

A Wide-Awake Woman

looks after the sanitation of her home for the sake of her husband, her children, herself. Careful and scientific plumbing counts for much, and costs not much more than the old, indifferent, slapdash style of work. Only one word more: We are modern, sanitary plumbers.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

When a woman says, "And that's all there is about it," let no man be deceived in thinking that an end has been made to much talking.

Each mother thinks she has the dearest baby in the world, and, as a matter of fact, none is cheap.

The fires of resentment are only too apt to be the precursors of the ashes of repentance.

Some people give you a good handshake, and others forget to add the hand.

It is generally best to keep on good terms with yourself, even if you have to fall out with people you don't like to do it.

The girl who spends her time making angel cake and potato salad instead of castles in Spain will do better execution in after years.

It is hard to catch the drift of some people, and when you are successful it is so heavy and waterlogged that it is of no much account.

There are people who are too pleasant and too courteous to be really good.

The prevalence of "easy terms" bargains proves the plenteous of easy marks going up and down the land.

Easy Road.
A fellow has to work like sin
And never stop for play
To get a hero medal in
The regulation way.
So round the pawnpaw door I'll wait
And get one at a bargain rate.

Living in Hopes.
"I notice that Susie is going with the big, blond German."
"Yes; they seem to be very fond of each other."
"Are they engaged?"
"She doesn't know, but she hopes they are. You see, she cannot understand him very well, but so as not to take chances she answers 'Yes' to every question he asks."

By Her Disappointed Rivals.

"WE WERE ENGAGED FOR A WHOLE WEEK"

"Has her engagement been announced?"
"Yes, and that isn't all."
"What more?"
"It has also been denounced."

Have Highly Trained Officers In Readiness For War.

By Secretary of War LUKE E. WRIGHT.

OUR nation has expanded, and we have assumed new duties. There is no law that can make an English speaking people stand still. There is something in the blood that makes them get in the game. We're forced to come in contact for commercial reasons, if for no other, with other peoples. WE MUST IN SOME DEGREE PREPARE FOR WAR, WHICH, IF NOT PROBABLE, IS POSSIBLE.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE CONSTITUTIONALLY OPPOSED TO A LARGE STANDING ARMY, BUT WE SHOULD HAVE A LARGE NUMBER OF HIGHLY TRAINED OFFICERS WHO ARE CAPABLE OF MOLDING AN ARMY AND WHO CAN DO IT PROPERLY.

We have great natural strength. It is impossible to overestimate our strength, but we should have officers trained to organize and handle it.

Should we become involved in war with a first class power it might not be considerate enough to give us time to train and prepare a large army. The next best thing is to train and prepare a large body of officers.

UNLESS WE ARE PREPARED FOR WAR WE MIGHT SUFFER FRIGHTFULLY IN BLOOD AND TREASURE AT THE BEGINNING, BUT WE WOULD WIN IN THE END.

There is no cloud on the horizon, but it is the unexpected that often happens.

Same Thing.
"It was a case of spontaneous combustion."
"I notice you are keeping company with Miss Richdad."
"I have met the lady."
"Fine family."
"Yes; they are rather nice people."
"Regular bluestockings, aren't they?"
"Really, I couldn't say," said the young man, blushing deeply.

No Favorites.
"Most international marriages are unhappy."
"Why specify international?" asked the crabbed old bachelor.

Worth Remembering.

Housekeepers should bear in mind that when asked by canvassers or grocers to purchase a phosphate baking powder, that, if they value their health they will refuse such powder. Phosphate baking powder is made from burning bones, gathered at slaughter houses, whether from diseased animals or not. It is then mixed with a solution of oil of vitrol.

Such baking powder usually contains more or less alum and sells for 25 cents per pound.

Be on the safe side and protect your health by demanding the Pure Cream of Tartar kind, which is made from the purest of grapes.
