

Last Day of Big Sale

Saturday, Oct. 3rd

Is the last day of our Big Sale.

All who have failed to take advantage of the cut prices which we have been offering should make haste and secure their wants before store closes Saturday night.

Special Sale Continues

We will continue selling at the cut rate all the hose, handkerchiefs, neckwear etc., on strings; also the shoes, underwear, Ladies' waists, dressing sacques, etc., that are in bins, until they are all sold.

We do not want to put these goods back on the shelves as the boxes they belong in are either destroyed or damaged.

Socialist Speaking.

E. J. Lewis, national organizer for the socialist party, will address the voters of Cottage Grove at the armory Wednesday, Oct. 7th at 8 p. m.

Come and bring your wife, an interesting time guaranteed. An opportunity will be given at the close of the talk for anyone who may wish to do so, to ask questions.

Socialists differ from the old parties in, that they always welcome questions. If you are stuck by some of the old party campaign talk, ask the socialist, he will tell you just what you want to know, and he will tell you the reason too.

Free Thomas, the well known Eugene architect, was looking after business matters in Cottage Grove Thursday.

Merchant G. L. Rees nearly severed the end of his thumb Thursday while operating his patent cheese knife at the store.

School Notes.

The High School, by a large majority, decided to edit a paper and also to enter the State Debating League.

The personnel of the editorial staff is indicative that the Superlative will be as superlatively superlative this year as it was last year.

The names of the pupils composing the staff are as follows: Miss Vernie Brown, Editor-in-Chief; Miss Eunice Vandenberg, Assistant Editor; Mr. Ernest Anderson, Business Manager; Mr. Roy Short, Assistant Manager; Mr. John Cooter, Exchange Editor; Mr. Joseph Arnold, Personal Editor; Miss Myrtle DeSpain, Social Editor; Miss Mable Rosenberg, Subscription Agt; Misses Anna Wood, Lottie Beals, Lauretta Atkinson, Blanche Veatch and Marguerite Johnson; Reporters.

Some twelve pupils have agreed to enter the "try out" debating contest which will take place as soon as plans can be arranged. The three pupils who lead in this contest will be members of the debating team of the State League. According to the rules, "a team is not allowed to enter the League unless the school has a literary society with regular meetings and debates."

Parents who have children that will be six years of age (school age) before the end of the present school year are permitted to send them at once provided they intend to send the children as soon as they reach school age. This concession is made to avoid the repetition of the same work by the teacher upon the entering of a new pupil in the primary rooms. They should enter not later than Oct. 5th, next enrollment.

ENROLLMENT.

FOLLOW THE FASHION

If you adhere to the fashion in suits, waists and cloaks, you must follow it closely in Corsets. Unless your Corset is stylish your other stylish cut garments will not fit.

Now what is required? First of all, tight-fitting waists and Princess gowns necessitate a perfected Corseted figure.

The Henderson Habit Back Corset is the one for the present styles. For sale at the Ideal Millinery Store. Come ladies and inspect them.
