

Cock-A-Doodle-Do.

We're justified in crowing over our competitors. Our cocks, stop cocks, etc., are cock of the pipe. Our joints don't leak. Sewer gas we lead out. We don't find it in the house except when we fix some other fellow's plumbing. Ever have your house tested for sewer gas and leaks? That's one thing we do. Then we fix things. It's worth the cost.

EUGENE POULTRY SHOW

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE) he knew the town contained a goodly number of fanciers, he did not think the job of placing the awards would require more than an hour's time and he would just accept, run up and between trains do this work, see the sights and be back home within three or four hours. Imagine his surprise when on entering the poultry pavilion he was confronted with an array of something over two hundred birds consisting of some twenty-five varieties with a whole lot of mighty good quality showing up all over the room! Well, the would-be judge(?) donned the linen and went at it and what is more, he remained "at it" for almost a full day, and it was no doubt an interesting sight for the on-looker to observe his awkward attempt at looking wise while examining the merits and demerits of the Buckeyes, Faverolles, etc. However, he finally (we don't say "finely") got through the work and took the first train for home, while the exhibitors were at supper, and therefore doesn't know what they may think of his effort, but let that be as it may, he, the aforementioned judge(?) is here to say there isn't a finer lot of enthusiastic, whole souled fanciers to be found anywhere than those of Cottage Grove, and when it comes to competition in the show room it will be found that most of them can "deliver the goods." Barring the exception of M. M. Lower of the adjoining town of Creswell, the entire poultry exhibit was made up by fanciers of Cottage Grove and immediate vicinity. Of the many good specimens of the several varieties shown there might be mentioned the following: The first prize Barred Rock cockerel, the winning Buff Cochins, Black Langshans, Silver Gray Dorkings, Buff Orpingtons, S. S. Hamburgs, Houdans, Black and White Minorcas, S. C. White Leghorns—the first prize cock and several of the females of this class were beauties and fit for any company. The Faverolles shown were quite a novelty and represented some good quality. All in all the show was good one and we want to see more of a like kind.

Americans Are Born Music Lovers, but Lack Genius.

By OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN, Impresario.

IN establishing my new ideal, of which Mary Garden is the symbol, I THINK I AM DOING MORE FOR MY COUNTRY THAN ROCKEFELLER, CARNEGIE OR ANY OTHER PHILANTHROPIST OF THE DAY.

Americans are like their representative singer, Mary Garden. THEY ARE BORN MUSIC LOVERS. They can't help it. They love it instinctively, BUT THEY DON'T KNOW JUST WHERE THEY STAND AS YET.

THERE ARE TOO MANY GLORIOUS VOICES IN AMERICA, TOO MUCH MATERIAL, MILLIONS OF SINGERS, BUT THERE IS NO ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THEM AND NO OUTLOOK. IT IS SMALL WONDER THEY SAY TO THEMSELVES. "OH, WHAT'S THE USE?" I SAY AGAIN, THERE IS AN APPALLING AMOUNT OF MATERIAL, BUT NO GENIUS, AND THAT ACCOUNTS FOR THE PRESENT GLUT OF VOICES IN THE MUSIC MARKET HERE. IT ALSO EXPLAINS WHY I GO ABROAD FOR MY ARTISTS.

A voice must have individuality, personality, temperament and beauty. Beauty is the fourth dimension of a singer's career. That is something the classicists of traditional opera overlooked, AND IT IS A NECESSITY NOWADAYS.

But I have an eye for native as well as foreign talent. Many AMERICAN SINGERS who come to me ARE DIVINELY LOVELY, and in the "new thought" this is a greater thing in their favor; BUT, ALAS, THEY ARE AS INDEPENDENT AS THEY ARE PRETTY. That is the tragic part of it. They come to me in droves, and I look them over and put them each through a little operatic Bertillon system of my own.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

Copyright, 1908, by Edwin A. Nye.

WALKING AS AN EXERCISE.
This heart to heart talk will be about the benefit of walking as an exercise and why.

You know physicians recommend this as the best all around exercise known to them.

Why?
Let's put the matter in plain speech and print out the main words in capital letters:

In the first place, when you walk you RAISE THE TEMPERATURE OF YOUR BODY. It is like putting a lot of coal in the stove and opening the draft. There's something doing. Waste is being carried off and your muscles and nerves get needed nutriment when the temperature is raised.

Besides, you BREATHE MORE DEEPLY when you walk. And that puts more oxygen in your blood, and oxygen is LIFE.

And there's the skin. Millions of pores—little sewers—are opened up. Perspiration carries off waste, waste which if it stayed in your blood would poison you.

And your DIGESTION—walking aids that process and puts an edge on your appetite. And good digestion waits on appetite.

But that is not all.

There's your diaphragm. That useful thing is a sort of movable stage platform between the chest and the abdomen. It is raised or lowered by the contraction or swelling of the lungs.

When the lungs are filled the diaphragm goes down and presses upon the liver, stomach and spleen.

Now—
This movement of the diaphragm up and down, especially down, is like a massage on the liver, stomach and spleen. The massage helps to keep those organs in good order, especially the liver. He who walks regularly and systematically will have no liver troubles.

Nothing is here said about the MENTAL BENEFITS—the exhilaration that comes from being in the open, the joy that comes in knowing that your whole organism is in good working order—and the reaction of the mind on the body.

Do you see? Especially that about the diaphragm?

It pays to walk, purely as a beneficial exercise. It says nothing of the enjoyment. It pays big.

He who constructed your body did not intend you to ride. He gave you two legs.

If you suffer from disorder of the kidneys or bladder and desire to be cured, write her about Doan's Kidney pills and learn that the following statement is true in every particular.

Mrs. Alice Coffman, Cottage Grove, Ore., says: "I was in a miserable condition as a result of kidney disease, my back ached constantly and I felt tired and languid. I became discouraged as none of the remedies I used gave me relief. I at last happened to learn of Doan's Kidney pills and decided to try them. I procured a box at Benson's Pharmacy, took them carefully and before I had finished the contents, I could see that they were helping me. I continued until the disease had completely left me. I am today without a sign of kidney disease and am very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills."

SEASONED CHARMER.

Here's to the maiden of thirty,
Skilled in her arts as a queen,
Friendly and smiling and flirt,
Charming as one of sixteen!
Age has not wrought her disaster.
For she has but belittled her charms.
Now of herself she is master.
More man no longer alarms.

Seasoned and strengthened and chastened,
Learned in her part she must act,
Knowing that man can be hastened,
But by a diplomat's tact
She with a twist of her finger
If in his range she can get,
So that he pauses to linger,
Gathers man into her net.

Gone are her heroes romantic,
Visions of heroes to fall
Down at her feet and grow frantic.
For she has but belittled her charms.
But as he fastens the halter
Man doesn't halt or decline
On at her beckoning fairer,
Seeing no plot or design.

Feeling the time is approaching
When she must wed, if at all,
Without instructions or coaching
She with his heart can play ball.
As her charms are redoubled,
What is the chance of the lad
When at her tears he is troubled?
Think of the practice she's had!

Baffles Medicine.

"DON'T YOU FEEL ANY BETTER?"

"She works so hard."

"She has to. Her husband is suffering from an incurable disease."

"Poor man! What is his trouble?"

"Chronic laziness."

"Not a Specialist."

"I'm looking for a situation. Can you put me next to one?"

"What can you do?"

"Anything but work."
