Married

CHURCHILL-VEATCH—At the newly furnished home of the bride and groom in McFarland's addition west Cottage Grove, Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 13, 1908, Fred H. Churchill and Miss Lizzie Veatch, Rev. W. A. Elkins, of the Christian church officiating.

The wedding was a very quiet and unostentatious affair only a few intimate friends being present. The groom is a popular young man and one of the proprietors of the Commercial livery barn. The bride is a charming and affable young lady, a daughter of R. W. Veatch, now of Eugene.

The bride and groom played a good joke on the guests by inviting them to the wedding in the evening and then being quietly wedded at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. When the guests arrived in the evening they were introduced to "Mr. and Mrs. Churchill" and were ushered into the dining hall where they partook of a splendid wedding dinner, and all enjoyed the joke and the occasion immensely.

Both of the young people are well and favorably known here and their wide circle of friends joins the Leader in extending hearty congratulations and wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Several Cottage Grove citizens have been bilked lately by magazine solicitors, so-styled. One C. M. Murdoch raked in several dollars for the "Oregon Magazine of Roseburg". Another on the Pacific Monthly and another on the "Red Book," Salina, Kansas. Make the stranger canvasser show up his credentials.

Wheeler-Thompson Co's. Big Ad.

In today's Leader will be found a full page advertisement for the Wheeler-Thompson clothing firm, announcing their big fall sale. The writer has found out that it is cheaper to buy a $5 pair of shoes than to buy a $1.75 pair, and the same with clothing, but it is still better to buy a $5 pair of shoes at $3.75 and reliable, guaranteed clothing at the same proportionate reduction, and this is what you can do at Wheeler-Thompson's during their big sale. No shoddy clothing there which will look like a sack of burlap thrown over your shoulders after a month's wear, nor shoes with card-board soles, but all of the best, guaranteed brands of goods at wholesale prices, is what you get at this sale. Your money's worth in service and wear if you spend it at Wheeler-Thompson Co's.

A Bargain in a Home.

An acre and a half lot, partly set to fruit and berries, nice 7 roomed residence with two hall ways, bath room, hot and cold water, pantry, etc. Electric lights, telephone, city water and good well. Barn and chicken house on place. Located on Wall street. Call at this office for particulars.

Dr. Nave will preach at the Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath. The morning theme will be "Some Echoes from Synod of Oregon and Presbytery of Willamette." At night the sermon will be evangelistic in nature. Music appropriate to such a service will be rendered. You will be made welcome.

Additional Local News.

The Grove Studio has engaged for a short time the most skillful operator ever in the town. Come in before he leaves and get a really first class portrait.

Here is a true story on Leroy Woods which we cannot withhold any longer. Upon his first visit to a nearby logging camp soon after coming to Cottage Grove, "Roy" saw a big man and a little man using a cross-cut saw. He watched them for a while and then he went up to the big man and punched him on the nose and said, "Now will you give that saw to the little one?"

Portland's second annual horse show proved a brilliant success on opening day. The doors of the Oriental building at the Lewis and Clark fair grounds were thrown open Tuesday afternoon to the first matinee of the show and last night's gathering was splendid in the showing of fine horses and no less brilliant in its display of fashion, for society was out in force. The success of the show is assured by the smart attendance. Beautiful women, handsomely gowned, were seen everywhere around the big show ring last night. Splendid horses that appeal to the lovers of beautiful steeds in Portland, aroused a spirit of enthusiasm that spells success for the remaining performances.

Scholl has 100 gold filled and gold watches for you to select from and at the lowest possible price.

The "Montana Limited" theatrical company played to a fair sized audience Wednesday evening. The scenery was quite realistic, especially the train robbery scene wherein a locomotive and long train of cars crossed the rear of the stage. It was a typical wild and woolly west play with plenty of blood and thunder, the kind which is rapidly passing into oblivion and being supplanted with the higher class society and comedy drama. The cast, however, was ably sustained.
