Disinfect
AND YOU MAY DEFEAT DISEASE

Disinfecting is the ounce of prevention that is worth the pound of cure. The place that is carefully disinfected is always a safe place to live in and you have the added comfort of knowing that you are safe from any disease.

How to properly disinfect a place is quite as much a problem as how to cure a disease and disinfecting is much the least expensive.

Come to us when you want any materials or helps in disinfecting and we will not only supply you with the best in the line of disinfecting materials but also give you every aid and suggestion it is possible to give.

Have you ever used
Kersol

It is the strongest disinfectant you can get for out houses, barns, cess-pools, stables, public buildings and institutions.

Sues for Divorce.

The Oregonian, June 18, said: "Walter A. Shannon, the manager of the side show in a circus, is being sued in the Circuit court by his wife, Leona Shannon, who wants a divorce. She says that he has frequently struck her violently, choked and abused her. She does not state the amount of alimony she desires, but says her husband has $10,000 in cash, besides horses, mining stock and jewelry worth $25,000. His salary, she says, is $200 a month. She desires to resume her maiden name, Leona Perkins. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 10, 1907. Miss Perkins was a well known young lady of Drain.

Arm Broken.

Mrs. Garoutte, mother of Mark Garoutte and Mrs. Will Hart of this city, sustained a broken arm by falling from a small scaffold in her home on Row river Tuesday, on which she was standing while tacking lining cloth on the walls in her home preparatory to repairing it. She was brought to town and the fracture reduced by Dr. Kime and she is recovering rapidly from the injury.

Will Move in New Quarters.

Compton & Wallace, the well known general merchandise firm, expect to commence moving into their new quarters in the Stewart and Hinds brick on the corner of Main and Second street next Monday, and they will have quite a job on hand as they carry a large stock. Dr. Geo. E. Houck of Roseburg has finally received a patent on his military indoor rifle target or cabinet, which is now in general use in the armories throughout the country. The patent was contested by an Ohio man but Dr. Houck has won out. It gives the militiamen all the practice which the target range affords, indoors during bad weather. It is a very clever device and will make some money for Dr. Houck.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your head and eye ache with a pair of his superior glasses. They cost no more than others and you have the benefit of his skill and over 18 years experience. Consult him at Cottage Grove, Thursday and Friday July 2nd and 3rd.

The sole guest at Boswell Springs hotel when it burned, was a Junction City lady, regarding whose experience the Times says: "Mrs. Simmons had quite an experience during her recent visit to Boswell Springs. The hotel building took fire and burned to the ground. Mrs. Simmons had barely time to escape in her night clothes. She had her purse with her and on going out on an upper veranda, she leaped to the ground, and in so doing injured her spine quite severely. She made her way to neighbors and borrowed sufficient clothing to enable her to return home. The treatment there was improving her rheumatism but she has no desire to repeat her experience. The loss by the fire is estimated at $25,000."

Work is progressing on the three-story fruit drier building.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Patterson of Klamath county, made a short visit with Mrs. Patterson's brother, Dr. Van Winkle of this city the first of the week. They were on their way home from Philadelphia where Dr. Patterson has taken an entire year's Post work in his profession.

A representative of R. L. Polk and Co., publishers of the Lane county directory, is now in this city gathering the necessary data for Cottage Grove's department of the book. There is a proposition to come before the Commercial Club this evening in regard to a general descriptive advertisement in the book.

C. W. Wallace, wife and Miss Ursula Lockwood, Ernest Lockwood and wife and Miss Gertie Lockwood and W. P. Lockwood, the latter of Seattle, commercial agent for Wisconsin Central railroad spent several days late last week, fishing and enjoying an outing in the Lorane valley. Mr. Lockwood returned to Seattle Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Widdersheine has rented Dr. Schlee's hospital building where they expect to keep first class roomers. Dr. Katherine Schlee intends to go east this fall to take a year's post graduate work. Select and non-contagious cases can be accommodated in the building the same as before as Dr. Henry Schlee remains to look after the work as heretofore.

Harry Parker came in for supplies from the Parker brothers mines in Bohemia Monday, and reported their properties making a splendid showing. Tunnel work is being pushed on their properties and extensive development work is being done. On his return Wednesday, Mr. Parker was accompanied by his brother Tom, the baker, and now things will "hum" in the mine as long as Tom's wind holds out.

Hon. T. K. Campbell, of the railway commission was a Cottage Grove visitor this week, official business and property interests requiring his attention here. He was much gratified with the report of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the lumber rate case, practically restoring the old rate on lumber shipments to California and middle western points, as this decision was based upon the findings and recommendations of the Oregon Railway Commission of which Mr. Campbell is chairman. The Leader was favored with a pleasant call and Mr. Campbell stated that he was pleased to note the many substantial improvements being made in this, his old home town.
