

A Wide-Awake Woman

looks after the sanitation of her home for the sake of her husband, her children, herself. Careful and scientific plumbing counts for much, and costs not much more than the old, indifferent, slapdash style of work. Only one word more: We are modern, sanitary plumbers.

The Modus Operandi.
A girl.
A swirl
Of smiles and eyes;
A swain;
It's plain
Her love he'd prize.
A laugh;
Her hair
Beset of sense,
They drift;
She's miffed
And says he's dense.
A guile.
Pat smile.
He's in the snare.
A sigh,
Reply—
She lands him fair.

Heart to Heart Talks.

FIRST TRIP TO THE CITY.

That was a long time ago. Down at Libertyville the sun sometimes seemed to stand still. The community gait was easy going. Everybody worked; nobody hustled. Everybody knew everybody. Grown men went barefoot on occasion. Libertyville was slow.

When you got off the cars in the big city the atmosphere of Libertyville was yet about you. My, how people raced! Surely they were going to a fire. Would the procession never pass by? They do not sprint that way down at Libertyville.

Then how knowing you got. You would hide your verandah. Meantime, poor boy, every motion, your garments, your gait, gave you away. Even your speech betrayed you. Before you took two steps you were spotted as country bred.

You couldn't keep the wonder out of your eyes; you couldn't even keep your mouth closed. It was not Sunday, yet everybody was dressed up! Your feet had known nothing but country roads. Here everywhere you went the pavements covered the whole roadway.

You "rubbed" at the tall buildings. Here was a new sky line. Down at Libertyville Jones & Co.'s "trade emporium"—the pride of the town—was only two stories, with the "opera house" upstairs. Here were great plate glass windows, big as the front of St. M's barn. And street cars!

Oh, it was all gloriously new! Why, here's the place where father's Tribune is printed. There's a truck load of soda boxes same as in mother's pantry—which makes you a mite homesick.

Not a soul knows you. And the boys of your age—here are some of them, just out of knee breeches, trading on the curb near the board of trade and talking an unknown jargon. What a gulf between these smart chaps and you!

And the swinging bridges and the lake craft and all the marvels that made Libertyville a speck! That was long ago.

Now the city ways sit easily upon you. At Libertyville you would have followed a brass band for half a day. Here you do not even go to the window when the military band crashes by.

Brick walls and stone pavements and elevators and a stuffy office and a desk piled high—seldom is it quite cleared up—are you really of the same soul stuff as that ill-fused, lonesome, tow headed lad?

And yet— How your tired spirit goes back to the dear days of Libertyville, where the folks were all "so happy and so poor!"

With Confidence In Your Own Ability You Will Win Out.

By the Rev. MADISON C. PETERS of New York.

YOU will never be great unless you expect great things. If you lie down and murmur at fate, whining that the world is against you and that there is no use trying, you never will rise—simply pass down and out as a human cipher without value to yourself or anybody else.

There are people who keep themselves at the bottom of the hill of life when they might easily ascend to the top because they DEPRECATE THEIR OWN QUALITIES and foolishly imagine that no higher place was destined for them.

If the eagle were to flounder on the ground like a mud turtle, despite the strength of his wings he could never soar into the heavens and reign the king of birds.

YOU MUST ASSERT YOURSELF AND CALL TO YOUR ASSISTANCE A CONFIDENCE THAT WILL ENABLE YOU TO DARE AND DO. YOU MUST HAVE SELF FAITH AND LET NO OBSTACLES SHAKE OR WEAKEN IT. NEVER LET THE NOTION GET INTO YOUR HEAD THAT THE BEST WAS NOT INTENDED FOR YOU.

Superiority is a thing every man should claim as his birthright. It was SELF FAITH AND SELF RELIANCE that brought the world's great men to the front and caused them to do noble work for themselves and humanity. Those who now occupy high niches in the temple of fame would have never been heard of had they been content to take things as they came and made no effort to arouse themselves to action.

YOU NEVER WILL KNOW OF WHAT YOU ARE CAPABLE IF YOU DON'T TRY.

Many a man allows the fields of his genius to lie fallow, choked with weeds, when he might have tilled them to a high state of cultivation. Because men do not think enough of themselves, do not EXERT their forces, splendid ability can only accomplish the work of mediocrity and often sinks itself altogether.

Didn't Want to Aggravate It.
"You look as shabby as a worn-out dray horse."
"I'm just about sick abed."
"Why don't you see a doctor?"
"I feel bad enough as it is. He would charge me money and just make me feel that much worse."

Good Enough.
"How is your mine coming?"
"Very fine."
"Struck pay dirt yet?"
"Only in the stock buying suckers."

That Was Different.
"Why do you look so happy?"
"I'm expecting my mother-in-law—"
"That's strange."
"—to go home."

Worth Remembering.

Housekeepers should bear in mind that when asked by canvassers or grocers to purchase a phosphate baking powder, that, if they value their health they will refuse such powder. Phosphate baking powder is made from burning bones, gathered at slaughter houses, whether from diseased animals or not. It is then mixed with a solution of oil of vitrol.

Such baking powder usually contains more or less alum and sells for 25 cents per pound. Be on the safe side and protect your health by demanding the Pure Cream of Tartar kind, which is made from the purest of grapes.

Read the label and don't be deceived. 31-1 mo

I became discouraged as none of the remedies I used gave me relief. I at last happened to learn of Doan's Kidney pills and decided to try them. I procured a box at Benson's Pharmacy, took them carefully and before I had finished the contents, I could see that they were helping me. I continued until the disease had completely left me. I am today without a sign of kidney disease and am very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills."
