and as one listens imagination supplies the music, or at least a faint echo of it. Those in attendance from this place were Dr. Kime and wife, D. J. DuBruille and wife, W. C. Conner and wife, Mrs. Gross, Misses Aboie and Fannie Johnson, Zelma Maples, Dora Cutberth and Messrs Billie Periman, Earl Simeral, George Gouley, Foster Phillips, Jessie Lewis and others.

Military Ball.
