Mr. J. A. Briggs had his mill running Monday sawing out some lumber. It reminds one summer is coming to hear the whistles blow.

Mr. Harding has lately purchased the Jim Lane place which joins his. This will make Mr. Harding one of the finest places in the "Hollow."

The surprise party given for Mr. Herman and Walter Rash, Saturday evening was enjoyed by our young people, there being thirty three present. Luncheon was served at twelve. About one, good nights were said and all departed to their several homes.

F. J. Hard completed a deal yesterday by which he has added to his frontage on Eleventh street 42 feet, making 116 feet now in all and extending back to the mill race. He bought it from Prof. H. C. Howe, to whom Prof. Straub sold it about 18 months since. It gives him a very much larger lawn and is a very valuable piece of property.—Eugene Register.
