

Prescriptions.

This is the principal department of our store. So important that the reputation of our store depends on it—so does the reputation of your doctor. You can now see how important a department it is and why we pay so very particular attention to every detail of it. But with all the extra attention we give it our prices are moderate and fair and often far below prices charged for the same prescriptions in other cities.

T. J. Boyd, the printer, who is now publishing the Kelso, Washington, Journal, spent Sunday in Cottage Grove, a guest of old friends. He was looking for a feminine typo. (?)

The Leader notes that Geo. W. Lloyd, formerly prominent in Bohemia mining circles, is now associated with E. F. Yates and N. J. Churchill in the transaction of mining and civil engineering business at Rawhide, Nevada.

"Ironing day" always adds to the danger of roof fires, by an over heated stove necessary to get the iron hot, sparks are sent up that fall on the roof—then the fire bell—use electric "juice" and be happy. Cottage Grove Electric Co. 3-2t

John Nokes has taken the agency for the Harrington clothes washer, one of the simplest and best washers known, copper $5. It is not a "hot air" washer, but a compressed air washer. Mr. Nokes is also authorized to appoint agents. See him. -3t

School superintendent W. B. Dillard, spent several days in this city this week looking after the schools and his chances for re-election in June. He has little to worry about in the latter particular. He will be re-elected.

Wm. Turk has purchased two lots of W. B. Cooper in his new addition on South Fourth street. Jas. Sears has purchased three lots in the same addition and Frank Crabtree has purchased six lots. This tract is rapidly being bought up.

George Brown, has the carpenters at work building a nice modern story and a half cottage on his acre tract between the silk creek bridges on West Wall Street in the Gowdy addition. Mr. Brown is one of the "right hand men" in Woodards' saw mill at Latham.

G. W. Elliott, who recently lost his wife at Grants Pass and who is a son-in-law of J. V. Foster of Silk Creek, left Wednesday with his two children for Santa Paula, Southern California, to remain indefinitely. He has a sister and brother-in-law residing at that place.

John Hunzicker, the Eugene architect, was in town Tuesday conferring with the Burkholder, Woods Co., regarding plans and specifications for the enlarging and modernizing of their merchandise store and the brick drug store which they have purchased adjoining and which will also be occupied by this firm.

Last week witnessed the most successful sale of horses ever held in Portland. Breeders and buyers from Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, California, and British Columbia were there with a liberal sprinkling of Eastern owners. The average was $240 each one for every horse sold during the day of the sale.

G. J. Parley, Ex-Mayor of The Dalles, was a Cottage Grove visitor Wednesday and favored the Leader with a pleasant call. He is looking after the fishery interests of the state. A bill will be submitted to the voters in June having for its object the protection of the salmon fishing industry and it is hoped that the measure will win.

"Babe" Perkins, an old time Cottage Grove boy, who for a number of years past has resided at Haines, Baker county, is enjoying a visit with relatives and friends here. He is accompanied by his wife and family, his wife having many relatives and friends here, her father being Jas. Ozment. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins contemplate spending the summer in Southern Oregon.

Cottage Grove People Lucky

Cottage Grove girls are prettier and jollier, and the children more sprightly than in any other town in the West. Ever since "Popcorn Bill" came to town every body is getting fat, sassy and good looking. Try some of his crisp, buttered and salted popcorn. 3-2t

Joe Kennedy, for many years prominent in Bohemia mining circles orders the Leader sent to him at Ft. Jones, California.

Elder B. C. Tabor and wife of Cottage Grove, went to Goshen today to visit. From there they will return to their home. Mr. Tabor says that the mill interests are brightening in Cottage Grove. Logging operations also are starting.—Guard.

Every householder can create beautiful effects in his lawn. It matters not what the size of his grounds, he can still make them picturesque and attractive. The smaller they are the higher should be his art in making the most of what he has.

Springfield, Oregon, has a real freak, and if Teddy Roosevelt cries "nature fake" a dozen citizens of that place threaten to send him picture postals of their curiosity, says the Portland Journal. The freak which is bringing the little Oregon town into the limelight is a 2-months-old colt, which is being mothered by a cow.

Passenger Agent W. H. Jenkins came up from Portland Wednesday. He has been promoting the stopping of the fleet off Yaquina, and is getting ready for the excursion there. A train will go over and back the same day, which it is thought will be the 18th or 19th of May. The date will be definitely announced as soon as known.

H. V. Olson of Chicago, an experienced house painter, arrived in this city Monday and with his brother, J. T. Olson, who resides at Saguinaw, will engage in painting here, with headquarters at the mill of the Cottage Grove Manufacturing Co. The boys make a specialty of fine interior work and their prices are very reasonable. Give them a trial.

Bertha M. Clay's celebrated drama, "Dora Thorne" will be the attraction at the opera house, one night only, May 18th. This great love play is immortal and never fails to attract hundreds of the readers of the great novelist. It is, without a doubt, one of the foremost romances of the age, full of heart interest and pathos blended with a vein of the most delightful comedy, of scenes laid in England.

Wynne Bennett, formerly a resident of this city, son of W. S. Bennett, is now traveling salesman for the Dwight, Edwards Co., wholesale dealers in coffees, teas and spices of Portland. Mr. Bennett has been assigned the territory between Eugene and Redding with headquarters at Eugene. Wynne held the position of salesman in Lurch's store in this city for several years and his many friends are pleased to see him climbing up the ladder.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby passed the 71st mile-stone in life's journey Sunday and is still hale and hearty and well preserved physically, for a man who has weathered so many hardships incident to pioneer days and the settlement of Oregon's early Indian troubles. He also figured conspicuously in the opening of some of the state's best mining camps, including the Bohemia gold mines. The doctor received the congratulations of many friends on this occasion and from all appearances he is good for many more birthday anniversaries. He is still actively engaged in the practice of medicine and stands well up in the profession.

A "MAY EXCURSION"

One of the most brilliant and entertaining social functions ever held in this city was planned and carried to a successful conclusion, Tuesday evening by Mesdames D. J. DuBrulle, F. D. Wheeler and George Hall, to which the following unique invitation was issued:

"This Ticket entitles you to transportation around the world via Cottage Grove, Japan and Iceland. The Excursion will start from the home of

MR. AND MRS. J. M. ISHAM Tuesday evening, May 5, 1908, at 7:30 o'clock, the only stop in the United States being made at the home of

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE HALL, where Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia will greet you. Promptly at 9 o'clock the steamer will sail for Japan, where you will be welcomed by the Japanese ladies at the home of

MR. AND MRS. D. J. DUBRULLE There you will be joined by Lieut. Peary who will conduct you on the northern trip, stopping at the home of

MR. AND MRS. F. D. WHEELER where a social hour, will be spent and arrangements made for return trip."

The large number of guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isham and proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall where they were cordially received by Mr. Hall impersonating "Uncle Sam" and Miss Vera Herren as "Columbia." The house was beautifully and profusely decorated in the national colors, flags, bunting and patriotic colored Japanese lanterns being very much in evidence. Little Vivian Isham and Hildred Hall, representing Oregon and Oklahoma respectively, sang "America" and a parody on "Yankee Doodle." Mrs. N. E. Compton recited in a very entertaining manner and splendid light refreshments were served by Miss Columbia. Partners for the "trip to Japan" were chosen by matching cards of states with their respective capitals.

At the DuBrulle home the guests were very cordially received by pretty Japanese maidens, the impersonations being charmingly sustained by Miss Ida Frances Barrett, Mrs. Gene Brady and Miss Gail Hare. The house was transformed into a perfect Japanese bazaar, the decorations being profuse and most artistically arranged. Mrs. Brady favored the guests with a very pretty Japanese song and for an encore recited a German dialect sketch admirably. Miss Gail Hare presided at the piano and favored the guests with some splendid solos. Excellent light refreshments were served after the guests guessed on the number of kernels of rice in a bottle, the prizes being awarded to F. B. Phillips and Mrs. Goodman. Partners were then chosen for the trip to the far north.

The guests were led to the Wheeler home by F. D. Wheeler, impersonating the fur clad Peary. This home was a veritable art wonderland, decorations resembling snow, ice, frost, arctic mosses and the ice-land colors, yellow and green being in evidence on every hand, while prominent in the hallway was the much sought for "north pole" fairly bristling with "snow and ice."

Misses Mundy and Currin, gowned in white, seated at a table which encircled them, served ice cream and cake. Mr. Isham sang a solo, Mrs. A. Hemenway gave a very impressive reading and Mesdames Van Winkle and Brund rendered a beautiful duet, Mrs. W. C. Conner presiding at the piano. At the midnight hour the guests congratulated the hostesses upon the splendid success of the "Excursion" and departed for their respective homes. The "excursionists" were:

Mr. and Mrs. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Herren, Mr. and Mrs. Isham, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Thompson, Rev. and Mrs. Nickle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Eakin, Dr. and Mrs. Job, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lurch, Capt. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Medley, Dr. and Mrs. Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brund, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Veatch, Prof. and Mrs. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. DuBrulle, Rev. and Mrs. Nave, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins of Eugene, Mrs. E. K. Lake of Corvallis, Mrs. Lillian Goodman, Mrs. Jean Brady and the Misses Mundy, Herren, Barrett, Currin, and Hare.

The regular monthly session of county court convened Wednesday. There is the usual amount of bills and road matters to dispose of. Court will probably adjourn Saturday evening.

F. A. Monroe joined the Leader's large family of readers this week.
