A Fine Chicken Sale.

On Wednesday E. E. Bright, a local poultry fancier and breeder of prize winning Houdans and Silver Gray Dorkings, shipped a coop of a dozen and a half of Houdan pullets and one Houdan cockrel to a Hood river man, receiving therefor a check for $50, or $2.50 each for the pullets and $5 for the cockrel. This is the kind of poultry it pays to raise, however, much care and practical experience is required to succeed so well in the business. Some time ago Mr. Bright received $35 for a pen of five Silver Gray Dorkings and he has made scores of smaller sales at the above prices. He has a fine exhibit of poultry from his pens in the late state fair show and brought home $13.50 in cash prizes as well as several specials. Until recently, Mr. Bright has been averaging shipping a crate of eggs per week to Portland. He is a success and so is his chickens.

A Popular Entertainer Coming.

Gertrude Johnson O'Fling, a dramatic reader of rare ability, will give one of her popular literary entertainments at the Christian church Wednesday evening Oct. 28th. She comes very highly recommended by oratory critics. Prices will be announced later. Miss O'Fling possesses quite remarkable dramatic power, which she has developed by systematic and thorough work as a student. She never fails to please an audience. Admission 15 and 25 cts.

Change in Dray Company.

On Wednesday W. T. Kayser purchased the interest of C. B. Hayes in the Cottage Grove Transfer Company. Frank Garoutte retaining his half interest and the new firm will be styled Kayser & Garoutte. Mr. Kayser is well and favorably known in this city, having resided here for many years. He has had experience in the mercantile business and has succeeded at farming, therefore is a good business man. Mr. Hayes was popular with his patrons and he and Mr. Garoutte have enjoyed a good business. Mr. Hayes has not announced his future business intentions.

The Leader bespeaks a liberal patronage for the new company and wishes it success.

Noted Temperance Worker Coming.

James R. Knodell, assistant superintendent Oregon Anti-Saloon League, will deliver an address at the Christian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock which every one is cordially invited.

One of the following subjects will be discussed by him: "Licensed Saloons or Blind Pigs? Not which but Neither." "The Transformation Complete." "Hunting for a Man."

The Grove Studio has engaged for a short time the most skillful operator ever in the town. Come in before he leaves and get a really first class photo.

Reduction on Ladies Hats.

Saturday the 24th and Wednesday the 28th I will give a reduction from 50 cents to $1.00 on all pattern hats now in stock.

Socialist Speaker Coming.

E. J. Lewis, national organizer for the Socialist party who spoke to the people of Cottage Grove some two weeks ago, will again address the voters of Cottage Grove Tuesday night, Oct. 27th at the Masonic hall at 8 p. m. Come and bring your question book with you. Mr. Lewis is not the kind that refuses to answer questions, either of so-called "agitators" or of any one else.

Married.

GAWLEY-MORSS—At the home of the bride's grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Wallace in Cottage Grove, Tuesday evening October 20, 1908, Mr. Robert L. Gawley and Miss Jennette Morss, Rev. C. H. Wallace officiating.

The pretty ceremony was witnessed only by relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties, following which a splendid wedding repast was served. The happy couple were the recipients of several handsome and useful wedding gifts. The groom is one of the enterprising members of the Disston Lumber Co., which is operating a well equipped saw mill and logging camp at Disston, the present terminus of the Cottage Grove, Bohemia railroad, known as the O. & S. E. railroad. The bride is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Morss of this city, both of her parents being members of highly esteemed pioneer families of this, Lane county. She is a very estimable and charming young lady, who has a host of admiring friends in this community, all of whom join the Leader in wishing the happy couple a long, congenial and prosperous wedded life.

Members of Co. E. are bestirring themselves in their efforts to get one of the military brass bands which will be organized in the state this winter. It requires 27 members. We have the material,

THE BIRDS AT CHURCH.

One Sabbath morn in fragrant May
I heard a whistle rich and long
I spied a golden robin gay
Filling the grove with song.

Oh, how inspiring the wondrous hymn
That rose from his bubbling throat,
While all the feathered choir joined in
To swell the praiseful note!

But where is robin, my robin true,
Who struck the musical lyre?
Don't tell any one and I'll tell you—
He sings in our church choir.

The soprano wears his golden breast,
The alto his wings of fire,
The other girls are sporting the rest,
He belongs to our stylish choir.

Roam not in orchard nor list by rill,
Don't linger in shady wood,
You will not hear the wild birds' trill,
For they have left for good.

But if you would see the birds you adore,
Go down where good women pray,
And you will find the birds once more
On their hats so stylish and gay.
