ELECTIONS OF 1908.

- Primary Elections, April 17.
- Registration reopens, April 21.
- Closes for Election, May 15.
- General Election, June 1.
- Registration reopens, Sept. 20.
- Closes for Election, Oct. 20.
- Presidential Election, Nov. 3.

Keep an eye out for the Leader next week.

Indiscreetness was mistaken for boasted bravery.

It is whispered that Mr. Thompson was job-bed.

The best men should win at the primaries April 17.

There will be things doing in the Bohemia mines this season.

Taxes are now delinquent. Did you pay up and escape the penalty?

Subscribe for the LEADER, the representative newspaper of South Lane County.

One by one, the mills and logging camps of Lane county are resuming operations.

Registration of voters for the primaries closed Tuesday. Is your name written there?

The primary election next, but it will be tame as compared with the late city election.

With a few more "affidavits" and newspaper "extras" and it would have been unanimous.

Jim Porter emerges from the smoke of battle and the debris without a scratch. Lucky Jim!

Eleventh-hour newspaper extras never accomplish any good in a campaign except--for the other fellows.

There was elected Monday a bunch of good solid citizens with level heads to guide the destinies of the city for a year.

Henry is coming to Oregon to answer Senator Fulton. He wires that he will speak in Portland Saturday April 11th and in Salem Sunday following.

The season is at hand when we hear a great deal about the self-made man. Why is it we never hear anybody speak of a woman as being self-made?

Didn't the Leader remark that it don't pay to knock and attempt to tear down men like the Porter Brothers and Messrs Stewart, who are building brick blocks and otherwise advancing the city's interests. Now let us all get together and boost for Cottage Grove.

Speaking of George Comer's withdrawal from the race for county commissioner, the Register says: Mr. Comer is a prominent citizen of Cottage Grove and is a republican. His withdrawal is based upon good and logical grounds. His friends will keep in mind his general qualifications for office. This leaves H. M. Price the only candidate for commissioner, the democrats having no aspirant for the place.

Harry Bown, the genial democratic candidate for sheriff, was a Cottage Grove visitor last Saturday. From the fact that he has been connected with the sheriff's office as deputy for several years, he is well and favorably known throughout the county, and his knowledge of all the routine and other work of the office and his efficiency in the position of trust he has held under sheriff Fisk makes him a strong candidate for Mr. Fisk's successor.

With thirty-seven counties of Illinois placed in the "dry" column by Wednesday's election, 46 of the state's 102 counties are now totally "dry." Nine counties went "dry" last November. In addition there are 19 other counties which are now anti-saloon with the exception of one township in each. According to the latest returns 886 townships cast a vote against saloons and 304 in favor of retaining saloons. The total "dry" townships in the state including those which held elections last November, is now 1028 and the total wet townships is 323. The most reliable estimates place the number of saloons voted out of business at 1100.

The Springfield News, in its last issue had the following kind words for ex-Game Warden J. W. Baker, of Cottage Grove, who is a candidate for county judge on the Democratic ticket: J. W. Baker, formerly state game warden, has filed his petition for county judge on the democratic ticket. Mr. Baker is popular throughout the county and has many friends in both parties. He has no opposition on his ticket at the primaries and should receive the highest number of votes at the June election, he will make a good official as he is thoroughly competent to perform the duties of the office. The manner in which he conducted the affairs of the office of state game warden and the excellent work that he done in that capacity speak well for his worth.

WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS!

SHALL LANE COUNTY HAVE A REPUBLICAN SHERIFF

To the republican voters:— There is no reason why Lane county should not have a republican sheriff and if the republican party will stand together at the June election we will easily elect our man. On the 17th day of this month the republicans will nominate at the primaries the one they wish to run for this important office. As one of the aspirants for nomination I wish to impress upon you the necessity of selecting the man that will command the greatest number of votes at the June election. This is a matter of great importance to the republican party, and I urge you to exercise care in your selection as to who shall be nominated for sheriff.

The republican party is entitled to this office, and in order to be victorious it behooves us to select the very best man we can to make the campaign.

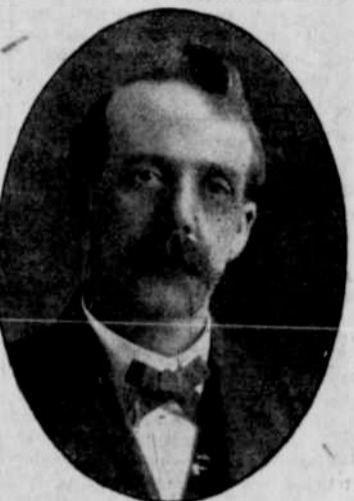

I firmly believe that I can command a larger number of votes for this office than any of the aspirants in the field. Having been closely identified with the business interests of Lane county for the past years, I naturally have a large number of friends and acquaintances that will work for my nomination and election.

I am perfectly capable of giving the office thorough business administration. As to my standing in this community, any bank or business firm in Eugene can give you the information if desired.

If nominated, I am sure of election. I would appreciate your earnest, active support at the primaries. We must elect a republican sheriff this year.

Very truly yours,
I. T. NICKLIN.

B. F. KEENEY.

Lane County's Assessor.

Friday afternoon of next week is the date of the nominating primary election and every voter in the county should have interest enough in the county's welfare to turn out and vote. In making selection of candidates there is none of more importance than that of county assessor. Ben F. Keeney, the present assessor, is seeking nomination for his second term. He is the first assessor Lane county ever elected that has shown a determination to see that the S. P. Co. and other large corporations doing business in the county pay their just share of the taxes. Can the taxpayers of the county afford to treat his election with indifference and take chances on a change of assessors? You must bear in mind that if Mr. Keeney were left to the influence the S. P. Co. could exert, he could never hope for re-election, therefore it is unsafe to let the matter go by default. Come out and vote.

County School Superintendent W. B. Dillard, was in this city visiting the schools Thursday and favored the Leader with a pleasant call. Mr. Dillard is just finishing his first term as school superintendent and has made a most excellent official. He is a very exemplary young man and seems to be generally held in the highest esteem. He is a candidate for re-election and will receive a heavy vote in this end of the county.

"Nobody's Magazine" is the title of a nicely illustrated publication published by the promotion department of the Eugene Commercial club, the first issue of which is just off the press and will certainly prove invaluable as a means of advertising Eugene and Lane county. It has a most attractive cover, is handsomely illustrated and the matter relating to Lane's resources is gotten up in a snappy yet conservative style.

A Toledo judge has decided that a wife is not bound either legally or morally to kiss her husband when his breath is tainted with liquor. Generally the husband is pretty anxious to keep her from doing so, if her smelling powers are in working order. Pass around the peppermints.

POLITICAL CARDS

Believing in giving all candidates for congressional, state, district and county offices a square deal, The Leader will publish in this column until the Primary Election in April the announcements of candidacy of all parties at reasonable advertising rates.
