NEW GROCERY STORE OPENED

M. F. Deslarges and sons, late of Oregon City, have leased the Venke building on Main street and on Saturday morning of this week will open up a nice new stock of groceries. They have located in this city permanently and having had considerable experience in the mercantile business are sure to succeed. The firm will be known as Deslarges Bros. grocers, however, the elder son will not arrive here until spring, the store to be conducted by the father and younger son until that time. The Leader bespeaks a liberal share of public patronage for the new firm and wishes it success.

ECKHARDT'S IDEALS TWO NIGHTS STAND

It is gratifying to know that Eckhardt's Ideals, a theatrical company, which is so well known and so well liked and which is a favorite with every child as well as the older people of Cottage Grove, will appear here for two nights commencing next Friday night November 6.

This company does not need any introduction to us but we do want to turn out and greet them with a full house Friday night.

It is so seldom that we get a good company and when we do we should show them that they are welcome by giving them a big house.

The opening bill will be that funny comedy "The Village Schoolmaster." This comedy will give the entire cast an opportunity to show what good work they can do and will give the ladies a chance to wear some of their handsome gowns. There will be no dull waits as there are up to date vaudeville sketches between acts.

Prices are reasonable. General admission 35 cents, reserved seats 50 cents, children 25 cents. Seats on sale at New Era drug store.

The Grove Studio has engaged for a short time the most skillful operator ever in the town. Come in before he leaves and get a really first class photo.

Z. T. and Roy Foster who returned to Wisconsin and North Dakota, respectively, about a year ago, returned to this place to reside permanently this week. They say that as indications became apparent that northern winter was upon them they began thinking about the beautiful, warm sunny days we were still enjoying in Oregon so they simply packed up their household goods and headed for Oregon never to leave old Webfoot again, where, a little rain now and then is greatly preferable to the blizzards and long zero winter's of the middle northern states.

especially in time of sickness—is one which puzzles many. But the average doctor in town is never in doubt as to where to send one for a prescription. The medicine is wanted right, pure, prompt and as economical as possible. Consequently he has to send here for it. You are sure of quick and polite service, the purest and freshest of drugs, and a most conscientious charge for same.
