TWO HEROES OF THE REPUBLIC DISASTER—CAPTAIN SEALBY AND JACK BINNS, WIRELESS OPERATOR, OF ILL FATED SHIP.

Deeds of heroism so rare as to touch the heart stand out in the reports of the collision between the White Star liner Republic and the Italian immigrant ship Florida. Chief among these is the conduct of Captain Sealby of the Republic and Jack Binns, the ship's wireless operator. When the Florida crashed into the Republic amidships the engine room was quickly flooded, and the electric lights went out. The vessel was in darkness. Binns promptly flashed a message signal "C Q D," which brought prompt wireless replies from several other vessels. The operator stuck to his post until the wireless apparatus would work no longer. Captain Sealby remained aboard his ship until the sea under his feet, then, firing two shots from his pistol as a final signal, climbed the foremast and leaped into the sea.

BEARING BURDENS.

The other day in Chicago a business man committed suicide, leaving a note behind him saying:
"I am tired of carrying burdens."
What a mistake!
All of us must carry burdens. We are built that way. Some of us are weary and heavy laden. Tasks that are onerous bend the back and grave the wrinkles and whiten the hair.
If they are the common burdens of life, of business, of family, of citizenship, of labor for bread—Happy we!
Did you ever watch a woman of the orient bear a heavy jar of water balanced on her head?

How well poised she is! With chin high in air and unshaking feet she moves easily and rapidly on her way.
What grace and strength! How does she do it?
It is the load! Gravity does not blunder; it helps the woman.
When you carry your load you are careful of your footing. You hold up your head as becomes a burden bearer. Your eyes are in front, where they should be. You are too busy to look backward.

Fancy what you would be without burdens—personal responsibility and labor! What fantastic tricks your feet might play! What dangerous side paths might allure you!
No, no; burdens do not kill.
Worry about the burdens may kill.
The Chicago man was mistaken.
Shakespeare says care killed a cat. It will kill a man.
Yes; sometimes the harness galls us and the task irks us. We need to discover the joy of working.

Greater than the common hire of wages, more than the jingling of the metal we call money, is the satisfaction we ought to find in work well done, a burden well carried—the expression of the best that is in us, in our work. That is the real reward.

It is our common mistake to complain of burdens.
They are the making of us.
Without them manhood and womanhood cannot be.

As the jar on the head of the woman brings to her both pain and purpose, so our burdens bring to us the balance of character, the fiber of courage.

It is as easy to believe good things about yourself as it is to believe bad things about others.

WOMEN'S WOES

Cottage Grove Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up" must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torment. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a cure for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. E. T. Hall, Cottage Grove, Or., says: "When I commenced using Doan's kidney pills I was miserable as a result of kidney complaint. I could not stoop without suffering from pains in my back and was often kept awake at night on account of a dull aching through my loins. I used many medicines but the results were unsatisfactory until I procured Doan's kidney pills at Benson's Pharmacy. I was surprised and delighted at the quick relief I received and was so encouraged that I continued until completely cured. My general health is now so much better that I feel I can conscientiously recommend Doan's kidney pills."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Now is the Time to visit California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more rigid or severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourists." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.

Southern Pacific Company

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. The rate from Cottage Grove to Los Angeles is $35, limit six months, allowing stop-overs in either direction.
Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.
