COTTAGE GROVE, OR.

In Memory of Allen Johnson.

Dear Allen, how universally you was loved. Is it any wonder your sudden demise came as a thunder-bolt? From a bright sky above? Taken in the springtime of beauty. Just in the bloom of youth. With thy life so full of promise. How hard to realize this truth. The home is oh, so dreary. The very air seems stilled. A place is vacant in the home. Which never can be filled. But thy memory lingers with us: Thy gentle manners and pleasant. Thy loving acts and deeds of kindness. Blessed our home for Oh, such a little while.

Dear Allen, how we miss you. How this parting gives us pain. But in Heaven we hope to meet you. Where we ne'er shall part again. Fold him in thy arms dear Saviour. On that beautiful eternal shore. Keep our only boy—our treasure. And let him meet us when we cross o'er.

—MAY HART.

Petty Thievery.

One evening recently, Miss Celia Smith, who resides in the Blair home on Fourth street, washed a number of valuable lace and embroidery handkerchiefs and hung them on the line to dry in the back yard about seven o'clock in the evening. A few hours later she went out to get the handkerchiefs and was surprised to find all of the finest ones stolen. Certain parties were seen leaving the premises late in the evening and unless the handkerchiefs are returned to the premises at once, arrests will be made. The stolen handkerchiefs were principally gifts received by Miss Smith and were valued at about $15. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Portland and Return Only $5.30

The Southern Pacific Co. is now selling round trip tickets to Portland from Cottage Grove for $5.30 good going Saturday on No. 16 at 1.50 a. m. train, returning Monday evening on No. 13 leaving Portland at 7.30 p. m., giving all day Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Portland. The same arrangements apply from Portland giving Portland people a chance to visit valley points at greatly reduced rates.

Drain is now as modern as any of them—since we have an automobile, owned by Juno. P. Durfee. If you want to see him travel, you'll have to look about 100 yards ahead of the dust.—Non-Parail.

To the credit of all of the various candidates, voters and newspapers, little or no "mud-slinging" has been indulged in during this campaign. It has been a clean contest and therefore no disgrace to the losing candidates. They are all among our best citizens.

I. W. Gill of this city was one of the lucky contestants in the Portland Daily Telegram word contest, Mr. Gill receiving a $50 due bill on a town lot in Portland. He formed 693 words from the letters submitted by the Telegram, which placed him in the high winnings class.

F. D. Wheeler and H. O. Thompson visited Drain the early part of the week on business connected with the Drain water works in which they are interested. They report that indications point to the resumption of active building operations on the Drain-Coos Bay railroad.

Bud Roberts, formerly of this city, now of Grants Pass, spent several days in town the early part of the week, purchasing a carload of lumber with which to build a neat cottage on his lot at Grants Pass. He says lumber is much cheaper here than it is in Southern Oregon.

Superintendent Lee of the Roseburg Water and Light company was in Cottage Grove this week contracting with Campbell & Walker for cedar poles. Mr. Lee says material is being accumulated with which to raise the company's dam at Winchester in order to increase power facilities.

Rufus Cochran of Ione, Oregon, spent Monday in this city, visiting with his mother, Mrs. S. E. Cochran and brothers. He was transacting business in Portland and took advantage of an opportunity to take a spin up here to spend a day in Cottage Grove. He says the late rains were badly needed in his part of Oregon.

D. T. Awbrey returned home Tuesday morning from a few days visit to Portland. While there he took a trip out in the country south from Portland and says that he viewed numerous fine orchards principally English walnuts and cherries. He says that part of the valley around Amity will be a perfect fruit paradise in about five years.

The Modern Woodmen degree team uniforms arrived last Saturday and are simply elegant. They comprise beautiful plush, gold and silver laced gowns and latest style suits and they give the team a fine and imposing appearance which makes their initiatory work the more impressive. The outfit cost $175. The drill team and a number of members went to Creswell Wednesday evening and assisted in organizing a new camp with 25 charter members.

He Knew a Good Thing.....

THE story is told of a very enthusiastic "Star Brand" salesman traveling in Arkansas, who, with several acquaintances, recently enjoyed a very fine meal at the home of a lady friend. After the usual conversation at such gatherings had subsided, and the guests were departing, expressing their appreciation of the repast, this salesman was heard to say: "Miss E., that was a very fine meal. I enjoyed it immensely—but "Star Brand Shoes are Better."
