

Putting Up Prescriptions

of course is the most important part of our business and it is the most exacting—but it is a responsibility we do not shirk.

We do business on the policy that you cannot be too particular with medicine and our business of dispensing prescriptions continues to increase because we take the same care as if we were putting the medicine up for our own family's use.

Eastern Stars Visit to Eugene.

Saturday's Eugene Register had the following to say regarding the visit of the Cottage Grove O. E. S. members to Eugene:

Evangeline Chapter No. 51, O. E. S. had a jubilee last evening. They had as their honored guests the Grand Worthy Matron, Mrs. Bargelt and Grand Worthy Patron, F. S. Dunn.

But the most remarkable feature of the jubilee was the delegation, which came down from Cottage Grove on the flyer. The lady members of the Star at that place believe strictly in leap year and they came down with their husbands as willing subjects and made Evangeline chapter a most delightful visit. Among those who came were Mrs. May Thompson, worthy matron; Mrs. T. C. Wheeler and husband, who is worthy patron; Mrs. Oliver Veatch and husband; Mrs. E. Grace Brund; Mrs. W. W. Oglesby, Mrs. D. T. Awbrey and husband, Mrs. Joseph Porter and husband, Mrs. F. D. Wheeler, Mrs. J. H. Chambers, Mrs. F. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. Marion Veatch, Mrs. H. H. Veatch and husband, Mrs. Lydia Stouffer, Mrs. George Lea and husband, Mrs. Nancy Porter, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mrs. W. H. Abrams and husband and Worth Harvey.

Commercial Club Meeting.

The regular weekly business meeting of the Commercial Club was held at the club rooms Monday evening.

A communication was read from the Warren Construction Co. of Portland, to the effect that they would soon send a representative to this city to make an estimate of the cost of paving main street from the depot to the river bridge. The club appointed the following committee to meet and confer with this construction representative: Ben Lurch, H. O. Thompson and Marion Veatch.

The committee on the cannery proposition of Mr. Buster, reported adversely on the grounds that his plan was on a scale too large and expensive for the needs and requirements of this community. Local people are now figuring on installing a small cannery in this city.

Many members of the Commercial club visited the Coast Fork grange today for an interchange of views on matters of interest to both organizations.

Machinery Arrives.

The machinery for the new shingle mill which is being installed on Mosby Creek by Sam Lewis, arrived at this place Tuesday being consigned to the Wynne Hardware Co. through which company the plant was purchased by Mr. Lewis. The plant was hauled out to the mill site this week and will soon be ready for operations. Its capacity will be 30,000 shingles per day.

BOILER FOR STEAM LAUNDRY.

The Wynne Hardware Co. also received Tuesday, the 30-horse-power boiler for the new steam laundry in this city. As soon as the boiler is installed the plant will practically be ready for business.

Two big washing machines were also received for the laundry this week which are being installed along with the five horse power electric motor.

J. W. Doak of Lorane, had an interesting chase after a wild cat one night recently. His dogs started it near his pig pen and treed it in a crab apple tree. It being dark, Mr. Doak, fearing it might be his favorite house cat, returned home to make sure. Finding Tabby at home he returned to kill the wild cat but it was gone. His dogs took the track and treed it a mile distant in a large tree. Not being able to locate it Mr. Doak again returned home and the next day went out and put the cat up a big tree in which was a large bunch of mistletoe in which the cat hid. Again, he failed and finally gave it up after having it almost within his reach the first time it was treed.

Many subscribers are helping out the Leader materially by calling and getting their subscriptions within the new government requirements. These requirements are that subscribers to weekly papers cannot be in arrears more than one year. Those who call and arrange matters without waiting for statements are aiding the management materially in a task that is requiring much tedious labor and trouble. The paper hereby expresses its full appreciation.

Died.

SMITH—Infant child of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith in West Cottage Grove, March 4, 1908.

HAYS—At his home near the light plant Monday March 9, 1908, Wm. P. Hays, of rheumatism of the heart.

Mr. Hays had been suffering from rheumatism in the shoulders and arms for a few days which finally affected his heart. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow and five children, one child having been burned to death about a month ago. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday by Rev. Nickle in the Masonic cemetery. The bereaved family has the heartfelt sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

LEE—March 6, 1908, at Lee's sawmill, Herbert W. Lee, aged 45 years, 4 months and 2 days.
