

HENDERSON Habit Back

Corsets

"FRONT LACED"

reduce the full figure, giving it the flattened front and slender hip effects. They are absolutely hygienic and have the endorsement of the leading physicians and dressmakers. We call special attention to the model illustrated which is made in two lengths, high bust, for the tall figure, and medium bust, for the shorter waisted stout figure. This model is extremely long over the back and hips. The extra lacing in the back from the waist-line down permits an absolutely perfect adjustment over the back and assists further in keeping the hips in perfect subjection, thus giving the so-called hipless figure. We carry the front laced corsets in a varied line of materials at prices ranging from $2.50 to $12. We cordially invite the ladies of our city and vicinity to visit our corset department and inspect these most exquisite models. Consultation and fitting free.

WHERE YOU DO BETTER

COMMERCIAL CLUB'S SOCIAL EVENING

The Commercial Club social committee composed of both ladies and gentlemen gave a very pleasant and enjoyable social Wednesday evening at the club rooms to the club members and a few of their friends. H. O. Thompson, president of the club, presided in his usual pleasing manner and the following program was rendered:

Piano duet.....Misses Richmond Charade....."Gallantry"
Vocal solo.....Miss Anderson
Piano solo.....Miss Emma Job
Shadow pantomime.....Club members
Vocal duet....."Barney McCoy"
D. T. Aubrey, Mrs. A. Brund
Reading....."Stove-pipe-hole"
Harry Brehaut
Piano solo.....Miss Georgetta Berg

The club parlors were beautifully festooned in green, and most of the musical selections and other numbers on the program were of Irish composition and appropriate to Saint Patrick's day. Particularly elaborate was the charade "gallantry" in which the many characters representing the court of Queen Elizabeth, appeared in court costumes, in which the act of Sir Walter Raleigh, in spreading his robe over a muddy spot in the queen's pathway over which she passed, constituted the hidden word, which no one present at the social was able to discover. The gentleman and lady guests were given numbers from 1 to 12 respectively and their futures were revealed by the shadow pantomime exhibition which was very amusing. The duet, in Irish costumes, "Barney McCoy" by D. T. Aubrey and Mrs. Brund, received a hearty encore as did the other musical numbers and reading, Mr. Brehaut responding to a hearty encore. Following the program the meeting was resolved into a social session during which time refreshments consisting of "green" lettuce sandwiches, coffee, cake and fruit punch was served and various games were enjoyed until the wee small hours.

ABSENT WITNESSES CAUSE OF DELAY

The examination of Fay Allison and Charlie Dyer, the Cottage Grove youths charged with the crimes of rape and contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl, respectively, which was to have been held before Justice of the Peace Bryson Thursday morning, was postponed until Tuesday, March 30, at 9:30 a. m. on account of the absence of two important witnesses. One of them is one of the girls mixed up in the case. She has left Cottage Grove for parts unknown, but the officers think they can locate her easily. The other witness is sick. Allison and Dyer were admitted to $500 bonds each, which was furnished.

ONE OF US TWO.

The day will dawn when one of us shall harken
In vain to hear a voice that has grown dumb;
And morns shall fade, noons pale, and shadows darken
While sad eyes watch for feet that never come.
One of us two must some time face existence
Alone with memories that but sharpen pain;
And these sweet days shall shine back in the distance
Like dreams of summer dawns in nights of rain.
One of us two, with tortured heart half-broken,
Shall read long-treasured letters thro' salt tears;
Shall kiss with anguish lips each cherished token
That speaks of these love-crowned, delicious years.
One of us two shall find all light, all beauty.
All joy on earth a tale forever done;
Shall know henceforth that life means only duty—
O God! O God! have pity on that one.
—ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

New Factory for Cottage Grove.

Howard Beagle is erecting a neat building on the corner of his residence lot on Fourth street to be used as a work-shop or factory for the manufacture of one of the very best washing machines on the market for which he has the patent right for this state. He will put in the necessary machinery with which to manufacture these machines, at first, of course, on a limited scale, but the Leader predicts that he will soon find it necessary to enlarge his building and increase his working force, as the product which he will turn out cannot help being a winner. These are the kind of institutions which add materially in building up a town, and should be encouraged and sought for. The Leader wishes Mr. Beagle unbounded success in his enterprise.

Married.
