W. A. HEMENWAY

Half a Century Old.

A most pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. C. Caldwell at his home on Weber street Monday evening on the occasion of his 50th birthday anniversary. The surprise was complete and a most enjoyable social evening was the verdict of both the host and guests. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Widdersheim, Mr. and Mrs. Hogate, Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoxie, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hamblin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Caldwell, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Kenedy, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Kelsey, Mrs. England, Misses Gertrude Hogate, Ruth Kenedy, Mae Allen, Gladys Allen; Ivan Cunningham, Glen Hogate, Cecil Caldwell.

Big Poultry Show at Eugene.

Arrangements are being made for a big poultry show to be given in Eugene, December 21 to 24 inclusive. H. H. Collier of Tacoma has been secured as judge and a good show is expected, as Lane county can make the state sit up and take notice when it comes to first class poultry.

Richmond & Durham's electric theater is the place to enjoy an evening pleasantly. It's a good place to take your friends.

Lucky Boy Mine Sold.

At Eugene Saturday, the Lucky Boy mine was sold on execution to satisfy claims. The only bidders were Coru Sengstake and E. A. Lyman, and it was knocked off to them at their bid for $131,647.27. Just why this particular sum was bid was not known by the officers, but it was largely in excess of the judgments against it, and it is said the parties bidding represent the Title Guarantee & Trust Co., and that the amount bid was necessary from the stockholders standpoint. It is also said that this property is to be re-organized and put on a solid basis, taking in some additional property lying very near, but that nothing can be said about it at this time. There is no question about the values being in the ore. It is only a question of getting it out at a cost that will justify.

Chickens.

S. C. R. I. Reds. No better chicken raised for utility or fancy. I have a limited number of fine cockrels for sale. Get one before all are gone. $1 to $1.50.

Sickly Children

are liable to be in any home. You never know when they are going to be taken sick, either, but very frequently it happens in the night time, when the drug stores are closed. Hence the advisability of supplying the home with some of the always handy remedies—those most in demand for common ills. We keep none but the purest drugs and medicines, and charge in reason.

The usual examinations were conducted today and this evening a reception will be held. The sessions of the conference will probably close Monday morning.

Spray & Co. for feed and hay.

O. H. Willard presented the Leader office with a half dozen beautiful large pairs Monday of a variety unknown, but which Mr. Willard has named "Willard's Seedless." They were picked from a tree in his dooryard and are almost the shape of an apple, being practically round, or a little flat at each end. They are solid, finely grained and of excellent flavor, while there is practically no core or seeds to be found in this queer, but excellent variety of pear.

Spray & Co. for lime and cement.

Miss Grace Moore, one of Roseburg's most popular young ladies, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, was wed at Salem Sunday forenoon at the Methodist church to Mr. C. N. Bishop, of Oregon City, the regular pastor of the above church officiating. The bride's mother and sister, Miss Ly-lith, attended the marriage ceremonies, which were of a quiet nature, and the newly married couple left in the afternoon for Oregon City. Miss Moore will be remembered as the charming pianist who officiated at the piano at the recital given by her sister, Miss Ly-lith, at this place recently.
