MACCABEES MEET AND ELECT NEW OFFICERS

An interesting meeting was held in the Maccabee hall in this city Thursday evening, in honor of a visit from the state commander of this order, J. W. Sherwood, of Portland. New officers were elected and a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed by the membership and their guest.

Officers were elected as follows: D. A. Smith, Commander; H. H. Gregory, Lieut. Commander; G. L. Rees, Record Keeper; John Nokes, Chaplain; Chas. McKibben, Sargt.

The Maccabees have commenced a campaign for new members and are planning a big smoker and initiation early in January, at which time State Commander Sherwood will again visit this tent.

Indestructible Cylinder Records.

At the Bazaar will be found the COMPLETE CATALOGUE of the latest Cylinder graphophone records, the new Columbia indestructible record. It has a sweet tone, yet is loud and distinct and will last a lifetime. It sells at only 35 cents per record, the same as the old style Edison or Columbia record. The Bazaar also has a new stock of double disc records with a song or instrumental selection on each side of the record, at only 5 cents more than the old records.

See those fine new Columbia and Victor graphophones at the Bazaar.

Creswell to Have Water Works.

Creswell is not an incorporated town and hence is under the jurisdiction of the county court. This body granted R. H. Parsons a franchise Tuesday to use the streets and alleys of that place for laying of water mains, putting in a water system for domestic use and fire protection. The application did not state how he would get the water, whether by a gravity pipe line or by a pumping station.
