

"We Volunteer"

This day, as we do every other day in the year, to give you bargains at such a sacrifice that you will thank yourself for calling here. We give to all the same "uniform" treatment; courteous and polite service, and such values as tempt you to talk about us and praise us to your friends. This is our chief system of advertising—to give high qualities for low prices, and thus get the public coming to our store "as a habit."

The First "Roasting Ears."

Mrs. W. A. Hartung marketed the first roasting ears for the season in this city Monday, but had been feasting on them at the family table since July 25. The ears are plump and well matured, being a sweet corn known as the "Early Mimesota," the seed having been brought to this city from that state by Mr. and Mrs. Hartung, who now have a beautiful home in west Cottage Grove. Mrs. Hartung was also the first in the market with "string beans." The Leader was remembered with some of the first roasting ears. Thanks!

Change in Mercantile Firm.

G. L. Rees and wife of Portland, will arrive in Cottage Grove this evening to reside, Mr. Rees having purchased Nate Compton's interest in the mercantile firm of Compton & Wallace, to take effect September 1st. Mr. Rees has also purchased the McGilvray residence property on Wall street and will at once greatly improve and beautify the residence and grounds. The Leader joins in extending Mr. and Mrs. Rees a cordial welcome to Cottage Grove.

More New Homes.

Work is progressing on the new cottage home of Mrs. Emerson in the Stauffer addition. Clarence Moss is also building a comfortable home on his elevated and sited lots in the Jones addition. Conductor Volney London has the material on the ground for a fine new home in the Harnes addition. D. C. Baughman will soon begin work on a fine new home on Fourth street—and there are more to follow.

A Model Barber Shop.

Van Allison has the carpenters at work this week enlarging and remodeling his barber shop in which he will install new fixtures including a 16 foot French mirror cabinet. The place will be repapered, repainted and otherwise improved and will be, when completed, a model barber shop.

Hop Pickers Notice

The Hays Hop yard near Creswell has been thoroughly cultivated this year and will be picked. The crop will be a large one, and will be fine picking. The ruling price for picking will be paid. R. O. BRADY.

London Mineral Springs News Letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Paine returned to their home in Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. E. Bailey and Mrs. R. Wait of Eugene who have been camping here for three weeks returned home Saturday.

Mr. C. B. Hadley and wife of Crow visited Mr. Hadley's mother, who is camped here, a few days last week, returning to their home Sunday.

Mr. Roy Dixon brought his family up from the Grove to camp last Friday. Mr. Dixon returned Sunday but his family will remain indefinitely.

Mr. Frank Kirk of Smithfield and wife, John Milliron and family of Junction City, arrived here Sunday evening to spend a month drinking the health giving mineral water of London.

Mrs. E. Tennis who has been running a boarding house in Cottage Grove has leased the hotel at London. She moved in last week and has since been busy putting the house and grounds in apple pie order. It is safe to predict a big seasons run for Mrs. Tennis as her ability to serve good things to eat is well known.

Capt. Sachs and wife of Eugene who have been rusticated here for the last three weeks turned their faces homeward Saturday. When he arrived here he could scarcely walk a half mile. The day before he left he walked to the Black Butte mines and back before noon and in the afternoon walked several miles more in quest of wild black berries.

A. M. Gilbert and family, A. W. Gilbert, wife and daughter, Mrs. Stryker of Eugene camped here last night. They went on to the river to Cougar Bend to hunt fish and pick berries for a few days but will return here and camp several weeks. It is quite probable the Messrs. Gilbert will bag several bears before they get back as they are noted hunters.

Another enjoyable Sunday at London is a pleasant memory. Saturday evening brought a number of people from the Grove and neighboring precincts who enjoyed the dancing and the excellent midnight supper. Several remained over night and spent Sunday along the shady banks of the Coast Fork. Those registered from the Grove are: Fred Churchill, Mr. Ashby, John Hartung, Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell, Mr. Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Fingal Hinds. There were several from Eugene among them Miss Kennedy, Miss L. Snyder.

Rev. H. N. Mount and two sons left for Cottage Grove Tuesday, where, in company with Dr. Nave and sons, they will take an outing on Row river. They expect to be gone two weeks.—Register.
